Something On My Mind:

Berkeley Daniel E. Flage, 2014-04-28 Irish philosopher George Bishop Berkeley was one of the greatest philosophers of the early modern period Along with David Hume and John Locke he is considered one of the fathers of British Empiricism Berkeley is a clear concise and sympathetic introduction to George Berkeley's philosophy and a thorough review of his most important texts Daniel E Flage explores his works on vision metaphysics morality and economics in an attempt to develop a philosophically plausible interpretation of Berkeley's oeuvre as whole Many scholars blur the rejection of material substance immaterialism with the claim that only minds and things dependent upon minds exist idealism However Flage shows how by distinguishing idealism from immaterialism and arguing that Berkeley's account of what there is metaphysics is dependent upon what is known epistemology a careful and plausible philosophy emerges The author sets out the implications of this valuable insight for Berkeley's moral and economic works showing how they are a natural outgrowth of his metaphysics casting new light on the appreciation of these and other lesser known areas of Berkeley's thought Daniel E Flage's Berkeley presents the student and general reader with a clear and eminently readable introduction to Berkeley's works which also challenges standard interpretations of Berkeley's philosophy

City of Thorns Alice Reyes, 2025-04-15 My name is Viktor Volkov and in my world debts are paid in blood I didn't ask for this life I was born into it inheriting a territory of control and power Ruthless and calculating I control the shadows where men obey and secrets are buried deep Until Lara Novak crossed my path She seems to think she can play her own game that her intellect is enough to protect her But she doesn't know how far I'm willing to go when I'm interested Each challenge just makes me want her more until she's drawn into a world she once questioned Now she's inside my operation where loyalty is a commodity and escape isn't easy Lara is involved and in the mafia you don't just walk away she's not an exception

Every Day Essays Marion Foster Washburne, 1904 The End Salvatore Scibona, 2009-10-06 An incredible debut and National Book Award nominated novel described as Memento meets Augie March Didion meets Hitchcock by Esquire from the author of The Volunteer It is August 15 1953 the day of a boisterous and unwieldy street carnival in Elephant Park an Italian immigrant enclave in northern Ohio As the festivities reach a riotous pitch and billow into the streets five members of the community labor under the weight of a terrible secret As these floundering souls collide one day of calamity and consequence sheds light on a half century of their struggles their follies and their pride And slowly it becomes clear that buried deep in the hearts of these five exquisitely drawn characters is the long silenced truth about the crime that twisted each of their worlds Cast against the racial spiritual and moral tension that has given rise to modern America this first novel exhumes the secrets lurking in the darkened crevices of the soul of our country Inventive explosive and revelatory The End introduces Salvatore Scibona as an important new voice in American fiction
