Sister Circle Black Women And Work:

Sister Circle Sharon Harley, 2002 Sister Circle Black Women and Work is the end product of almost a decade's commitment made to each other by a small group of interdisciplinary Black and one white Sister Scholars at the University of Maryland in 1993. Still Working While Black Antione D. Tomlin, 2023-06-01 Just as the first edited volume of this book Working While Black The Untold Stories of Student Affairs Practitioners examined student affairs professionals' narratives and how they navigate their professional experiences, this one has a similar aim. This new volume birthed from the overwhelmingly positive feedback and massive interest from other Black professionals needing to share and tell their stories. So with that in mind, a goal of this book is to share more of the untold stories of Black student affairs practitioners by Black student affairs practitioners. Tomlin 2022 p X This book crafted from an asset-based approach, chapter authors share the challenges and opportunities they have experienced due to being a Black while working as a student affairs practitioner. Additionally, chapter authors provide poignant advice on how current and potential student affairs professionals can successfully navigate the field. Authors within the book are from various student affairs areas and have a wide range of knowledge, expertise, and lived experiences. Such areas include Greek Life, Residence Life, Athletics, International Student Support, Diversity, Access, Career Services, Financial aid, Enrollment, and more. Given the depth and breadth of experiences and expertise, each chapter will provide poignant suggestions for student affairs practitioners across the nation and institutions looking to understand these experiences to support their employees better. College campuses and spaces operate as models of the greater society. Therefore, all of the challenges and issues of racism, discrimination, and anti-Blackness are present. Rankin et al 2017 While students experience these challenges and issues first-hand, so do the folks hired to support students. The student affairs practitioners Kanagala and Oliver 2019 claimed that for institutions of higher education to be equitable and inclusive, college administrators, faculty, and staff, including student affairs professionals, must attend to the needs of students, especially students with multiple marginalized identities. p 410 I argue the same is accurate in creating more equitable and inclusive spaces for student affairs employees. Student affairs practitioners: Blackness must be accepted to move toward equity and inclusivity. So this book roars: student affairs and white colleagues, please respect our Blackness. Our Blackness is a part of our story, not yours. Tomlin 2022 p 176 Higher education institutions can learn much from the stories shared in this book that can inform the recruitment and retention of Black professionals. Thus Still Working While Black The Untold Stories of Student Affairs Practitioners is a must-read for all higher education professionals and institutions looking for strategies to support Black student affairs practitioners. Black Women in the Ivory Tower, 1850-1954 Stephanie Y. Evans, 2016-12-01 Evans chronicles the stories of African American women who struggled for and won access to formal education beginning in 1850 when Lucy Stanton, a student at Oberlin College, earned the first college diploma conferred on an African American woman. In the century between the Civil War and the civil rights movement, a critical increase in Black women's educational attainment mirrored unprecedented national growth in American education Evans reveals how black women demanded space as students and asserted their voices as educators despite such barriers as violence discrimination and oppressive campus policies contributing in significant ways to higher education in the United States She argues that their experiences ideas and practices can inspire contemporary educators to create an intellectual democracy in which all people have a voice Among those Evans profiles are Anna Julia Cooper who was born enslaved yet ultimately earned a doctoral degree from the Sorbonne and Mary McLeod Bethune founder of Bethune Cookman College Exposing the hypocrisy in American assertions of democracy and discrediting European notions of intellectual superiority Cooper argued that all human beings had a right to grow Bethune believed that education is the right of all citizens in a democracy Both women's philosophies raised questions of how human and civil rights are intertwined with educational access scholarly research pedagogy and community service This first complete educational and intellectual history of black women carefully traces quantitative research explores black women's collegiate memories and identifies significant geographic patterns in America's institutional development Evans reveals historic perspectives patterns and philosophies in academia that will be an important reference for scholars of gender race and education Women and Work Christine Leiren Mower, Susanne Weil, 2010-08-11

While issues surrounding women and work may be more subtle today than in the past problems of workplace equity child rearing and domestic labor pose problems of balance that continue to evade solution as women today face substantial shifts in the meanings and practices of marriage work and reproduction amid a globalized economy The essays in Women and Work: The Labors of Self Fashioning explore how nineteenth and twentieth century US and British writers represent the work of being women where work is defined broadly to encompass not only paid labor inside and outside the home but also the work of performing femininity and domesticity How did nineteenth and twentieth century US and British writers revise then contemporary social assumptions about who should be performing work and for what purpose How fully did these writers perceive the class implications of their arguments for taking jobs outside the home How does work both inside and outside the home contribute to female identity and conversely how does it promote what legal theorist Kenji Yoshino terms the demands of covering women's strategic use of stereotypes of femininity and masculinity to succeed in the marketplace In articles appropriate for both upper level undergraduate and graduate students in literature and literary history women's studies feminist and gender studies contributors engage these questions covering both canonical and popular middlebrow nineteenth and twentieth century writers such as Gilman Cather Alcott Schreiner Wharton Le Sueur Gissing Wood Lewis and Mitchell Women and Work will also interest scholars concerned with this developing discourse Unorganized Women Jane Greer, 2023-02-14 Across a range of industrial domestic and agricultural sites Greer shows how repetitive discursive performances served as rhetorical tools as women workers sought to rescript power relations in their workplaces and to resist narratives about their laboring lives The case studies reveal noteworthy patterns in how these women's words helped to construct the complex web of class relations in which they were enmeshed Rather than a teleological narrative of economic empowerment over the course of a century Unorganized Women speaks to the enduring obstacles low and no wage women face their creativity and resilience in the face of adversity and the challenges that impede the creation of meaningful coalitions By focusing on repetitive rhetorical labor this book affords a point of entry for analyzing the discursive productions of a range of women workers and for constructing a richer history of women s rhetoric in the United States Black Women Mothering & Daughtering During a Dual Pandemic Venus E. Evans-Winters,Amber Jean-Marie Pabon,Theresa Y.

Robinson,2024-04-01 The contributors of this volume share with the scholarly community how they have learned to strive resist adapt and re conceptualize Black women s mental health and labor during the dual pandemics of white supremacy and COVID 19 This book is unique in that it calls for the contributing authors to draw upon and reflect on the use of sisterhood and a literacy circle to cope with an economic crisis mass death and racial battle fatigue during a worldwide pandemic Specifically the invited authors draw inspiration from Venus E Evans Winters book Black Feminism in Qualitative Inquiry A Mosaic for Writing Our Daughter s Body as an exemplar of research that both centers the issues and concerns of Black women scholar practitioner activists and presents a methodology consistent with Black feminist ways of knowing and expressions Evans Winters theoretical and methodological writings are among the first works in research and gender studies that have successfully interwoven Black feminists politics spirituality and Africanism with educational research and thought Using constructed stories from the authors personal narratives Black Women Mothering and Daughtering During a Dual Pandemic Writing Our Backs addresses themes pertinent to Black women s lives including our socialization and socio emotional development mother daughter and other mother daughter relationships navigating the racial politics of schooling friendships survivorship and grief using non normative methodological concepts and practices The authors explore concepts such as daughtering politicking mother speak and cultural exchange while employing linguistic expressions such as prose text messages dialogue and personal narrative firmly planted in authentic Black womanist aesthetics Furthermore the authors highlight and demonstrate why and how they utilize reading and Black women s literary works to critically reflect meaningfully write heal and do their work in times of peril Morrison 2019 More specifically this book explores how the authors draw from Black women s cultural literacies in teaching healing mentoring and activism How are Black women s literary works as a body of knowledge used in healing spaces to marshal new or forgotten healing methodologies cultural frame of references and spiritual awakenings The contributing authors address this question from multiple perspectives such as education social work and psychology Collectively the authors advance Black women s mental wealth as a theoretical and methodological healing modality that meets their multiple identities as spiritual and cultural beings educators daughters mothers sisters healers and social activists This is the first anthology to explore how Black women s literacy during a state of racial unrest and resistance alongside a global health pandemic shapes our cultural knowledge ways of coping and spiritual endeavors across varied and often ambiguous contexts      Working Women in Canada Leslie Nichols,2019-08-23 In this edited collection Leslie Nichols weaves together the contributions of accomplished and diverse scholars to offer an expansive and critical analysis of women s work in Canada Students will use an intersectional approach to explore issues of gender class race immigrant status disability sexual orientation Indigeneity age and ethnicity in relation to employment Drawing from case studies and extensive research the text s eighteen chapters consider Canadian industries across a broad spectrum including political academic sport sex trade retail and entrepreneurial work Working Women in Canada is a relevant and in depth look into the past present and future of women s responsibilities and professions in Canada Undergraduate and graduate students in gender studies labour studies and sociology courses will benefit from this thorough and intersectional approach to the study of women s labour      Black Sisterhoods: Paradigms and Praxis Denise Davis Maye,Sophia Rahming,Jill Andrews,Tamara Bertrand J,2022-03-18 Sisterhood is oft elusive if not a misunderstood concept Despite all the factors that could impede the development elevation and maintenance of sistering relationships Black women continue to acknowledge the value of sisterhoods Sistering offers a lifeline of support and validation Holding membership in an empowering woman centered relationship is a special kind of privilege The authors in this volume contest any assumption that sisterhood is limited to blood relationships and physical proximity In this volume we consider sisterhood simultaneously as paradigm and praxis We approach Sisterhood as Paradigm and attempt to parse out the nature of Sisterhood as it is understood in Black communities in the United States We hope to convey an organized set of ideas about sisterhood to create sisterhood as a model of interaction or way of being with one another specifically among Black women As we consider how sisterhood could be enacted as practice Using Sisterhood as a framework we explore Sisterhood as Peer Support examining how Black women provide support to peers in academic and professional settings we embark on a provision of applied exemplars of sistering in emerging digital media in Digital Sisterhood      The Woman as Slave in Nineteenth-Century American Social Movements Ana Stevenson,2020-02-03 This book is the first to develop a history of the analogy between woman and slave charting its changing meanings and enduring implications across the social movements of the long nineteenth century Looking beyond its foundations in the antislavery and women s rights movements this book examines the influence of the woman slave analogy in popular culture along with its use across the dress reform labor suffrage free love racial uplift and anti vice movements At once provocative and commonplace the woman slave analogy was used to exceptionally varied ends in the era of chattel slavery and slave emancipation Yet as this book reveals a more diverse assembly of reformers both accepted and embraced a woman as slave worldview than has previously been appreciated One of the most significant yet controversial rhetorical strategies in the history of feminism the legacy of the woman slave analogy continues to underpin the debates that shape feminist theory today      Upbuilding Black Durham Leslie Brown,2009-11-17 In the 1910s both W E B Du Bois and Booker T Washington praised the black community in Durham North Carolina for its exceptional race progress Migration urbanization and industrialization had turned black Durham from a post Civil War liberation community into the capital of the black middle class African Americans owned and operated mills factories churches schools and an array of retail services shops community organizations and race institutions Using interviews narratives and family stories Leslie Brown animates the history of this remarkable city from emancipation to the civil rights era as freedpeople and their descendants struggled among themselves and with whites to give meaning to black freedom Brown paints Durham in the Jim Crow era as a place of dynamic change where despite common aspirations gender and class conflicts emerged Placing African American women at the center of the story Brown describes how black Durham s multiple constituencies experienced a range of social conditions Shifting the historical perspective away from seeing solidarity as essential to effective struggle or viewing dissent as a measure of weakness Brown demonstrates that friction among African Americans generated rather than depleted energy sparking many activist initiatives on behalf of the black community The Cambridge Companion to African American Women's Literature Angelyn Mitchell, Danille K.

Taylor, 2009-04-30 The Cambridge Companion to African American Women s Literature covers a period dating back to the eighteenth century These specially commissioned essays highlight the artistry complexity and diversity of a literary tradition that ranges from Lucy Terry to Toni Morrison A wide range of topics are addressed from the Harlem Renaissance to the Black Arts Movement and from the performing arts to popular fiction Together the essays provide an invaluable guide to a rich complex tradition of women writers in conversation with each other as they critique American society and influence American letters Accessible and vibrant with the needs of undergraduate students in mind this Companion will be of great interest to anybody who wishes to gain a deeper understanding of this important and vital area of American literature

Ethnopornography Pete Sigal, Zeb Tortorici, Neil L. Whitehead, 2019-12-13 With topics that span the sixteenth century to the present in Latin America the United States Australia the Middle East and West Africa the contributors show how ethnopornography the eroticized observation of the Other for supposedly scientific or academic purposes is fundamental to the creation of race colonialism and archival and ethnographic knowledge Start a Riot! Casarae Lavada Abdul-Ghani, 2022-07-27 While the legacy of Black urban rebellions during the turbulent 1960s continues to permeate throughout US histories and discourses scholars seldom explore within scholarship examining Black Cultural Production artist writers of the Black Arts Movement BAM that addressed civil unrest specifically riots in their artistic writings Start a Riot Civil Unrest in Black Arts Movement Drama Fiction and Poetry analyzes riot iconography and its usefulness as a political strategy of protestation Through a mixed methods approach of literary close reading historical and sociological analysis Casarae Lavada Abdul Ghani considers how BAM artist writers like Amiri Baraka LeRoi Jones Ben Caldwell Gwendolyn Brooks Sonia Sanchez and Henry Dumas challenge misconceptions regarding Black protest through experimental explorations in their writings Representations of riots became more pronounced in the 1960s as pivotal leaders shaping

Black consciousness such as Malcolm X and Martin Luther King Jr were assassinated BAM artist writers sought to override the public's interpretation in their literary exposés that a riot's disjointed and disorderly methods led to more chaos than reparative justice. Start a Riot uncovers how BAM artist writers expose anti-Black racism and by extension the United States' inability to compromise with Black America on matters related to citizenship rights, housing, security, economic inequality, and education. Tenets emphasized during the Black Power Movement. Abdul Ghani argues that BAM artist writers did not merely write literature that reflected a spirit of protest; in many cases, they understood their texts themselves as acts of protest.

Building Houses Out of Chicken Legs Psyche A. Williams-Forson, 2006. Chicken, both the bird and the food, has played multiple roles in the lives of African American women from the slavery era to the present. It has provided food and a source of income for their families, shaped a distinctive culture, and helped women define themselves. Living with Jim Crow L. Brown, A. Valk, 2010-07-19. Using first-person narratives collected through oral history interviews, this groundbreaking book collects Black women's memories of their public and private lives during the period of legal segregation in the American South.

Whose Harlem Is This, Anyway? Shannon King, 2017-04. Demonstrates how Harlemites' dynamic fight for their rights and neighborhood raised the Black community's racial consciousness and established Harlem's legendary political culture. King uncovers early twentieth-century Harlem as an intersection between the Black intellectuals and artists who created the New Negro Renaissance and the working class who fought daily to combat institutionalized racism and gender discrimination in both Harlem and across the city. Adapted from publisher description.

"We Must Be Up and Doing" Teresa C. Zackodnik, 2010-03-11. African American women have been up and doing for their communities for as long as they have been in the United States, and their ability to resist the institution of slavery was central to the survival of African Americans. This anthology gives readers access to African American feminist thought in its foundational period by drawing together key documents from the late 1820s through the 1920s. Going beyond a focus on the greats of Black feminism to include lesser-known figures, We Must Be Up and Doing offers a broad and contextualized look at the critical mass of early Black feminism achieved by including a variety of genres such as the spiritual, autobiography, the platform speech, periodical articles, pamphlets, fiction, and excerpts from convention and conference proceedings.

Family Money Jeffery Clymer, 2013. Encompassing a wide range of topics, periods, and genres, this series presents an expansive, forward-looking approach to American literary and cultural history, emphasizing venturesome scholarship, critical sophistication, and engaging research.

Book jacket: Hannah Mary Tabbs and the Disembodied Torso Kali N. Gross, 2018. The narrative of the discovery of a hacked-up body outside of Philadelphia leads to a police investigation and trial of a woman and man, which sheds light on post-Reconstruction America, the history of African Americans, illicit sex, and domestic violence.

The Routledge Handbook on the American Dream Robert C. Haughart, Mitja Sardoč, 2022-11-30. The Routledge Handbook on the American Dream Volume 2 explores the social, economic, and cultural aspects of the American Dream in both theory and reality in the twenty-first century This collection of essays brings together leading scholars from a range of fields to further develop the themes and issues explored in the first volume The concept of the American Dream first expounded by James Truslow Adams in The Epic of America in 1931 is at once both ubiquitous and difficult to define The term perfectly captures the hopes of freedom opportunity and upward social mobility invested in the nation However the American Dream appears increasingly illusory in the face of widening inequality and apparent lack of opportunity particularly for the poor and ethnic or otherwise marginalized minorities in the United States As such an understanding of the American Dream through both theoretical analyses and empirical studies whether qualitative or quantitative is crucial to understanding contemporary America Like the first volume of The Routledge Handbook on the American Dream this collection will be of great interest to students and researchers in a range of fields in the humanities and social sciences
