Some Of Us Chinese Women Growing Up In The Mao Era:

Some of Us Xueping Zhong,Zheng Wang,Bai Di,2001 Some of Us is a collection of memoirs by nine Chinese women who grew up during the Mao era All hail from urban backgrounds and all have obtained their Ph D s in the United States thus their memories are informed by intellectual training and insights that only distance can allow Each of the chapters arranged by the age of the author is crafted by a writer who reflects back to that time in a more nuanced manner than has been possible for Western observers The authors attend to gender in a way that male writers have barely noticed and reflect on their lives in the United States Some of Us Xueping Zhong,Zheng Wang,Bai Di,2001

The Cold War in Asia Zheng Yangwen,Hong Liu,Michael Szonyi,2010-02-16 The Cold War stayed cold in Europe but it was hot in Asia Its legacy lives on in the region In none of the three dominant historiographical paradigms orthodox revisionist and post revisionist does Asia or the rest of the Third World figure with much significance What happens to these narratives if we put them to the test in Asia This volume argues that attention to what has been conventionally considered the periphery is essential to a full understanding of the global Cold War Foregrounding Asia necessarily leads to a re assessment of the dominant narratives This volume also argues for a shift in focus from diplomacy and high politics alone towards research into the culture of the Cold War era and its public diplomacy As a whole the essays contribute to enriching our understanding of what was really happening in an era that is too often understood in the catch all framework of the Cold War Akira Iriye Harvard University
