

A Soldier

He is that fallen lance that lies as hurled,
That lies unlifted now, come dew, come rust,
But still lies pointed as it plowed the dust.
If we who sight along it round the world,
See nothing worthy to have been its mark,
It is because like men we look too near,
Forgetting that as fitted to the sphere,
Our missiles always make too short an arc.
They fall, they rip the grass, they intersect

The curve of earth, and striking, break their own;
They make us cringe for metal-point on stone.
But this we know, the obstacle that checked
And tripped the body, shot the spirit on Further than target ever showed or shone.

Soldier Come Home Hope Morritt, 1989      The Hell of War Comes Home Owen W. Gilman Jr., 2018-02-09 Owen W. Gilman Jr stresses the US experience of war in the twenty first century and argues that wherever and whenever there is war there will be imaginative responses to it especially the recent wars in Afghanistan and Iraq Since the trauma of September 11 the experience of Americans at war has been rendered honestly and fully in a wide range of texts creative nonfiction and journalism film poetry and fiction These responses Gilman contends have packed a lot of power and measure up even to World War II s literature and film Like few other books Gilman s volume studies these new texts among them Kevin Powers s debut novel The Yellow Birds and Phil Klay s short stories Redeployment along with the films The Hurt Locker American Sniper and Billy Lynn s Long Halftime Walk For perspective Gilman also looks at some touchstones from the Vietnam War Compared to a few of the big Vietnam books and films this new material has mostly been read and watched by small audiences and generated less discussion Gilman exposes the circumstances in American culture currently preventing literature and film of our recent wars from making a significant impact He contends that Americans inclination to demand distraction limits learning from these compelling responses to war in the past decade According to Gilman where there should be clarity and depth of knowledge we instead face misunderstanding and the anguish endured by veterans betrayed by war and our lack of understanding      *The Joseph M. Ganguly contends that global literature coalesced into its current form in 1989 an event marked by the convergence of three major trends the consolidation of the information age the arrival of a perpetual state of global war and the expanding focus on humanitarianism Ganguly analyzes a trove of novels from authors including Salman Rushdie Don DeLillo Michael Ondaatje and Art Spiegelman who address wars in Iraq Afghanistan and Sri Lanka the Palestinian and Kashmiri crises the Rwandan genocide and post9 11 terrorism These novels exist in a context in which suffering s presence in everyday life is mediated through digital images and where authors integrate visual forms into their storytelling In showing how the evolution of the contemporary global novel is analogous to the European novel s emergence in the eighteenth century when society and the development of capitalism faced similar monumental ruptures Ganguly provides both a theory of the contemporary moment and a reminder of the novel s power

The Family Library of Poetry and Song William Cullen Bryant,1880 British Women Poets of the Long Eighteenth Century Paula R. Backscheider,Catherine E.

Ingrassia,2022-10-01 This anthology gathers 368 poems by 80 British women poets of the long eighteenth century Few of these poems have been reprinted since originally published and all are crucial to understanding fully the literary history of women writers Paula R Backscheider and Catherine E Ingrassia demonstrate the enormous diversity of poetry produced during this time by organizing the poems in three broad and deliberately overlapping categories by genre establishing that women wrote in all of the forms that men did with equal mastery and creativity by theme offering a revisionary look at the range of topics these writers addressed including war ecology friendship religion and the stages of life and by the poems more specific focus on the women s experiences as writers Backscheider and Ingrassia have selected poems that represent the best work of skilled poets creating a wonderful mix of canonical and little known pieces They include the complete texts of longer poems that are abridged or omitted in other collections Their substantial part introductions textual notes bibliographical information and biographical sketches situate the poets and their writings within the cultural and political milieu in which they appeared To generate further scholarship on this subject this essential anthology puts primary texts in front of students scholars and general readers It fills the persistent need to document women s poetic expression during the long eighteenth century and to rewrite the literary history of the period a history from which women have largely been excluded

A Soldier's Kipling Edward J. Erickson,2018-06-30 Rudyard Kipling was one of the most versatile writers of the Victorian age a journalist storyteller historian and poet One of the major subjects of his poetry was the British army and the way it waged its campaigns during Queen Victorias little wars and it is this aspect of his writing that Edward Erickson explores in this absorbing and perceptive study Kiplings military poems offer insights into the profession of arms and how soldiers were trained and fought in distant expeditionary campaigns they bring to life the world of the Victorian soldier in the most evocative way Although not a soldier himself Kipling wrote about timeless themes of military and wartime service the experience of combat unit cohesion and individual courage A Soldiers Kipling is an original contribution to the understanding

Reading Confederate Monuments addresses the urgent and vital need for scholars educators and the general public to be able to read and interpret the literal and cultural Confederate monuments pervading life in the contemporary United States The literary and cultural studies scholars featured in this collection engage many different archives and methods demonstrating how to read literal Confederate monuments as texts and in the context of the assortment of literatures that produced and celebrated them They further explore how to read the literary texts advancing and contesting Confederate ideology in the US cultural imaginary then and now as monuments in and of themselves On top of that the essays published here lay bare the cultural and pedagogical work of Confederate monuments and counter monuments divulging how and what they teach their readers as communal and yet contested narratives thereby showing why the persistence of Confederate monuments matters greatly to local and national notions of racial justice and belonging In doing so this collection illustrates what critics of US literature and culture can offer to ongoing scholarly and public discussions about Confederate monuments and memory Even as we remove relocate and recontextualize the physical symbols of the Confederacy dotting the US landscape the complicated histories cultural products and pedagogies of Confederate ideology remain embedded in the national consciousness To disrupt and potentially dismantle these enduring narratives alongside the statues themselves we must be able to recognize analyze and resist them in US life The pieces in this collection position us to think deeply about how and why we should continue that work
