stimulate dialogue among queer scholars 4 to set a preliminary research agenda and 5 to explore the implications of the scholarship in cultural politics and personal empowerment and transformation Queer Theory and Communication boasts an esteemed panel of academics artists activists editors and essayists Contributors include John Nguyet Erni editor of Asian Media Studies and Research Analysis Program Board member for GLAAD Joshua Gamson author of Freaks Talk Back Tabloid Talk Shows and Sexual Nonconformity Sally Miller Gearhart author activist and actress Judith Halberstam author of Female Masculinity David M Halperin author of How to Do the History of Homosexuality E Patrick Johnson editor of Black Queer Studies Kevin Kumashiro author of Troubling Education Queer Activism and Antioppressive Pedagogy Thomas Nakayama co editor of Whiteness The Communication of Social Identity A Susan Owen author of Bad Girls Cultural Politics and Media Representations of Transgressive Women William F Pinar author of Autobiography Politics and Sexuality and editor of Queer Theory in Education Ralph Smith co author of Progay antigay The Rhetorical War over Sexuality Queer Theory and Communication From Disciplining Queers to Queering the Discipline s is an essential addition to the critical consciousness of anyone involved in communication media studies cultural studies gender studies and the study of human sexuality whether in the classroom the boardroom or the bedroom

Line Drawings Cressida Heyes, 2018-08-06 At the heart of feminist theory lies the seemingly intractable issue of essentialism Feminism has thus far failed to transcend critiques of essentialism and currently offers only two inadequate positions against it One response reifies the category women representing the experience of oppression of privileged women as archetypal for feminism and the other denies the category because it unjustly overgeneralizes thus undercutting the possibility of a robust theory of gender oppression To spur anti essentialist methods and practice around such issues as sexual violence feminist theory crucially needs a constructive and politically powerful strategy for defining women Cressida J Heyes deftly elucidates and then travels beyond the essentialism debates to rescue the efficacy of feminist theory for activism and research She offers a genealogy of essentialism specifically as it applies to the work of Carol Gilligan and Catharine MacKinnon and employs a Wittgensteinian approach to feminism that understands similarities between women as family resemblances and political decisions about inclusion and exclusion as contextual and purposive Line Drawings argues for an anti essentialist method that enables generalizing feminist discourse but insists on paying close attention to the operations of power in constructing claims about women This is a fresh and vitally important step past stymied debate on what is arguably the most pressing issue in cross disciplinary feminist theory

Race and Racialization, 2E Tania Das Gupta, Carl E. James, Chris Andersen, Grace-Edward Galabuzi, Roger C. A. Maaka, 2018-02-01 Few words have generated as much debate and controversy as the word race Through a critical examination of this complex subject this anthology brings together essential contributions to the study of race and racialization An excellent compilation of classic and contemporary works by academic and activist writers Race and Racialization provides historical comparative and global perspectives on race and its intersection with gender class ethnicity indigeneity and sexuality This well updated second edition includes a new section on state multiculturalism and a diverse ensemble of Canadian and international contributors who explore such relevant themes as colonialism institutional racism ethnocentrism privilege marginalization and resistance Featuring introductions to each piece written by the editors annotated lists of supplementary readings to encourage further exploration and contributions by activists from Idle No More and Black Lives Matter this comprehensive and highly accessible anthology is perfect for students studying race racism cultural diversity identity and belonging social inequality and social justice
