Some Do Not:

Some do not...: A novel Ford Madox Ford, 2023-09-07 Reproduction of the original Some Do Not... Ford Madox Ford, 2020-10-27T17:54:38Z Some Do Not opens at the cusp of World War I Christopher Tietjens a government statistician and his friend Vincent Macmaster an aspiring literary critic are visiting the English countryside Tietjens preoccupied with his disastrous marriage meets Valentine Wannop a suffragette during a round of golf As their love story develops the novel explores the horrors of the war without the narrative ever entering the battlefield The characters are complex and nuanced Tietjens is an old fashioned man even by the standards of his day he is concerned with honor and doing the right thing but he lives in a society that only pays those values lip service Yet he himself isn't free of a thread of hypocrisy he won't leave his deeply unhappy marriage because that would be the wrong way to act but the reader is left wondering if he tolerates his situation simply because he married up in class He wants to do the noble and right thing but does that mean going to war The men and women around him each have their individual motivations and they are often conniving and unlikable in their aspirations even as the propaganda of England at war paints the country as a moral and heroic one The delicate interplay of each character's subtleties paints a rich portrait of 1920s English society as the romantic ideals of right and wrong clash with notions of ambition and practicality The prose is unapologetically modernist unannounced time shifts combine with a stream of consciousness style that can often be dense Yet Ford's portrayal of shell shock the politics of women in the 1920s and the moral greyness of wartime is groundbreaking The book and its complete tetralogy called Parade's End has garnered praise from critics and authors alike with Anthony Burgess calling it the finest novel about the First World War and William Carlos Williams stating that the novels constitute the English prose masterpiece of their time This book is part of the Standard Ebooks project which produces free public domain ebooks Some Do Not (Historical Novel) Ford Madox Ford, 2020-12-17 Some Do Not chronicles the life of Christopher Tietjens the last Tory a brilliant government statistician from a wealthy landowning family who serves in the British Army during the First World War The novel is the first part of the famous Parade's End tetralogy by Ford Madox Ford The setting is mainly England and the Western Front of the First World War in which Ford had served as an officer in the Welch Regiment a life he vividly depicts Some Do Not... by Ford Madox Ford - Delphi Classics (Illustrated) Ford Madox Ford, 2017-07-17 This eBook features the unabridged text of Some Do Not by Ford Madox Ford Delphi Classics Illustrated from the bestselling edition of The Complete Works of Ford Madox Ford Having established their name as the leading publisher of classic literature and art Delphi Classics produce publications that are individually crafted with superior formatting while introducing many rare texts for the first time in digital print The Delphi Classics edition of Ford includes original annotations and illustrations relating to the life and works of the author as well as individual tables of contents allowing you to navigate eBooks quickly and easily eBook features The complete unabridged text of Some Do Not by Ford Madox Ford Delphi Classics Illustrated Beautifully illustrated with images related to Ford's works

Parade's End - Part One - Some Do Not Ford Madox Ford, 2013-03-05 This early work by Ford Madox Ford was originally published in 1924 and we are now republishing it with a brand new introduction This is part one of Ford's hugely successful Parade's End tetralogy that has now been adapted into a BBC television drama Ford Madox Ford was born Ford Madox Hueffer in Merton Surrey England on 17th December 1873 The creative arts ran in his family Hueffer's grandfather Ford Madox Brown was a well known painter and his German migrant father was music critic of The Times and after a brief dalliance with music composition the young Hueffer began to write Although Hueffer never attended university during his early twenties he moved through many intellectual circles and would later talk of the influence that the Middle Victorian tumultuously bearded Great men such as John Ruskin and Thomas Carlyle exerted on him In 1908 Hueffer founded the English Review and over the next 15 months published Thomas Hardy H G Wells Joseph Conrad Henry James John Galsworthy and W B Yeats and gave duties to many authors including D H Lawrence and Norman Douglas Hueffer's editorship consolidated the classic canon of early modernist literature and saw him earn a reputation as one of the century's greatest literary editors Ford continued to write through the thirties producing fiction non fiction and two volumes of autobiography Return to Yesterday 1931 and It was the Nightingale 1933 In his last years he taught literature at the Olivet College in Michigan Ford died on 26th June 1939 in Deauville France at the age of 65 Some Do Not... Ford Madox Ford, 2020-03-08 With his acclaimed masterpiece Parade's End Ford Madox Ford set himself a work of immense scale and ambition I wanted the Novelist in fact to appear in his really proud position as historian of his own time The subject was the world as it culminated in the war Published in four parts between 1924 and 1928 his extraordinary novel centers on Christopher Tietjens an officer and a gentleman the last English Tory and follows him from the secure orderly world of Edwardian England into the chaotic madness of the First World War Against the backdrop of a world at war Ford recounts the complex sexual warfare between Tietjens and his faithless wife Sylvia A work of truly amazing subtlety and profundity Parade's End affirms Graham Greene's prediction There is no novelist of this century more likely to live than Ford Madox Ford

The Parade's End Tetralogy: Some Do Not, No More Parades, A Man Could Stand Up & Last Post Ford Madox Ford, 2023-12-24 Ford Madox Ford's The Parade's End Tetralogy comprises four interconnected novels Some Do Not No More Parades A Man Could Stand Up and Last Post that together form a profound examination of the moral and psychological complexities of life during World War I The narrative intricately weaves themes of love duty and disillusionment employing a modernist style marked by stream of consciousness techniques and a distinctive narrative structure that reflects the fragmentation of the era Ford's vivid portrayal of the tumultuous changes in British society during and after the war serves to highlight the existential dilemmas faced by its characters particularly the war hardened protagonist Christopher Tietjens whose internal struggles mirror the broader societal upheavals of the time Ford Madox Ford

a luminary of 20th century literature drew on his personal experiences including his service in the war and his tumultuous relationships to craft this tetralogy His insights into the psychological landscape of wartime Britain shaped by his friendships with contemporaries such as Joseph Conrad and Ezra Pound culminated in a work that critiques traditional values and reflects the disillusionment that followed the Great War Ford s innovative narrative techniques and his keen eye for social commentary invite readers into the troubled psyche of his characters making the tetralogy a seminal exploration of the human condition For readers seeking a profound literary journey that deftly navigates the chaos of war and personal turmoil The Parade s End Tetralogy stands as an essential read Ford s elegant prose and incisive observations compel readers to ponder the arduous path of individuals caught in the wake of history This tetralogy not only reshapes our understanding of modernist literature but also urges us to confront the ethical questions that resonate even today Some Do Not ... Ford Ford,2020-10-27 Some Do Not the first volume of Ford Madox Ford s highly regarded tetralogy Parade s End was originally published in April 1924 Some Do, Some Don't, Some Will, Some Won't - So Now What? William J. Serratore,2002-09 A concise guide to a life in sales with personal stories Ciulirnerunak Yuuyaunak/Do Not Live Without an Elder Ann Fienup-Riordan,2016-10-15 In October of 2010 six men who were serving on the board of the Calista Elders Council CEC gathered in Anchorage with CEC staff to spend three days speaking about the subsistence way of life The men shared stories of their early years growing up on the land and harvesting through the seasons and the dangers they encountered there The gathering was striking for its regional breadth as elders came from the Bering Sea coast as well as the Yukon and Kuskokwim rivers And while their accounts had some commonalities they also served to demonstrate the wide range of different approaches to subsistence in different regions This book gathers the men s stories for the current generation and those to come Taken together they become more than simply oral histories rather they testify to the importance of transmitting memories and culture and of preserving knowledge of vanishing ways of life Handbook of Motivation Science James Y.
