Health, Illness, and Medicine Gary L. Albrecht, Paul C. Higgins, 1979-01-01 Sociological Approaches to Health, Healthcare and Nursing, E-Book Hannah Cooke, 2024-09-09 An understanding of the sociology of health and illness is central to effective health and social care practice Sociological Approaches to Health Healthcare and Nursing is a new book for pre and post registration nurses and allied health professionals that brings into focus the social context of their work and its social and cultural foundations The book introduces key social theories and concepts in an accessible way It covers a range of contemporary post COVID issues in health and healthcare A central focus is the social determinants of health the book discusses these in relation to inequality and discrimination related to social class gender sexual orientation ethnicity and disability It examines contemporary cultural understandings of health illness and the body while linking these to social changes and the growth of digital technologies and social media Aligned with the requirements of the updated NMC Standards of Proficiency for Nurses this book will support the reader in considering modern healthcare systems and institutions and their role in either reproducing or challenging inequalities of health It encourages the reader to critically reflect on their own role within them and how they themselves can help to effect positive change Aligned to the requirements of the updated NMC Standards of Proficiency for Nurses Presents a contemporary focus that takes into account changes in public health healthcare services and health work post pandemic Case studies illustrate key issues and bring theory to life Focuses on the wider determinants of health and inequalities in health and healthcare Provides an understanding of the patient experience and its social and cultural context in order to support patient centred care Addresses the political and policy context of healthcare including contemporary changes in the organisation of health services changes in health work and changes in nursing work Offers regular reflection points to encourage critical thinking     Gender, Health and Healthcare Jacqueline H. Watts, 2016-03-09 Health status and the experience of working in health care roles are both strongly shaped by gender and although there have been attempts to incorporate gender awareness in both health and employment policies the significance of gender in these areas continues to be marginalised within public debates and academic discourses Taking a social constructionist perspective Watts considers the ways in which gender impacts upon health in all its elements including access technology professionalisation health promotion and health as an important sector of the labour market She discusses gender as a developing and diversified category exploring ideas about masculinity and the fluidity of gender boundaries in determining individual identity Chapters that follow discuss men s and women s health ideology of gender and health specifically exploring different social norms and ideas about male and female health and the dominant ideological association between femaleness and caring working for health with particular focus on the gendered interplay of caring and curing roles technology and changes to gender health and healthcare health promotion as a gendered activity and finally the importance of introducing an intersectional approach beyond gender to articulate a deeper understanding of health in a postmodern context The concluding chapter draws together these themes to underscore the importance of placing gender at the centre of health and health care delivery to fully take account of both the different life and health experiences of men and women and the gendered dimensions of working in health care     EBOOK: Reflections on Research: The Realities of Doing Research in the Social Sciences Nina Hallowell, Julia Lawton, Susan Gregory, 2004-10-16 What is it really like to do social science research In what ways can research go wrong and what can you do to put it right again How do research methods and research ethics relate in practice This is a how it went rather than a how to do research methods book It is based upon the reflections and experiences of a wide range of established social researchers the majority of whom undertake research in the field of health care By drawing upon anecdotal accounts of setting up research projects negotiating access gathering data and disseminating findings the book highlights the practical and ethical complexities involved in the conduct of empirically based research By focussing upon the real life experiences of social science researchers Reflections on Research provides insight into the day to day realities of conducting research the pleasures and the pitfalls As such it is essential reading for all students and researchers in the social sciences as well as academics and professionals interested in research and research ethics Contributors Priscilla Alderson Professor of Childhood Studies at the Institute of Education Kathryn Backett Milburn Senior Research Fellow at the Research Unit in Health Behaviour and Change and Co Director of the Centre for Research on Families and Relationships University of Edinburgh Rosaline Barbour Professor of Health and Social Care at the University of Dundee Hannah Bradby Lecturer in Medical Sociology at Warwick University Elizabeth Chapman Research Associate at the Centre for Family Research University of Cambridge Susan Cox Assistant Professor and Michael Smith Foundation for Health Research Scholar at The W Maurice Young Centre for Applied Ethics University of British Columbia Sarah Cunningham Burley Reader in Public Health Sciences and Co Director of the Centre for Research on Families and Relationships at the University of Edinburgh Gill Dunne Senior Lecturer in the Department of Sociology at the University of Plymouth Susan Eley Lecturer at the Department of Applied Social Science University of Stirling Elizabeth Ettorre Professor of Sociology University of Plymouth Catherine Exley Lecturer in Medical Sociology in the Centre for Health Services Research University of Newcastle upon Tyne Calliope Bobbie Farsides Senior Lecturer in Medical Ethics at the Centre of Medical Law and Ethics King s College London Claire Foster Chartered Health Psychologist and Senior Research Fellow at The Institute of Cancer Research Jonathan Gabe Reader in Sociology in the Department of Social and Political Science at Royal Holloway University of London Wendy Gnich Research Fellow at the Research Unit in Health Behaviour and Change University of Edinburgh Trudy Goodenough Research Assistant working at the Centre for Ethics in Medicine University of Bristol Susan Gregory Research Fellow at the Research Unit in Health Behaviour and Change the University of Edinburgh Rachel Grellier Assistant Health Nina Hallowell teaches Social Science and Ethics in the department of Public Health Sciences the Medical School University of Edinburgh Khim Horton Lecturer clinical at the European Institute of Health and Medical Sciences University of Surrey Julie Kent Senior Lecturer in Sociology at the University of West of England Julia Lawton Research Fellow at the Research Unit in Health Behaviour and Change the University of Edinburgh Abby Lippman Professor in the Department of Epidemiology Liz Lobb Researcher in familial cancer and palliative care at Edith Cowan University in Perth Lesley Lockyer Senior Lecturer in the Faculty of Health and Social Care University of the West of England Alice Lovell teaches Psychology at Birkbeck College Faculty of Continuing Education Marion McAllister Macmillan Genetic Counsellor and Honorary Lecturer at the North West Genetics Knowledge Park Nowgen and Regional Genetics Service Academic Unit of Medical Genetics St Mary s Hospital Manchester Richard Mitchell Research Fellow in the Research Unit in Health Behaviour and Change RUHBC University of Edinburgh Virginia Morrow Research Lecturer at the Child Focused Research Centre Department of Health Melissa Nash University College London Odette Parry Professor of Social Welfare Stephen Platt Director of the Research Unit in Health Behaviour and Change University of Edinburgh Laura Potts Senior Lecturer in the School of Management Community and Communication at York St

Acting in Anaesthesia Dawn Goodwin, 2009-02-16 In recent years evidence based medicine EBM clinical governance and professional accountability have become increasingly significant in shaping the organisation and delivery of healthcare However these notions all build upon and exemplify the idea of human centred individual action In this book Dawn Goodwin suggests that such models of practice exaggerate the extent to which practitioners are able to predict and control the circumstances and contingencies of healthcare Drawing on ethnographic material Goodwin explores the way that action unfolds in a series of empirical cases of anaesthetic and intensive care practice Anaesthesia configures a relationship between humans machines and devices that transforms and redistributes capacities for action and thereby challenges the figure of a rational intentional acting individual This book elucidates the ways in which various entities machines tools devices and unconscious patients as well as healthcare practitioners participate and how actions become legitimate and accountable

Changing Bodies Chris Shilling, 2008-06-18 Where are we at with studies of Body Society What are the key accomplishments in the field This book provides the clearest and most comprehensive account of work in this area to date Based on a novel theory of action it surveys the terrain by arguing that human identity social relationships and moral figurations develop as a result of people living in and seeking to reach beyond the limits of their bodily being From this starting point the author undertakes a series of studies on sport transgenderism migration illness survival and belief which illuminate the relationship between bodily change and action The book provides an unrivalled survey of theory and empirical research and explores the hitherto neglected tradition of American body studies Wide in scope systematic and incisive the book represents a landmark addition to the field of studies in body and society

Phantom Limb Cassandra Crawford, 2014-01-20 Phantom limb pain is one of the most intractable and merciless pains ever known a pain that haunts appendages that do not physically exist often persisting with uncanny realness long after fleshy limbs have been traumatically surgically or congenitally lost The very existence and naturalness of this pain has been instrumental in modern science's ability to create prosthetic technologies that many feel have transformative self-actualizing and even transcendent power. In Phantom Limb, Cassandra S. Crawford critically examines phantom limb pain and its relationship to prosthetic innovation, tracing the major shifts in knowledge of the causes and characteristics of the phenomenon. Crawford exposes how the meanings of phantom limb pain have been influenced by developments in prosthetic science and ideas about the extraordinary power of these technologies to liberate and fundamentally alter the human body, mind, and spirit. Through intensive observation at a prosthetic clinic, interviews with key researchers and clinicians, and an analysis of historical and contemporary psychological and medical literature, she examines the modernization of amputation and exposes how medical understanding about phantom limbs has changed from the late 19th to the early 21st century. Crawford interrogates the impact of advances in technology, medicine, psychology, and neuroscience, as well as changes in the meaning of limb loss, popular representations of amputees, and corporeal ideology. Phantom Limb questions our most deeply held ideas of what is normal, natural, and even moral about the physical human body.

Reflections On Research: The Realities Of Doing Research In The Social Sciences Hallowell, Nina, Lawton, Julia, Gregory, Susan, 2004-10-01 By focusing upon the real-life experiences of social science researchers, Reflections on Research provides insight into the day-to-day realities of conducting research, the pleasures and the pitfalls. As such, it is essential reading for all students and researchers in the social sciences, as well as academics and professionals interested in research and research ethics.

Women's Health and Social Change Ellen Annandale, 2008-07-14 Shortlisted for the BSA Sociology of Health and Illness Book Prize 2009 In this important text, Ellen Annandale provides a comprehensive and persuasive analysis of the contemporary social relations of gender and women's health, outlining what an adequate feminist analysis of women's health might look like.

The Health and Society Reader Fernando I. Rivera, Hyung Sam Park, 2019-07-17 The Health and Society Reader: Health and Disease in a Changing Environment provides students with both an introduction to the sociological study of health and disease and a contemporary view of critical issues in the field. The anthology is divided into seven sections. Sections I and II contain engaging, thought-provoking readings on medical sociology and the social causes of health disparities, including inequality, gender, and veteran status. Section III ex
