Court of Appeal (4th Appellate District). Division 3. Records and Briefs California (State)., Stand Up! Gordon Whitman,2018-01-16 Stand Up How to Get Involved Speak Out and Win in a World on Fire A society that actively combats racism treats climate change as a serious threat and ensures that all people have a living wage and a decent life for themselves and their families is not a progressive pipe dream Victories are being won every day all over the country But they didn t happen just by clicking donate on a website Gordon Whitman says that fundamental change demands forming the kind of face to face relationships that have sustained every social movement in history For two decades Whitman has been working with PICO National Network to equip tens of thousands to fight racial discrimination and economic injustice He brings that experience to this book describing five kinds of conversations that enable people to create organizations that can successfully overcome the forces of oppression and reaction The first conversation to have is with ourselves to make sure we re clear about our purpose and in it for the long haul Then we need to share the personal story of how we came to this point with others there is no more powerful way to connect They in turn will share their stories and then we can have the third conversation about becoming a team This team reaches out to people they know to talk about their concerns and priorities building a broad base of supporters Then with our base at our back we can have that final conversation directly confronting the powers that be Of course this isn t as simple as it sounds Appropriately enough Whitman uses stories his own and others to illustrate how best to handle these conversations and to show how they work together to build a movement We can t just sit on the sidelines sharing angry social media posts or signing online petitions We need to get directly involved reach out knock on doors and bring our whole selves to the table if the changes our country so desperately need are ever going to come Farley v. a partner in her own care Author of DO I KNOW YOU A Family s Journey Through Aging and Alzheimer s Moskowitz says advocating for the old and disabled in long term care can be a transgressive act We often oppose the authorities by standing up for the one with two different shoes against the Suits Sometimes we don t know enough We have access but little power Yet an ombudsman may be the only thing standing between the resident and disaster In addition to shedding light on this unheralded and important volunteer health care worker THE ROOM AT THE END OF THE HALL raises questions about how America and Americans go about the business of old age and how old age itself is changing as the baby boomer generation enters it

The Code of Cuenca James F. Powers,2016-11-11 Sometime around 1190 King Alfonso VIII of Castile granted a royal charter to the community of Cuenca a Castilian frontier town recently recaptured from the Muslims and resettled by Christians The royal charter was in the form of a law code or fuero Fueros which evolved from short lists of exceptions to standing royal directives into much more extensive commentaries on legal matters were used as an incentive to Christian settlement on the frontier Reflecting the complexities of administering a town that still had large Muslim and Jewish populations the fuero or code of Cuenca was meant to assure the permanence of Christian conquest and settlement James Powers provides the first translation into English of this notable historical document The Code of Cuenca is of great importance to legal historians particularly as a comparison to contemporary English and other European law texts Because there is no similar urban compilation anywhere else in twelfth century Europe that contains significant descriptions of everyday life in a medieval frontier town the code will serve as a primary source for scholars and students of medieval Iberian and western European political economic and social history
