Soft Voice Of The Serpent Other Storie

Eva-Marie Herlitzius

Soft Voice Of The Serpent Other Storie:

Animals and Women Carol J. Adams, Josephine Donovan, 1995-11-14 Animals and Women is a collection of pioneering essays that explores the theoretical connections between feminism and animal defense. Offering a feminist perspective on the status of animals, this unique volume argues persuasively that both the social construction and oppressions of women are inextricably connected to the ways in which we comprehend and abuse other species. Furthermore, it demonstrates that such a focus does not distract from the struggle for women's rights but rather contributes to it. This wide-ranging multidisciplinary anthology presents original material from scholars in a variety of fields as well as a rare early article by Virginia Woolf. Exploring the leading edge of the species/gender boundary, it addresses such issues as the relationship between abortion rights and animal rights, the connection between woman-battering and animal abuse, and the speciesist basis for much sexist language. Also considered are the ways in which animals have been regarded by science literature and the environmentalist movement. A striking meditation on women and wolves is presented, as is an examination of sexual harassment and the taxonomy of hunters and hunting. Finally, this compelling collection suggests that the subordination and degradation of women is a prototype for other forms of abuse and that to deny this connection is to participate in the continued mistreatment of animals and women.

The Soft Voice of the Serpent and Other Stories Nadine Gordimer, 1964 Jump and Other Stories Nadine Gordimer, 2012-03-15 In this collection of sixteen stories, Gordimer brings unforgettable characters from every corner of society to life: a child refugee fleeing civil war in Mozambique, a black activist's deserted wife longing for better times, a rich safari party indulging themselves while lionesses circle their lodge. Jump is a vivid, disturbing, and rewarding portrait of life in South Africa under apartheid.

The Short Story Charles May, 2013-10-14 The short story is one of the most difficult types of prose to write and one of the most pleasurable to read. From Boccaccio's Decameron to The Collected Stories of Reynolds Price, Charles May gives us an understanding of the history and structure of this demanding form of fiction. Beginning with a general history of the genre, he moves on to focus on the nineteenth century when the modern short story began to come into focus. From there, he moves on to later nineteenth-century realism and early twentieth-century formalism, and finally to the modern renaissance of the form that shows no signs of abating. A chronology of significant events, works, and figures from the genre's history, notes, and references, and an extensive bibliographic essay with recommended reading round out the volume.

Human Rights and Nadine Gordimer's Fiction Mateti Prabhakar, Kanugula Ram Mohan, 2024-07-02 The book explores the complex problem of apartheid racial segregation in South African society and the struggle against the colour bar represented in the fictional world of Nadine Gordimer, the Nobel Laureate of the South African Letters. It shows how

Gordimer a crusader for the human rights of black people has launched a lifetime battle against the apartheid regime's unjust and heartless censorship of creative writing and freedom of speech in South Africa by virtue of fictionalizing her human rights activism thereby teaching humanity. It demonstrates how black people are denied their basic human rights from the cradle to the grave by the white chauvinistic apartheid regime. This volume is a space for scholars, writers, and activists to debate issues related to race, class, and human rights.

Postcolonial African Writers Siga Fatima Jagne, Pushpa Naidu

The volume begins with an introductory essay on postcolonial criticism and African writing, then presents alphabetically arranged profiles of some 60 writers including Chinua Achebe, Nadine Gordimer, Bessie Head, Doris Lessing, Tsitsi Dangaremba, Tahar Ben Jelloun, among others. Each entry includes a brief biography, a discussion of major works and themes that appear in the author's writings, an overview of the critical response to the author's work, and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources. These profiles are written by expert contributors and reflect many different perspectives. The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography of the most important critical works on postcolonial African literature.

A Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English Erin Fallon, R.C. Feddersen, James Kurtzleben, Maurice A. Lee, Susan Rochette-Crawley, 2013-10-31

Although the short story has existed in various forms for centuries, it has particularly flourished during the last hundred years. Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English includes alphabetically arranged entries for 50 English language short story writers from around the world. Most of these writers have been active since 1960, and they reflect a wide range of experiences and perspectives in their works. Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes biography, a review of existing criticism, a lengthier analysis of specific works, and a selected bibliography of primary and secondary sources. The volume begins with a detailed introduction to the short story genre and concludes with an annotated bibliography of major works on short story theory.

The House Gun Nadine Gordimer, 2001-12-09

Nadine Gordimer's novel is a passionate narrative of the complex manifestations of that final test of human relations we call love. It moves with the restless pace of living itself; if it is a parable of present violence, it is also an affirmation of the will to reconciliation that starts where it must, between individual men and women.

None to Accompany Me Nadine Gordimer, 2004-02-01

None to Accompany Me is arresting and reverberant, perhaps the most powerful novel to date by one of the world's most commanding writers. In an extraordinary period immediately before the first non-racial election and the beginning of majority rule in South Africa, Vera Stark, the protagonist of Nadine Gordimer's passionate novel, weaves a ruthless interpretation of her own past into her participation into the present as a lawyer representing blacks in the struggle to reclaim the land.

Works Eva-Marie Herlitzius, 2005 Concert of Voices Victor J. Ramraj, 1994-12-30 Concert of Voices combines poetry fiction drama and essays in a wide ranging anthology of world literature in English The collection includes a number of established writers who despite their great reputations have often been perceived as standing apart from the main currents of English literature and have rarely found their way into English Department reading lists Most selections though are by a remarkable range of much less established authors In addition to the selections the editor has provided a general introduction and a brief biographical note on each author The intention in Concert of Voices is both to provide an alternative text to anthologies of traditional and established writings in which the new writings in English invariably are displaced and marginalized and to complement these anthologies In this regard the word other which points up apartness and division was found wanting and dropped from the provisional main title Its omission draws attention to a concept and conviction operative in the construction of the anthology despite historical and cultural specificities the focus of cross cultural and multicultural studies commonalities and affinities exist among these writings and between writing on both sides of the hegemonic divide The anthology then is not intended simply as an offering of sociological or anthropological insights into these different peoples The pieces in Concert of Voices also demonstrate that imaginative writings can evolve from a cocoon of particularities into what can be called modifying a catch phrase of certain other disciplines Literature Without Borders from the introduction
