The Valley of the Fallen Donald Katz, 2001-10-09 Few writers can match journalist Donald Katz's ability to make an exotic locale familiar or transform an ordinary place into something peculiar if not completely weird The Valley of the Fallen and Other Places gathers a pastiche of stories from around the world each of which subtly underlines the relationship between geography and politics Locations counties regions of the world emerge as characters in Katz's panoramic cast as fully drawn as the unusual people that occupy them so that one realizes of each particular account that this could only happen in a place like this The setting for each of these pieces whether home or abroad provides a resonant backdrop for Katz's startling perceptions and cultural acumen. He paints a portrait of Spain in which people are dying of political repression and vividly depicts Italy in the throes of a postwar capitalist hangover. Katz describes Arkansas its history of racial strife notwithstanding as an American cultural ark where respect for old-fashioned gumption and the tolerance for human eccentricity have fostered a renaissance of spirit. He captures the poignant ruin of political ideals gone amuck in the image of columns of Ethiopian children being herded through the night at gunpoint undergoing political re-education. Katz's observations of the Sinai where beliefs convictions even hunches become howling zeal contrast with Santa Fe's philosophical cogitating and quality of life improvement projects in a New Age mecca that breeds tamer but equally fervent faiths. The cumulative effect of reading this eclectic collection is one of wonder about the mysterious and dazzling world in which we live and the way our lives are shaped by our place in it.

Observations at the Speed of Life Ed Doherty, 2024-02-29 Observations at the Speed of Life is a collection of stories that have been shared with others throughout a career of mentoring and motivating friends family and coworkers. Sometimes humorous sometimes inspirational and occasionally packed with wisdom. They are all about aspiring to be the best version of yourself. Some of the essays are very personal and some are philosophical but regardless each one packs a message about hope and the value of persistence. This book is a result of more than forty years of preparing and writing weekly messages to the teams Ed managed. Those messages consisted of his workplace observations about performance motivation management leadership and integrity. They were timely lessons that could be applied immediately. When Ed transitioned to full-time consulting those messages continued but in the form of a Wednesday Weblog to an international audience. The stories range from working as a pipefitter third class unskilled during the Vietnam War to an all-night production session with Larry Bird making a television commercial to befriending an eighty-year-old usher at Fenway Park to running the Boston Marathon for the first time at the age of seventy and everything in between. Harper's Young People, 1883 Leaving Reality James Wollrab, Rob Collette, 2014-06-06 This is the unusual story of a young lad who grows up in Alaska with his life dominated by dreams of playing hockey in the National Hockey League. His family and friends and home town all lend helping hands but he has to battle on all levels past a personal adversary who tries to block him with every step. Only in the final chapter can we measure the success or failure of our young hero's life. Skating John Moyer Heathcote, C. G. Tebbutt, T. Maxwell class Marriage of course would never do But in a season of miracles something wondrous is about to happen CHRISTMAS BEAU Not even the warm forgiving Christmas spirit can stop the Marquess of Denbigh from settling his score with Judith
