Fragile Hope Sandhya Fuchs, 2024-06-18. Against the backdrop of the global Black Lives Matter movement debates around the social impact of hate crime legislation have come to the political fore. In 2019 the UN Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice urgently asked how legal systems can counter bias and discrimination. In India a nation with vast socio cultural diversity and a complex colonial past questions about the relationship between law and histories of oppression have become particularly pressing. Recently India has seen a rise in violence against Dalits ex untouchables and other minorities. Consequently an emerging Dalit Lives Matter movement has campaigned for the effective implementation of India's only hate crime law the 1989 Scheduled Castes Scheduled Tribes Prevention of Atrocities Act PoA. Drawing on long term fieldwork with Dalit survivors of caste atrocities human rights NGOs police and judiciary Sandhya Fuchs unveils how Dalit communities in the state of Rajasthan interpret and mobilize the PoA. Fuchs shows that the PoA has emerged as a project of legal meliorism the idea that persistent and creative legal labor can gradually improve the oppressive conditions that characterize Dalit lives. Moving beyond statistics and judicial arguments

Fuchs uses the intimate lens of personal narratives to lay bare how legal processes converge and conflict with political and gendered concerns about justice for caste atrocities creating new controversies inequalities and hopes
