Leaders and Battles W.J. Wood, 2009-04-23 No one man can win a battle by himself but battles have been won and lost because of the strength or failings of one individual the leader What went on in the minds and hearts of a select group of military leaders at critical moments in battle is the theme of this book In Leaders and Battles W J Wood re creates ten battles from history depicting the action in vivid detail the brilliant formations charging horses clanking bayonets The point of view is always that of the commanding officer The particular quality of leadership that won or lost the encounter is very clear For Mad Anthony Wayne at Stony Point it was courage that won the day For Scipio Africanus at Ilipa it was imagination Custer s judgment at the Little Big Horn was definitely in question When the French stormed Ratisbon it was the inspiration of Lannes that broke the impasse At the battle of Bushy Run Bouquet could never have outwitted Pontiac had he lacked flexibility The dynamics of battle as well as the strategy and tactics involved are equally well demonstrated Though the means of fighting varied as much as the time and the civilizations involved the lessons learned are just as applicable today Men no longer fight with drawn swords make barricades out of mealie bags or use a swarm of bees as a weapon But that is part of this book s fascination Leaders and Battles is a remarkable retelling of fighting engagements for the armchair strategist the leader in training the history buff and the general reader It will take time before the major wars and low intensity skirmishes of this century can be written about with the historical detachment and understanding that the author displays here In the meantime we can all profit from these lessons of history      Special Bibliographic Series US Army Military History Research Collection,1976      Cutting for All! Kevin L. Seligman,1996 Containing 2 729 entries Kevin L Seligman s bibliography concentrates on books manuals journals and catalogs covering a wide range of sartorial approaches over nearly five hundred years After a historical overview Seligman approaches his subject chronologically listing items by century through 1799 then by decade In this section he deals with works on flat patterning draping grading and tailoring techniques as well as on such related topics as accessories armor civil costumes clerical costumes dressmakers systems fur gloves leather military uniforms and undergarments Seligman then devotes a section to those American and English journals published for the professional tailor and dressmaker Here too he includes the related areas of fur and undergarments A section devoted to journal articles features selected articles from costume and noncostumerelated professional journals and periodicals The author breaks these articles down into three categories American English and other Seligman then devotes separate sections to other related areas providing alphabetical listings of books and professional journals for costume and dance dolls folk and national dress footwear millinery and wigmaking and hair A section devoted to commercial pattern companies periodicals and catalogs is followed by an appendix covering pattern companies publishers and publications In addition to full bibliographic notation Seligman provides a library call number and library location if that information is available The majority of the listings are annotated Each listing is coded for identification and cross referencing An author index a title index a subject index and a chronological index will guide readers to the material they want Seligman s historical review of the development of publications on the sartorial arts professional journals and the commercial paper pattern industry puts the bibliographical material into context An appendix provides a cross reference guide for research on American and English pattern companies publishers and publications Given the size and scope of the bibliography there is no other reference work even remotely like it      Catalog of Copyright Entries.
