In the Mirror of the Past Tomasz Ratajczak, Bogdan Trocha, 2014-09-26 These days we are ever more often confronted by overwhelming events Searching for a way to understand them we turn to mythic archetypes still present in our culture The authors of these essays pose questions about the reliability of the archetypes found in tradition history and scattered mythologemes The essays in this collection deal with the presence of mythic time in modern speculative fiction such as fantasy and alternate histories and discuss major mythologemes and their functions in popular literature and extra literary reality The authors show how mythopoeic fiction becomes a genetically modified mythic mirror in which we hope to see answers to vexing questions or just a reality superior to the ordinary one In the Mirror of the Past Of Fantasy and History is a collection of seven essays by American and Polish authors including Brian Attebery Terri Doughty and Marek Oziewicz with Mircea Eliade s concept of return from history to History as their underlying theme Canadian Science Fiction, crosses paths with an extraordinary young woman driven by voices within to try to heal the ailing king and help his forces in war A wide and varied set of people from all walks of life take their places in the rich tapestry of this story Both sweeping and intimate Written on the Dark is an elegant tour de force about power and ambition playing out amid the equally intense human need for art and beauty and memories to be left behind
