Lefebure,2014-04-10 When believers read the sacred texts of other religions through a hermeneutic of hostility the consequences can be deadly Christian history shows that the Bible is no exception In recent decades however many Christian traditions have radically refashioned their approach to other religious traditions and to biblical interpretation This new hermeneutics of generosity seeks to uncover what can be learned from other holy texts and the communities that treasure them and also seeks to find common ground on important issues such as human rights and religious liberty Lefebure offers Christian readings of Jewish Muslim Hindu and Buddhist holy texts that suggest new bases for friendship and understanding Noting the challenges and tensions in the relationship between Christians and these four other religious communities he also examines the specific issues involved in interpreting the Christian Bible in interreligious dialogue He concludes with a reflection on the experience of conversion in light of the theology of Bernard Lonergan and the mimesis theory of Rene Girard
