The Great Movies IV Roger Ebert, 2020-03-04 Essays from the influential and beloved film critic No one has done as much as Ebert to connect the creators of movies with their consumers Richard Corliss Time Over more than four decades Roger Ebert built a reputation writing reviews for the Chicago Sun Times and later arguing onscreen with rival Chicago Tribune critic Gene Siskel and later Richard Roeper about the movies they loved and loathed But Ebert's wisdom went well beyond a mere thumbs up or thumbs down The Great Movies IV is the fourth and final collection of Roger Ebert's essays comprising sixty two reviews of films ranging from the silent era to the recent past From films like The Cabinet of Caligari and Viridiana that have been considered canonical for decades to movies only recently recognized as masterpieces to Superman The Big Lebowski and Pink Floyd The Wall the pieces gathered here demonstrate the critical acumen seen in Ebert's daily reviews and the more reflective and wide ranging considerations that the longer format allowed him to offer Also included are an insightful foreword by film critic Matt Zoller Seitz editor in chief of the official Roger Ebert website and a touching introduction by Chaz Ebert A fitting capstone to a truly remarkable career The Great Movies IV will introduce newcomers to some of the most exceptional movies ever made while revealing new insights to connoisseurs

Cinema and Classical Texts Martin M. Winkler, 2009-02-12 This book interprets films as visual texts and demonstrates the affinities between Greco Roman literature and the cinema

In Search of Cinema Bert Cardullo, 2004 In Search of Cinema chronicles the vitality of international film art in the last two decades At a time when the movie review has degenerated into mere publicity for Hollywood pictures and film scholarship has become entangled in its own pseudo scientific discourse Bert Cardullo reclaims the territory of a certain type of film critic somewhere between a reviewer journalist and a scholar theorist With elegance clarity and rigour he offers close readings of individual films to show how moviemakers use the resources of the medium to pursue complex significant human goals The essays collected here reflect the spectacular rise of Iranian cinema in recent years as well as the strong contributions of contemporary filmmakers from countries such as Belgium Canada China Israel Lebanon Scotland and Spain But In Search of Cinema does not neglect the best recent films from major film producing nations like the United States France and Italy and includes retrospective pieces on the careers of Ingmar Bergman and Woody Allen as well as several essays on the interrelationship between film form or film genres and drama and the novel the two forms from which the cinema continues to draw a wealth of its material

Free as Gods Charles A. Riley, 2017-06-06 A lively wide ranging look at the connections inside the core group of avant garde artists in Jazz Age Paris

Eric Rohmer Éric Rohmer, 2013 The 1969 film Ma Nuit chez Maud catapulted its shy academic film director Eric Rohmer 1920 2010 into the limelight selling over a million tickets in France and earning a nomination for an Academy Award Ma Nuit chez Maud remains his most famous film the highlight of an impressive range of films examining the sexual romantic and artistic mores of contemporary France the temptations of desire the small joys of everyday life and sometimes the vicissitudes of history and politics Yet Rohmer was already forty years old when Maud was released and had already had a career as the editor of Cahiers du Cinéma a position he lost in a political takeover in 1963 The interviews in this book offer a range of insights into the theoretical critical and practical circumstances of Rohmer's remarkably coherent body of films but also allow Rohmer to act as his own critic providing us with an array of readings concerning his interest in setting season color and narrative Alongside the application of a theoretical rigor to his own films Rohmer's interviews also discuss directors as varied as Godard Carné Renoir and Hitchcock and the relations of film to painting architecture and music This book reproduces little known interviews such as a debate Rohmer undertakes with Women and Film concerning feminism alongside detailed discussions from Cahiers and Positif many produced in English here for the first time

The Planetary Clock Paul Giles, 2021-02-11 The theme of The Planetary Clock is the representation of time in postmodern culture and the way temporality as a global phenomenon manifests itself differently across an antipodean axis To trace postmodernism in an expansive spatial and temporal arc from its formal experimentation in the 1960s to environmental concerns in the twenty first century is to describe a richer and more complex version of this cultural phenomenon Exploring different scales of time from a Southern Hemisphere perspective with a special emphasis on issues of Indigeneity and the Anthropocene The Planetary Clock offers a wide ranging revisionist account of postmodernism reinterpreting literature film music and visual art of the post 1960 period within a planetary framework By bringing the culture of Australia and New Zealand into dialogue with other Western narratives it suggests how an antipodean impulse involving the transposition of the world into different spatial and temporal dimensions has long been an integral if generally occluded aspect of postmodernism Taking its title from a Florentine clock designed in 1510 to measure worldly time alongside the rotation of the planets The Planetary Clock ranges across well known American postmodernists John Barth Toni Morrison to more recent science fiction writers Octavia Butler Richard Powers while bringing the US tradition into juxtaposition with both its English Philip Larkin Ian McEwan and Australian Les Murray Alexis Wright counterparts By aligning cultural postmodernism with music Messiaen Ligeti Birtwistle the visual arts Hockney Blackman Fiona Hall and cinema Rohmer Haneke Tarantino this volume enlarges our understanding of global postmodernism for the twenty first century The Captive of the Castle of Sennaar, an African Tale: Containing Various Anecdotes of the Sophians Hitherto Unknown to Mankind in General George Cumberland, 1798
