Roberts,2009-11-20 Our Social World Introduction to Sociology Brief Edition introduces the discipline of sociology to the contemporary student and provides an integrated comprehensible framework from which to view the world in a concise format In each chapter authors Jeanne H Ballantine and Keith A Roberts provide an organizing theme that is not exclusively tied to one theoretical paradigm to help students see relationships between topics Our Social World presents the perspective of students living in the larger global world Features of this brief edition Offers a strong global focus A global perspective is integrated into each chapter to encourage students to think of global society as a logical extension of their own micro world Deep Learning Approach Encourages Students to think critically about the social World Presents The Social World Model in each chapter This organizing framework helps students understand the interrelatedness of core concepts Shakespeare's Imagined Persons P. Murray,1996-05-10 Challenging our understanding of ideas about psychology in Shakespeare s time Shakespeare s Imagined Persons proposes we should view his characters as imagined persons A new reading of B F Skinner s radical behaviourism brings out how contrary to the impression he created Skinner ascribes an important role in human behaviour to cognitive activity Using this analysis Peter Murray demonstrates the consistency of radical behaviourism with the psychology of character formation and acting in writers from Plato to Shakespeare an approach little explored in the current debates about subjectivity in Elizabethan culture Murray also shows that radical behaviourism can explain the phenomena observed in modern studies of acting and social role playing Drawing on these analyses of earlier and modern psychology Murray goes on to reveal the dynamics of Shakespeare s characterizations of Hamlet Prince Hal Rosalind and Perdita in a fascinating new light National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1965
