Skeletons Closet San Diego:

San Diego's Hysterical History Herbert Lockwood, 2003 Readers will enjoy these tales of eccentric kooks and the many other oddball men and women whose antics made San Diego the superior attraction it is today Skeletons in Our Closet Clark Spencer Larsen, 2020-09-01 The dead tell no tales Or do they In this fascinating book Clark Spencer Larsen shows that the dead can speak to us about their lives and ours through the remarkable insights of bioarchaeology which reconstructs the lives and lifestyles of past peoples based on the study of skeletal remains The human skeleton is an amazing storehouse of information It records the circumstances of our growth and development as reflected in factors such as disease stress diet nutrition climate activity and injury Bioarchaeologists by combining the methods of forensic science and archaeology along with the resources of many other disciplines including chemistry geology physics and biology read the information stored in bones to understand what life was really like for our human ancestors They are unearthing some surprises For instance the shift from hunting and gathering to agriculture approximately 10 000 years ago has commonly been seen as a major advancement in the course of human evolution However as Larsen provocatively shows this change may not have been so positive Compared to their hunter gatherer ancestors many early farmers suffered more disease had to work harder and endured a poorer quality of life due to poorer diets and more marginal living conditions Moreover the past 10 000 years have seen dramatic changes in the human physiognomy as a result of alterations in our diet and lifestyle Some modern health problems including obesity and chronic disease may also have their roots in these earlier changes Drawing on vivid accounts from his own experiences as a bioarchaeologist Larsen guides us through some of the key developments in recent human evolution including the adoption of agriculture the arrival of Europeans in the Americas and the biological consequences of this contact and the settlement of the American West in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Written in a lively and engaging manner this book is for anyone interested in what the dead have to tell us about the living Empire Builder Sandra E. Bonura, 2022-12 Empire Builder is the previously untold story of John D Spreckels the pioneer who almost singlehandedly built San Diego after creating empires in sugar shipping transportation and building development up and down the coast of California and across the Pacific San Diego Specters John J. Lamb, 1999 San Diego Specters is an entertaining investigation into haunted sites some famous and others obscure throughout San Diego County Fresh witness accounts are combined with genuine historical research on each of the suspected haunted places Haunted sites examined include the Hotel Del Coronado the world renowned Whaley House and other historic buildings in Old Town San Diego Firsthand reports of ghost and poltergeist phenomena are blended with historic data to provide an unorthodox and engaging portrait of spectral San Diego All haunted locations listed in the book have been thoroughly checked by the author John Lamb a trained detective with 22 years of law enforcement experience American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977 R.R.
