Baptist Missionary Magazine, 1850 Edmund M. Burke Dan A. Bavly, 1999-02-28 Dan Bavly takes a fresh look at how business is supervised and how that system can be improved He begins by assessing the performance of the government regulator and suggests reasons for the failure to prevent many of the debacles of the recent past New fiascoes often engender a spate of legislation but the regulator remains the one who gets away he is simply not accountable and does not shoulder the blame Clearly a new definition of regulator responsibility is required Drawing on his years of company board and auditing experience Bavly analyzes why the average director cannot do his job and he shows how a complete but feasible overhaul of the way company boards function can help solve this problem Bavly then goes on to explore as an insider the profession of accounting and to show why the CPA should be considered an endangered species Along the way Bavly examines many of the difficult issues of contemporary accounting Where is the trend of mammoth accounting organizations leading Is the addiction to mergers suicidal How is the accounting profession coping with technology What is the relationship between the outside CPA and the corporate internal audit division For each specific flaw in the system Bavly provides a practical remedy The general message is the need for constant reassessment and perhaps a plea to cut all the agencies of corporate governance back to human proportions

Brittany in the Early Middle Ages

Wendy Davies, 2023-05-31 This volume focuses on Wendy Davies's work on early medieval Breton texts and their implications Beginning with core analyses of the Redon and Land venec cartularies it continues with papers that tease out some of the key social implications of the 9th century Redon material on the nature of political power on rural communities on the settlement of disputes and on transmission of property While the Redon charters have long been known as a source of fundamental importance for Breton history the author's database established in the 1980s allowed much greater understanding of the role of individuals at all social levels and particularly peasant level than had previously been possible Attention to the detail of the east Breton past also includes papers on some of the results of her fieldwork on building stone in particular Early medieval Brittany is not merely interesting in itself and it is certainly not some Celtic backwater Breton evidence can usefully be differentiated from the evidence of other Celtic areas and has a significant role in wider issues of European history As well as papers on the familiar themes of kingship rulership cult sites and cemeteries the final section highlights the distinctive quality of the Breton evidence for the protection of sacred and personal space for slavery and serfdom and for village level courts
