Radical Visions Vicente F. Gotera, 1994 Although poets have written about warfare since at least the time of Homer the Vietnam war has struck many observers as being immune to the interpretations of poetry and myth Lyric poetry of a traditional kind writes one critic has proved inappropriate to communicate the character of the Vietnam war its remoteness its jargonized recapitulations its seeming imperviousness to aesthetics Nonetheless the past two decades have seen an unprecedented outpouring of poetry that seeks to describe and come to terms with that bitterly divisive conflict In Radical Visions Vince Gotera argues that poetry written by Vietnam veterans underlines the failure of traditional American myths to help Americans understand the war and its aftermath The book blends sociohistorical commentary with close readings of individual works by such poets as Michael Casey Walter McDonald and W D Ehrhart In the book's first section The Nam Gotera examines several key mythic structures the Wild West a violent extension of the mythic virgin land the machine in the garden the city on the hill regeneration through violence all of which helped delude Americans about Vietnam and the war being fought there In the second part The World Gotera shows how another myth the American Adam as an exemplar of ahistorical innocence proved unusable for returning veterans attempting to readjust to American life In addition to exposing these failed myths Gotera argues the poetry by Vietnam veterans reflects an effort to construct new myths most notably that of the warrior against war an oxymoronic structure arising from the difficulties faced by returning veterans In the book's final chapters Gotera examines the work of Bruce Weigl and Yusef Komunyakaa two poets whom the author considers most successful at portraying the moral absurdity of the Vietnam war without sacrificing lyrical aesthetics The first comprehensive study devoted exclusively to poetry by Vietnam veterans Radical Visions argues that this body of writing registers an important advance in the aesthetics and poetics of war literature and offers a cogent antiwar statement rooted in personal experience

Song Of The Rolling Earth John Lister-Kaye, 2017-10-05 Conservationist and naturalist John Lister Kaye founder of the Aigas Field Centre writes about his life in the glens the wildlife that surrounds him and the primeval magical exchange that takes place between man and nature once so central to ancient civilisations He describes finding the ruined nineteenth century estate that is to become Aigas taking it over and turning it into a going concern as an Educational Centre and his own personal motivation following the Torrey Canyon oil spillage and natural disasters in the 1960s to become a conservationist Interspersed within the narrative detail are engaging and enlightening descriptions of flora and fauna John Lister Kaye carries the reader very effectively into the minute worlds he observes and backs up keen scrutiny with facts and figures SONG OF THE ROLLING EARTH is a notably entertaining and enlightening addition to the canon of naturalist writing that includes Gavin Maxwell's RING OF BRIGHT WATER Henry Williamson's TARKA THE OTTER and the works of Gerald Durrell Foreground Music Graham Duff, 2019-12-31 A chronicle of a lifetime's passion for gig going by one of British television's most respected writers Foreground Music is an absolute gem Charming very funny and often achingly melancholy Graham Duff's memoir is suffused with a genuine passion for live music and its occasionally eccentric power Mark Gatiss The result of a lifetime's passion for gig going by one of British television's most respected writers Foreground Music is at once enthusiastically detailed and tremendously illuminating of both the concert moment and its place in popular culture It is an engaging memoir of a life lived to the fullest and a vivid insightful and humorous exploration of what music writing might be Foreground Music describes music performances that range from a Cliff Richard gospel concert attended by Duff at the age of ten to the fourteen year old Duff's first rock show where the Jam played so loudly he blacks out to a Joy Division gig that erupted into a full scale riot Duff goes on pub crawls with Mark E Smith of the Fall convinces Paul Weller to undertake his first acting role and attempts to interview Genesis P Orridge of Throbbing Gristle while tripping on LSD Foreground Music captures the energy and power of life changing gigs while tracing the evolution of forty years of musical movements and subcultures But more than that it's an honest touching and very funny story of friendship love creativity and mortality and a testimony to music's ability to inspire and heal Illustrated with photographs and ephemera from the author's private collection Dictionary of Midwestern Literature, Volume Two Philip A. Greasley, 2016-08-08 The Midwest has produced a robust literary heritage Its authors have won half of the nation's Nobel Prizes for Literature plus a significant number of Pulitzer Prizes This volume explores the rich racial ethnic and cultural diversity of the region It also contains entries on 35 pivotal Midwestern literary works literary genres literary cultural historical and social movements state and city literatures literary journals and magazines as well as entries on science fiction film comic strips graphic novels and environmental writing Prepared by a team of scholars this second volume of the Dictionary of Midwestern Literature is a comprehensive resource that demonstrates the Midwest's continuing cultural vitality and the stature and distinctiveness of its literature Ghost Song Sadie Montgomery, 2012-05-30 A fire engulfs the stage Dead Dogs Howl guitarist vocalist and songwriter Erik Devon survives but scarred his voice destroyed his memory in shards Presumed dead he is blamed for the deaths of band members and crew Forced into hiding a ghost of his former self Devon watches other musicians perform at his club Then one day he hears her voice Cara Friday pays homage to her dead idol by emulating Devon's style and performing his music Discovered by the manager of Dead Dogs Howl Cara is groomed to keep Devon's career alive singing only his songs How long will Devon's ghost haunt her How long can she be his voice without losing her own But someone is watching over Cara Friday's career

Someone in the shadows waits and listens GHOST SONG adapts the tragic story of the Phantom of the Opera and brings it into the world of contemporary rock      Acts and Shadows Philip K. Jason,2000 The imaginative literature of the Vietnam War participates both overtly and covertly in a struggle for national memory First generation Vietnam War literature focusing on representations of combat and life in the battlefield strove to give testimony to write history Later writings in their range of genre and style investigate and interrogate the very meaning of war To reflect these two stages Philip Jason divides his newest book of literary criticism into two sections acts and shadows In Acts Jason provides formal and cultural readings of combat narratives by such authors as James Webb Larry Heinemann and Joe Haldeman and explores the meaning of authenticity as applied to Vietnam War texts Shadows looks both forward and backward from the combat zone challenging the parameters of what we define as Vietnam War literature      Redemption Song Mike Marqusee,2016-06-07 When Muhammad Ali died many mourned the life of the greatest sportsman the world had ever seen In Redemption Song Mike Marqusee argues that Ali was not just a boxer but a remarkable political figure in a decade of tumultuous change Playful popular always confrontational Ali refashioned the role of a political activist and was central alongside figures such as Malcolm X and Martin Luther King to the black liberation and the anti war movements Marqusee shows that sport and politics were always intertwined and this is the reason why Ali remained an international beacon of hope long after he had left the ring      Vietnam Reconsidered Harrison E.
