Solutions For The New Millennium Race Class And Gender By Mcclean:

Solutions for the New Millennium Vernon McClean,1999 Solutions for the New Millennium Vernon McClean,2004-09-09 Solutions to Problems of Race, Class, and Gender Vernon McClean,Lois Lyles,1993 The Cross Vs the Crescent Lawrence Ezekiel Yona Mbogoni,2005 A Tanzanian Muslim Dr Hamza Njozi suggested in his book Mwembechai Killings that the killings were a culmination of a long historical conspiracy between the Church and the Government a twin alliance whose objective has always been to marginalize and oppress Muslims The author of this timely book explains the rational behind The Cross versus the Crescent It was partly because I was dissatisfied with Dr Ngozi s limited historical context of the crisis that I embarked on my own research In doing so I was guided by the hope that a broader historical context might help a better understanding of current relations between the two faiths in Tanzania

Diversity and Aging Among Immigrant Seniors in Canada Douglas Durst,Michael MacLean,2010-01-01 Historically Canada has been a nation of immigrants with 16 20% of its citizens being foreign born Most immigrant research addresses the issues of integration and adjustment of young and adult immigrants with little work on aging There are numerous books on immigrants and books on aging but there are few that have considered the topics of both diversity and aging Diversity and Aging among Immigrant Seniors in Canada breaks from that tradition and offers an eclectic collection of original research from among Canada s leading researchers on aging and immigrants Some researchers refer to this emerging field as Ethno gerontology There are two interesting groups of immigrant seniors those who entered Canada at over 65 years of age and those who aged in Canada Most Canadians are surprised to learn that the senior population of seniors has a higher percentage of immigrants 19 6% than the general population 13 7% As Canadians age the country s composition of immigrant seniors has also changed from mainly European to greater cultural and ethnic diversity from Africa and Asia This cultural and ethnic diversity has social health economic policy implications and impacts on programs and services delivered to seniors Diversity and Aging among Immigrant Seniors in Canada is divided into two main sections In Part 1 the chapters explore general and universal issues such as national trends and demographics theoretical orientations issues of culture and legal dimensions poverty and income and end of life care In Part 2 the chapters examine issues pertaining to specific ethnic groups For example there are chapters on the social well being of Chinese immigrants determinants of mental health for Iranian seniors family dynamics for aging Haitian elders and emerging issues for Punjabi families Diversity and Aging among Immigrant Seniors in Canada offers both breadth and depth to the topic of aging among immigrants and is a must read for social work and health care professionals students in health and social services policy and program planners and families of aging immigrants It is written in a language that crosses disciplines shedding professional jargon making it an informative and engaging read for professionals researchers and the general public Kraus' Recreation & Leisure in Modern

Society Mclean, Amy R. Hurd, Denise M. Anderson, 2017-08-25 The Eleventh Edition of Kraus Recreation and Leisure in Modern Society provides a detailed introduction to the history developments and current trends in leisure studies It addresses contemporary issues facing the recreation and leisure profession and focuses on challenges and opportunities that impact the profession now as well as years from now Extensive research into emerging trends helps support the text and provide insights into the future Locating Law, 3rd Edition Elizabeth Comack, 2020-05-27T00:00:00Z Praise for the second edition This book is the best available for teaching the role of law in society and making sense of how it operates within the inter connections of race class and gender dynamics often perpetuating oppression Locating Law is essential for undergraduate students in justice sociology and criminology Margot Hurlbert University of Regina Students regularly tell me that Locating Law is their favourite book out of the selections for the Law and Society course The case studies are sufficiently different from one another that the students deepen their general knowledge and they appreciate the fact that the chapters are written in a style they can understand Jennifer Jarman Lakehead University A primary concern within the study of law has been to understand the law society relation Underlying this concern is the belief that law has a distinctly social basis it both shapes and is shaped by the society in which it operates This book explores the law society relation by locating law within the nexus of race class gender sexuality relations in society In addition to updating the material in the theoretical and substantive chapters this third edition of Locating Law includes three new contributions sentencing law and Aboriginal peoples corporations and the law and obscenity and indecency legislation The analyses offered in the book are sure to generate discussion and debate and in the process enhance our understanding of law s location A Protest History of the United States Gloria J. Browne-Marshall, 2025-04-22 Exploring 400 years of protest and resistance in US history and what the unsung heroes of social movements past can teach us about navigating our chaotic world In this timely new book in Beacon s successful ReVisioning History series professor Gloria Browne Marshall delves into the history of protest movements and rebellion in the United States Beginning with Indigenous peoples resistance to European colonization and continuing through to today s climate change demonstrations Browne Marshall expands how to think about protest through sharing select historical moments and revealing the role of key players involved in those efforts Drawing upon legal documents archival material government documents and secondary sources A Protest History of the United States gives voice to those who pushed back against the mistreatment of others themselves and in some instances planet Earth Browne Marshall highlights stories of individuals from all walks of life backgrounds and time periods who helped bring strong attention to their causes Those examples of protest include those of Wahunsenacock more commonly known to history as Chief Powhatan who took on English invaders in pre colonial America in 1607 legendary boxer Muhammad Ali s refusal to fight in Vietnam and appealed all the way to the US Supreme Court and David Buckel LGBTQ rights lawyer and environmental activist who protested against fossil fuels by committing self immolation in 2018 Regardless of whether these protests accomplished their end goals Browne Marshall reminds us that not only is dissent meaningful and impactful but is an essential tool for eliciting long lasting change Kraus' Recreation and Leisure in Modern Society Daniel D.

Edwards,2019-10-17 Black Girls Experiencing Their Intersectional Identities in School explores the subjective experience of Black girls within the educational context Based on interviews diary entries and focus groups the author argues that as a result of their intersectional identities Black girls experience unique challenges and obstacles in the educational setting Addressing topics ranging from interpersonal relationships social media beauty sexuality hypervisibility invisibility and microaggressions this book highlights the voices and experiences of Black girls between the ages of 11 and 15 The Girls provide a narrative account of the challenges they face daily in the educational context describing in detail the factors that maintain and perpetuate volatile conditions Additionally this book explores the coping strategies that this group of Black girls developed to resist and respond to the daily obstacles Ultimately this book not only identifies the unique struggles faced by Black girls in schools as a result of their intersectional identities but most importantly this work explores pragmatic strategies that can be implemented to create safe and beneficial spaces for Black Girls The author argues that through the implementation of Black Feminist Pedagogy an Ethic of Caring and partnerships with Black Girl Empowerment organizations educational practitioners can mediate the negative experiences and create spaces for growth Freedom Is Not Enough Nancy MacLean, 2008-03-15 MacLean shows how African American and Mexican American civil rights activists and feminists concluded that freedom alone would not suffice access to jobs at all levels is a requisite of full citizenship This book chronicles the cultural and political advances that have irrevocably changed our nation over the past 50 years

Revitalizing Criminological Theory Steve Hall, Simon Winlow, 2025-05-30 The second edition of Revitalizing Criminological Theory is a substantial revision and expansion of the first edition Ultra realism is a unique school of criminological thought currently establishing itself in the discipline despite resistance from traditional schools The second edition still provides the undergraduate and postgraduate student reader with an invaluable guide to existing schools of thought and their roots in politics and philosophy but with updated commentary on their intellectual flaws In the first edition Hall and Winlow introduced a number of important new concepts that laid the foundations for an alternative theoretical framework and research programme in criminology In three additional chapters written specially for this edition they introduce further concepts and substantive revisions to the theoretical framework They also outline and discuss in detail the growing body of award winning criminological projects conducted by a new generation of researchers who have adopted and mobilised ultra realist thinking over the past ten years During this period of time ultra realism has also made significant progress towards its primary objectives of understanding human motivations constructing insightful representations of reality and answering the fundamental criminological question of why some human beings risk inflicting harm on others to further their own interests or achieve various ends The philosophical and psychosocial approaches outlined in the first edition are now significantly advanced and able to offer a more detailed answer to this question and a convincing alternative to the traditional paradigms of conservatism neoclassicism and left liberalism Ultra realism is now in a position to make some substantive contributions to the debate on the depth of political intervention required to get serious about reducing the impact of crime and harm on the lives of ordinary people This book is essential reading for academics and students engaged in the study of criminology sociology social psychology the philosophy of social science and the history of crime Bathroom Battlegrounds Alexander K. Davis, 2020-01-28 Today's debates about transgender inclusion and public restrooms may seem unmistakably contemporary but they have a surprisingly long and storied history in the United States one that concerns more than mere potty politics Alexander K Davis takes readers behind the scenes of two hundred years worth of conflicts over the existence separation and equity of gendered public restrooms documenting at each step how bathrooms have been entangled with bigger cultural matters the importance of the public good the reach of institutional inclusion the nature of gender difference and above all the myriad privileges of social status Chronicling the debut of nineteenth century comfort stations twentieth century mandates requiring equal but separate men s and women s rooms and twenty first century uproar over laws like North Carolina s bathroom bill Davis reveals how public restrooms are far from marginal or unimportant social spaces Instead they are and always have been consequential sites in which ideology institutions and inequality collide

Silent Victims Barbara Perry,2008-09-04 Hate crimes against Native Americans are a common occurrence Barbara Perry reveals although most go unreported In this eye opening book Perry shines a spotlight on these acts which are often hidden in the shadows of crime reports She argues that scholarly and public attention to the historical and contemporary victimization of Native Americans as tribes or nations has blinded both scholars and citizens alike to the victimization of individual Native Americans It is these acts against individuals that capture her attention Silent Victims is a unique contribution to the literature on hate crime Because most extant literature treats hate crimes even racial violence rather generically this work breaks new ground with its findings For this book Perry interviewed nearly 300 Native Americans and gathered additional data in three geographic areas the Four Corners region of the U S Southwest the Great Lakes and the Northern Plains In all of these locales she found that bias related crime oppresses and segregates Native Americans Perry is well aware of the history of colonization in North America and its attendant racial violence She argues that the legacy of violence today can be traced directly to the genocidal practices of early settlers and she adds valuable insights into the ways in which Indians have been constructed as the Other by the prevailing culture Perry s interviews with Native Americans recount instances of appalling treatment often at the hands of law enforcement officials In her conclusion Perry draws from her research and interviews to suggest ways in which Native Americans can be empowered to defend themselves against all forms of racist victimization

Progressive Community Organizing Loretta Pyles,2013-07-24 The second edition of Progressive Community Organizing offers a concise intellectual history of community organizing and social movements while also providing practical tools geared toward practitioner skill building Drawing from social constructionist feminist and critical traditions Progressive Community Organizing affirms the practice of issue framing and offers two innovative frameworks that will change the way students of organizing think about their work Progressive Community Organizing is ideal for both undergraduate and graduate courses focused on community theory and practice community organizing community development and social change and service learning The second edition presents new case studies including those of a welfare rights organization and a youth led LGBTQ organization There are also new sections on the capabilities approach queer theory the Civil Rights movement and the practices of self inquiry and non violent communication Discussion of global justice has been expanded significantly and includes an account of a transnational action research project in post
