Song For Nettie Johnson:

A Song for Nettie Johnson Gloria Sawai, 2002 As Sawai deftly turns over the stones of these people's lives and reveals the squalor the fear and the unhappiness that lie beneath she also uncovers that most precious of human qualities hope A Song for Nettie Johnson Gloria Sawai, 2014-09-16 The Day I Sat On the Sun Deck is a funny philosophical sexy sad and searching story that explores faith the nature of belief with the lightness of a meringue A Song for Nettie Johnson , 2012 In her stunning Governor General's Award winning debut collection of short stories Gloria Sawai examines the heartbreaking lives of people on the margins In her stunning debut collection of short stories Gloria Sawai examines the heartbreaking lives of people on the margins A group of young school students prepares a memorial for the town's deceased doctor at the inadvertent risk of deeply offending his widow A young girl learns important things about herself some of them extremely unpleasant on a storm ravaged Mother's Day weekend A woman on a road trip in search of her erstwhile husband finds instead the one thing she never expected to see again in her lifetime A woman sitting on the deck outside her Moose Jaw home receives an unusual and unexpected gentleman caller And in the title story an outcast and misunderstood woman and her disgraced lover struggle toward what may be their last chance at redemption These and other vividly drawn characters populate the stories collected for the first time in A Song for Nettie Johnson With insight and passion Sawai throws light into dark corners and reveals dark truths Some stories are linked by common characters and settings others are worlds unto themselves But all are told in a rich yet spare style that imbues them with understated foreboding and unease As Sawai deftly turns over the stones of these people's lives and finds the squalor fear and unhappiness that lie beneath she also uncovers that most precious of gems hope Hope that things will not always remain the way they are The realization remains however that there's a lot more to changing things than simply wanting them to change The Day I Sat With Jesus Gloria Sawai, 2009-09-01 The Day I Sat On the Sun Deck is a funny philosophical sexy sad and searching story that explores faith the nature of belief with the lightness of a meringue When Jesus visits the hero of Sawai's most successful short story on a Monday morning in September 1972 they drink a glass of wine spill some tea talk about breasts Then his time is up That's what happened to me in Moose Jaw in 1972 she writes It was the main thing that happened to me that year Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index , 1975 The Literary History of Saskatchewan David Carpenter, Kelly-Anne Riess, 2018-10-01 Volume 3 shifts its focus to Regina's literary culture and to the coming generation of younger writers but it continues to examine the best work from Saskatchewan The impact the relevance the illuminations of our best writers work tend to move well beyond the borders of our province This work transcends the regional sources of its inspiration Just as Marilynne Robinson has much to say to Canadians about the disruptions and the graces of family life Dianne Warren has much to say to Americans about the omnipresence of the past the shadows it casts on people's lives in the present Many of our best books are nurtured by the history and the life of this province but they spring into literature roughly in proportion to their applications and their immemorial responses to the human condition The Governor General's Literary Awards of Canada Andrew David Irvine, 2018-11-27 The definitive bibliography of Canada's Governor General's Literary Awards Alice Munro Michael Ondaatje Margaret Atwood Antonine Maillet Carol Shields Marie Claire Blais Gilles Vigneault For over three quarters of a century the Governor General's Literary Awards have been instrumental in recognizing many of Canada's best authors illustrators and translators The result is impressive between 1936 and 2017 705 titles have been recognized with this prestigious award With careful attention to detail Andrew Irvine presents the history and evolution of the Awards and extols their importance for the careers of authors illustrators and translators as well as for the development of Canada's national literature The heart of the book contains the first comprehensive bibliography of the awards including the first list of winning books organized according to their historically correct award categories information about five books wrongly omitted from previous lists of winning titles detailed information about award ceremonies film adaptations and jury members and other key information This is a seminal work that belongs on the shelf of every scholar and every lover of Canadian literature This book is published in English Une bibliographie incontournable des Prix littéraires du Gouverneur général du Canada Alice Munro Margaret Atwood Antonine Maillet Carol Shields Marie Claire Blais Michael Ondaatje Gilles Vigneault Les écrivains canadiens sont depuis longtemps encensés sur la scène nationale comme l'échelle mondiale et les Prix du Gouverneur général jouent un rôle clé dans la reconnaissance de certains de nos meilleurs auteurs illustrateurs et traducteurs La liste est impressionnante ce prestigieux prix a récompensé 705 œuvres entre 1936 et 2017 Avec un souci minutieux au détail Andrew Irvine présente l'histoire et l'évolution des Prix et vante leurs vertus indispensables la carrière des écrivains et des traducteurs ainsi que dans l'élaboration d'une littérature nationale au Canada Cette bibliographie est la toute première recension complète des Prix littéraires du Gouverneur général et donne des renseignements détaillés au sujet des cérémonies des adaptations cinématographiques des membres des jurys ainsi que d'autres informations clés Le livre présente aussi une copie exhaustive et exacte de données bibliographiques tirées d'archives une première dans le monde de l'édition En somme une référence incontournable Ce livre est publié en anglais The Routledge Introduction to the Canadian Short Story Maria Löschnigg, 2022-12-30 This volume aims to introduce undergraduates graduates and general readers to the diversity and richness of Canadian short story writing and to the narrative potential of short fiction in general Addressing a wide spectrum of forms and themes the book will familiarise readers with the development and cultural significance of Canadian short fiction from the early 19th century to the present A strong focus will be on the rich reservoir of short fiction produced in the past four decades and the way in which it has responded to the anxieties and crises of our time Drawing on current critical debates each chapter will highlight the interrelations between Canadian short fiction and historical and socio-cultural developments Case studies will zoom in on specific thematic or aesthetic issues in an exemplary manner The Routledge Introduction to the Canadian Short Story will provide an accessible and comprehensive overview ideal for students and

Bearers of Risk Neta Gordon, 2022-04-15 The short story and the short story cycle have long been considered a marginal genre free to make room for fresh or risk taking voices But in thematizing masculinity in crisis the genre uses the premise of the marginal to elevate recuperative masculinity politics and nostalgia for traditional patriarchy Despite the scholarly tendency to link marginal genres and marginalized voices features of the CanLit infrastructure including genre criticism and literary prize culture are complicit in normalizing hegemonic masculinity and the Settler colonial project Bearers of Risk examines how male Canadian writers mobilize the early twenty first century short story cycle as an illustration of post 9 11 recuperative masculinity politics exposing the tendency to position White heteronormative men s viewpoints as objective Neta Gordon introduces the civil bearer of risk a figure who comprehends the position of men as being marked by or for failure and who reasserts masculine authority as civil duty towards community This book looks at contemporary experimental short story cycles debut cycles by ethnically minoritized and immigrant writers and cycles unified by setting whether suburban urban or rural Bearers of Risk unsettles popular notions of the inherent outsider status of the short story cycle while also scrutinizing expressions of recuperative masculinity politics through which men assert their right to reclaim the centre

Northern Lights Byron Rempel-Burkholder, Dora Dueck, 2010-03-18. Canada is known for its wild and diverse physical geography. But do Canadians have a spiritual geography, an identity uniquely shaped by their land, their history, their people? This first of its kind collection brings together writings from within the Christian heritage to help Canadians explore that question. The forty-six contributors include award-winning literary figures, religious and political leaders, and social activists from one end of Canada to the other. Their traditions range from evangelical to Catholic, mainline Protestant to Orthodox, Pentecostal to Mennonite. Some still have family connections beyond Canada's borders; others have ancestors who were here long before Europeans came. These writers do not analyze, define, or argue about Christianity in Canada. They simply showcase it through their memoir, poetry, fiction, or meditation, mapping into words something of what it means to be Christian in this country. The spiritual landscape they paint is diverse, inspiring, and provocative. It's a colourful dance of words, a wonderful Canadian celebration. 2009 Writer's Market Listings Robert Brewer, 2008-06-01. The Cambridge Companion to Canadian Literature Eva-Marie Kröller, 2004-02-05. This book offers a comprehensive and engaging introduction to major writers, genres, and topics in Canadian literature. Contributors pay attention to the social, political, and economic developments that have informed literary events. Broad surveys of fiction, drama, and poetry are complemented by chapters on Aboriginal writing, francophone writing, autobiography, literary criticism, writing by women, and the emergence of urban writing in a country traditionally defined by its regions. Also discussed are genres that have a special place in Canadian literature, such as nature writing, exploration, and travel writing, and short fiction. Reading the 21st Century Stan Persky, 2011. The first decade of the twenty-first century was noteworthy for war, terror, religious revival, economic collapse, and a technological revolution that prompted countless critical responses and gave rise to a paradox: writing flourished but reading declined. Reading the 21st Century investigates the urgent themes, major works, and crisis of reading in an era of instant communication. In wide-ranging and innovative criticism, Stan Persky examines international non-fiction and fiction to engage with both the triumphs and tensions of reading and writing today Evaluating works by established authors Philip Roth Orhan Pamuk J M Coetzee and Jos Saramago as well as emerging writers like Naomi Klein Javier Cercas and Chimamanda Adichie Persky also showcases a remarkable group of reporters Steve Coll Dexter Filkins and Rajiv Chandrasekaran who have written essential books about global issues An illuminating and accessible work about the present age Reading the 21st Century introduces new ways of thinking about the world s most significant cultural political and moral problems Sparrow Road Sheila
