Race Experts Elisabeth Lasch-Quinn,2002-12-17 Controversial and strikingly original Race Experts looks at how we capsized racial progress in the quest for self esteem Now available in paperback it uncovers the hidden trajectory and terms of our thinking about race relations since the 1960s Since segregation s dismantling intense anxiety has surrounded interracial encounters and a movement has arisen to engineer social relations through the specification of elaborate codes of conduct Diversity Training in business multicultural education in schools and cross cultural psychotherapy have created a world of prescriptions Elisabeth Lasch Quinn carefully examines the teachings of these self appointed experts and offers a bold and searching analysis of the origins of their ideas in the human potential movement and the radical milieu of the 1960s Casting race primarily as an issue of etiquette or therapy rather than of justice or equality has had dire consequences for American life diverting attention from the deeper problems of poverty violence and continued inequality and discrimination In this sobering analysis Race Experts illuminates how far away we are from the issues that deserve our attention

Using Nonfiction for Civic Engagement in Classrooms Vivian Yenika-Agbaw,Ruth McKoy Lowery,Paul H. Ricks,2018-02-22 This book acknowledges the existence of high quality nonfiction children s literature that may serve as a basis for conversation about civic engagements and our roles as global citizens It touches on our social history and offers ideas for how educators might be able to engage readers in healthy and useful dialogues on what it means to be human and how nonfiction texts attempt to reconstruct this reality in this quest to recognize our collective humanity

Faith Shaping Ministry Paul E. Hoffman,2013-09-16 What happens after a congregation welcomes new Christians into its ministry Building on the work of the first volume in this series Faith Forming Faith Paul Hoffman interprets how a congregation that intentionally practices baptism and its renewal is itself re formed Pastors teachers lay leaders students of ministry and people in the pew all will find the compelling story of the ministry of Phinney Ridge Lutheran Church in Seattle Washington one of our nation s most secular cities to be an inspiring and practical primer for renewal Who would have thought Bringing others to the waters of baptism transforms those already at home in the congregation In fact this intentional spiritual practice completely transforms the parish and the lives of God s people There are new discoveries to be made in the ancient treasures of the Church as these gifts are shared with those hungering and thirsting for a place at God s table

Literate Lives Amy Seely Flint,2007-11-09 Literate Lives Teaching Reading and Writing in Elementary Classrooms invites readers to consider the complexities of the reading process in diverse settings The text is designed to meet the challenges and needs of undergraduate and graduate teacher candidates in elementary education programs helping them to have a better first year in the classroom experience The text introduces teacher candidates to the notion that reading is a complex multi layered process that begins early in a child s life Reading by all accounts is more than decoding symbols on a page While this is one component of the reading process it is important for teacher candidates to see a broader more complete picture of reading Given the role that reading plays in the elementary school curriculum it is imperative that teachers have a well developed understanding of the reading process and what it means to be a teacher of readers Literate Lives Teaching Reading and Writing in the Elementary Classroom covers the major theories and application strategies of the reading process as well as current debates in the field using a unique framework that builds upon the following themes believing that literacy is based in social cultural and historical contexts assuming an inquiry stance being problem posers and wondering why using kidwatching Goodman 1985 as an assessment tool to make informed instructional decisions recognizing and using the multiple literacies that children bring to the classroom lingering and reflecting on one s decisions in light of what one knows and believes
