Smith, 2011-01-01 Too often the negative characterization of others in the biblical text is applied to groups and persons beyond the text whom we wish to define as the Other Otherness is a synthetic and political social construct that allows us to create and maintain boundaries between them and us The other that is too similar to us is most problematic This book demonstrates how proximate characters are constructed as the Other in the Acts of the Apostles Charismatics Jews and women are proximate others who are constructed as the external and internal Other The Other Anna Barbara Esstman, 1993-01-01 Anna's Christmas Cheryl

Freier,2015-09-30 The Second World War is raging in Slovakia The hostilities and the armed warfare are heightened to a fevers pitch The Nazis are coming to select all of the remaining Jews living in Micholovce Joseph Freier tells Anna and their four sons and daughter that they must escape immediately to the woods near Slovakia This happens in August of 1944 They escape to the woods and travel deep into the woods When they feel that they are safe they build an underground bunker Joseph was able to make arrangements with his former foreman and they know that there will be deliveries of food It is December of 1944 and the weather has been colder than in past years and the Germans are in the area Anna waits everyday for the weekly food delivery On this particular day she prayed to G d and asked him to save her family and her from starvation She hears the sounds of voices in the woods She thinks that she is hearing things but she soon realizes that people are out in the woods singing At this moment she didnt care if the people were Nazis or not she simply had to have food She called out No one heard her She moved toward the sound of the voices and called out again and again A horse that was in the front of a sleigh heard her calls The horses driver looked in the same direction and saw Anna He came over to Anna with two other men They were people from the nearby village A priest had organized the people of the town to bake cakes and cook turkeys and bring other foods to the people in the woods who were starving It was Christmas night and Anna had enough food to last for three weeks Anna always remembered the goodness of the people of the town Not only was she nourished and her family nourished but their spirits for living and in trusting people was renewed Hearings United States. Congress Senate,1950 The Ice House Laura Lee Smith,2017-12-05 A thought provoking multinational tale that will challenge your crime solving skills and teach you lots about the Scottish Highlands The St Augustine Record From a writer who s been praised for her intelligence heart wit Richard Russo Pulitzer Prize winning author of Empire Falls The Ice House follows the beleaguered MacKinnons as they weather the possible loss of the family business a serious medical diagnosis and the slings and arrows of familial discord Johnny MacKinnon might be on the verge of losing it all The ice factory he married into which he s run for decades is facing devastating OSHA fines following a mysterious accident and may have to close The only hope for Johnny s livelihood is that someone in the community saw something but no one seems to be coming forward He hasn t spoken to his son Corran back in Scotland since Corran s heroin addiction finally drove Johnny to the breaking point And now after a collapse on the factory floor it appears Johnny may have a brain tumor Johnny s been ordered to take it easy but in some ways he thinks what s left to lose This may be his last chance to bridge the gap with Corran and to have any sort of relationship with the baby granddaughter he s never met Smith weaves their stories expertly moving from Jacksonville to Scotland and back from another disaster to a laugh out loud moment Her tenderness toward her characters and subtle understanding of class differences in American society are reminiscent of such novelists as Richard Russo and Jennifer Egan but this heartbreaking heartwarming novel is an original Tampa Bay Times A beautiful character driven novel Indie Picks Magazine The Boundaries of Realism in World Literature Kornelije Kvas,2019-11-19 This book is a valuable theoretical and critical contribution to the study of realism in world literature Proceeding from the mimetic theories of the era of antiquity and proceeding to explore formalists structuralists theories of possible worlds and theories of simulation Kvas points to the fictionality of mimetic realism to literature and art as the creation of new fictional aesthetic worlds even when as in the case of realism there is a programmatic and practical inclination of such art and literature toward the world of the historical and the social the real in the original sense of the word This study will enable readers to confront in a new and dependable manner the issues of literary realism and its digressions into magical realism Anna's Shtetl Lawrence A. Coben, 2011-01-25 A rare view of a childhood in a European ghetto Anna Spector was born in 1905 in Korsun a Ukrainian town on the Ros River eighty miles south of Kiev Held by Poland until 1768 and annexed by the Tsar in 1793 Korsun and its fluid ethnic population were characteristic of the Pale of Settlement in Eastern Europe comprised of Ukrainians Cossacks Jews and other groups living uneasily together in relationships punctuated by violence Anna's father left Korsun in 1912 to immigrate to America and Anna left in 1919 having lived through the Great War the Bolshevik Revolution and part of the ensuing civil war as well as several episodes of more or less organized pogroms deadly anti Jewish riots begun by various invading military detachments during the Russian Civil War and joined by some of Korsun's peasants In the early 1990s Anna met Lawrence A Coben a medical doctor seeking information about the shtetls to recapture a sense of his own heritage Anna had near perfect recall of her daily life as a girl and young woman in the last days in one of those historic but doomed communities Her rare account the product of some 300 interviews is valuable because most personal memoirs of ghetto life are written by men Also very often Christian neighbors appear in ghetto accounts as a stolid peasant mass assembled on market days as destructive mobs or as an arrogant and distant collection of government officials and nobility Anna's story is exceptionally rich in a sense of the Korsun Christians as friends neighbors and individuals Although the Jewish communities in Eastern Europe are now virtually gone less than 100 years ago they counted a population of millions The firsthand records we have from that lost world are therefore important and this view from the underrecorded lives of women and the young is particularly welcome
