The Other Side Of The Moon The Life Of David Niven:

The Other Side of the Moon Sheridan Morley,1985 This compassionate account goes past the blithe persona Niven presented both on screen and in his memoirs into his failings disappointments and tragedies Born in London in 1910 the future suave performer tempted expulsion with schoolboy devilry he later served in the British army before emigrating to the U S His film career started in 1934 and lasted nearly to his death in 1983 but he failed to achieve stardom The terrible sorrow of Niven s life was the death of his wife Primula killed in a fall during her 20s when their sons were babies His second marriage to a Swedish model was unhappy There were other romantic involvements in Niven s life and many facets to his career that Morley reveals During World War II for instance he gave up Hollywood and returned to his homeland to fight for England yet was so afraid of poverty that throughout his career he accepted demeaning parts in many movies The moon s other side was darkest at the end when Niven succumbed to amyotrophic lateral sclerosis or Lou Gehrig s disease The Other Side of the Moon Sheridan Morley,1985 The Other Side of the Moon Sheridan Morley,2005 Sketches of musical life by a great viola player The Other Side of the Moon : the Life of David Niven ,2013 A frank and entertaining biography of David Niven derived from interviews with 130 of his friends and relatives Summary of Sheridan Morley's The Other Side of the Moon Everest Media,2022-08-08T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book

Sample Book Insights 1 I had known David Niven almost all of my life I had met him in Hollywood just after the war when I was a child living with my grandmother Gladys Cooper who was to work with him in both The Bishop s Wife and Separate Tables I had written magazine and Times profiles of him occasionally 2 The author realized that David had a book to write after hearing David s son say If you want to know about my father s life you won t find it in his autobiographies They re all about other people 3 The Moon s A Balloon and Bring on the Empty Horses are examples of how David changed his story to fit the needs of his books His autobiographies were the digest of his after dinner stories and his attitude to Hollywood was like that of Richard Gordon to medicine Henry Cecil to the law or James Herriot to the veterinary business 4 The function of the biographer is not to rewrite already existing memoirs in the light of further evidence but to start out from the very beginning as if those often partial and partisan works did not exist David Niven Sheridan Morley,1985 The ^Adream Endures Kevin Starr,2002-11-28 What we now call the good life first appeared in California during the 1930s Motels home trailers drive ins barbecues beach life and surfing sports from polo and tennis and golf to mountain climbing and skiing sportswear a word coined at the time and sun suits were all a part of the good life perhaps California s most distinctive influence of the 1930s In The Dream Endures Kevin Starr shows how the good life prospered in California in pursuits such as film fiction leisure and architecture and helped to define American culture and society then and for years to come Starr previously chronicled how Californians absorbed the thousand natural shocks of the Great Depression unemployment strikes Communist agitation reactionary conspiracies in Endangered Dreams the fourth volume of his classic history of California In The Dream Endures Starr reveals the other side of the picture examining the newly important places where the good life flourished like Los Angeles where Hollywood lived Palm Springs where Hollywood vacationed San Diego where the Navy went the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena where Einstein went and changed his view of the universe and college towns like Berkeley We read about the rich urban life of San Francisco and Los Angeles and in newly important communities like Carmel and San Simeon the home of William Randolph Hearst where each Thursday afternoon automobiles packed with Hollywood celebrities would arrive from Southern California for the long weekend at Hearst Castle The 1930s were the heyday of the Hollywood studios and Starr brilliantly captures Hollywood films and the society that surrounded the studios Starr offers an astute discussion of the European refugees who arrived in Hollywood during the period prominent European film actors and artists and the creative refugees who were drawn to Hollywood and Southern California in these years Igor Stravinsky Arnold Schoenberg Man Ray Bertolt Brecht Christopher Isherwood Aldous Huxley Thomas Mann and Franz Werfel Starr gives a fascinating account of how many of them attempted to recreate their European world in California and how others like Samuel Goldwyn provided stories and dreams for their adopted nation Starr reserves his greatest attention and most memorable writing for San Francisco For Starr despite the city's beauty and commercial importance San Francisco's most important achievement was the sense of well being it conferred on its citizens It was a city that magically belonged to everyone Whether discussing photographers like Edward Weston and Ansel Adams hard boiled fiction writers or the new breed of female star Marlene Dietrich Jean Harlow Bette Davis Carole Lombard and the improbable Mae West The Dream Endures is a brilliant social and cultural history in many ways the most far reaching and important of Starr's California books

David Niven Michael Munn, 2014-03-20 David Niven appeared in films for over 50 years of his life from swashbucklers such as The Prisoner of Zenda and The Guns of Navarone to the Pink Panther series Despite his on screen persona Niven wasn't always the perfect gentleman He was insecure both privately and professionally and used people to get ahead But he did he said at least try to be a decent man He knew he often failed although it isn't easy to find people who ever had a bad word to say about him In this fascinating biography of the star Munn looks at the funny stories and the sad underlying truth from his outrageous days with Errol Flynn and their irrevocable split You always know where you are with Flynn He always lets you down and numerous affairs with stars and prostitutes to an attempted suicide his horrific experiences in war torn France and the breakdown and blame of his second marriage This compelling text includes interviews with his second wife Hjordis John Huston Rex Harrison Laurence Olivier Loretta Young they discussed marriage once Niven's long time friend Michael Trubshawe Peter Ustinov Ava Gardner and many more

The Richard Burton Diaries Richard Burton, 2012-10-23 The personal diaries of the renowned actor and glamorous celebrity describe his life from 1939 to 1983 including his struggles with weight drinking and jealousy when other men looked at the love of his life Elizabeth Taylor
