Solidarity Sebastian Garbe, 2022-02-03 In the Global South Indigenous and Native people continue to live under colonial relations within formally independent nation states Sebastian Garbe offers a critical perspective on contemporary expressions of international solidarity and transnational advocacy He combines approaches from critical race and decolonial studies with an activist ethnography on networked spaces of encounters created through solidarity activism by Mapuche and non Mapuche actors Departing from those experiences this book not only presents potential pitfalls of transnational advocacy but suggests new ways of understanding and practicing solidarity Beyond Comparison Timothy Macklem, 2003-06-02 In Beyond Comparison Sex and Discrimination Timothy Macklem addresses foundational issues in the long running debate in legal political and social theory about the nature of gender discrimination He takes the highly original and controversial view that the heart of discrimination lies not in the unfavorable comparisons with the treatment and opportunities that men enjoy but rather in a denial of resources and opportunities that women need to lead successful and meaningful lives as women Therefore to understand what women need we must first understand what it is to be a woman By displaying an impressive command of the feminist literature as well as intellectual rigor this work promises to be a milestone in the debate about gender equality and will interest students and professionals in the areas of legal theory and gender studies Culture and

Aso Ebi Okechukwu Charles Nwafor,2021-05-24 The Nigerian and West African practice of aso ebi fashion invokes notions of wealth and group dynamics in social gatherings Okechukwu Nwafor's volume Aso ebi investigates the practice in the cosmopolitan urban setting of Lagos and argues that the visual and consumerist hype typical of the late capitalist system feeds this unique fashion practice The book suggests that dress fashion aso ebi and photography engender a new visual culture that largely reflects the economics of mundane living Nwafor examines the practice's societal dilemma whereby the solidarity of aso ebi is dismissed by many as an ephemeral transaction A circuitous transaction among photographers fashion magazine producers textile merchants tailors and individual fashionistas reinvents aso ebi as a product of cosmopolitan urban modernity The results are a fetishization of various forms of commodity culture personality cults through mass followership the negotiation of symbolic power through mass produced images exchange value in human relationships through gifts and a form of exclusion achieved through digital photo editing Aso ebi has become an essential part of Lagos cosmopolitanism as a rising form of a unique visual culture it is central to the unprecedented spread of a unique West African fashion style that revels in excessive textile overflow This extreme dress style is what an individual requires to transcend the lack imposed by the chaos of the postcolonial city

Recognized Women: Carolina Esser,2025-01-29 Axel Honneth's theory of recognition comes from a theoretical paradigm attached to Western deliberative democracy Honneth does not interpret recognition from the perspective of gender equality and how a woman may be recognized in non democratic and non Western societies If one interprets the theory of recognition with a focus on the situation of women it is possible to identify that legal recognition plays a fundamental role It is relevant then to propose forms of struggling for the recognition of these women It is adopted the methodology of Critical Theory and recognition is illustrated from the perspectives of case studies for instance regarding women in China and Morocco In these countries there are different forms of disrespect Nevertheless despite restrictions imposed by government and culture both countries still have forms of struggling for recognition that should be perceived Several forms of struggling for recognition to turn recognition into a universal institute which can be applied in different contexts There are always forms of struggling for better conditions of women s recognition in every community through the support of law
