narrative core to thousands of films since the late 19th century many of German cinema's most influential masterpieces were inspired by canonical texts popular plays and even children's literature Not being restricted to German adaptations however this book also traces the role of literature originally written in German in international film productions which sheds light on the interrelation between cinema and key historical events It outlines how processes of adaptation are shaped by global catastrophes and the emergence of nations by materialist conditions liberal economies and capitalist imperatives political agendas the mobility of individuals and sometimes by the desire to create reflective surfaces and perhaps even art Commercial cinema's adaptation practices have foregrounded economic interest but numerous filmmakers throughout cinema history have turned to German language literature not simply to entertain but as a creative contribution to the public sphere marking adaptation practice at least potentially as a form of active citizenship and death Franz Werfel: The Faith of an Exile Lionel Steiman, 2010-10-30 Franz Werfel was born in Prague in 1890 and died in Beverly Hills in 1945 a popular and artistic success in Europe and America Despite his Jewish birth and upbringing he was attracted to Christianity at any early age and although he never formally converted he celebrated his own vision of it in his entire life s work The origina sof that peculiar faith and the response it engendered in Werfel s work as he lived thorough the horrific end of Jewish life in Europe are treated here Werfel was not a systematic thinker and while his writing contains much that is philosophical and theological his eclecticism and idiosyncrasy render any attempt to trace the specific origins of his thought or its relation to the work of contemporary philosophers and theologians highly problematic Thus this work is neither biography nor intellectual history in the strict sense it goes beyond melding the concerns of both genres into a thoughtful comprehensive portrait of faith at work Of interest to historians of the twentieth century as well as to students of that intriguing zone that lies between faith and art but is neither or both Memorable Films of the Forties John Reid, 2004 What makes a movie memorable Has it won awards Is it still constantly aired on television Did it have an enormous influence in its day Nearly 100 films of the 1940s are examined in detail with complete cast credit and background information Pictures include Casablanca Meet Me in St Louis Yankee Doodle Dandy All About Eve Cobra Woman Laura The Three Musketeers A Tree Grows in Brooklyn The Picture of Dorian Gray Abbott and Costello Meet Frankenstein He Walked By Night Forever Amber The Paleface etc The Baby Trail Sinead Moriarty, 2010-05-11 Makeup artist Emma Hamilton is thirty three when she and her husband James decide it s time to start a family She has it all mapped out Go off the pill in December have sex get pregnant by January have the baby in September With the help of a personal trainer she figures she ll be back to her fighting weight in time for Christmas But when three months of candle scented sex fails to produce the desired result Emma decides that maybe Mother Nature needs a helping hand Soon her life is a roller coaster of post coital handstands you can t argue with gravity hormone inducing sanity reducing drugs and a veritable army of probing specialists torturers more like It s out with alcohol and spontaneous sex in with green tea and ovulation kits Emma and James try everything from fertility drugs to in vitro but all their carefully laid plans seem to go south along with Emma s rapidly plummeting self esteem The members of her support team are unquestionably loyal but distracted by their own personal dramas There s Babs her younger sister who prescribes Emma half an Ecstasy pill to treat her depression Her friend Jess is pregnant with her second child and gives Emma an earful about the downside of motherhood The glamorous Lucy Emma s closest pal fears she might be stuck in her single rut forever that is until she meets Donal a rough around the edges rugby player who passes out on their first date but quickly proves that he is worth a second chance And last but certainly not least is James Emma s rugby coach husband who quite unhelpfully manages to give himself a groin injury just when she is ovulating But just when Emma feels as if her obsession may have alienated all of her loved ones including James events take a ninety degree turn that will have unforeseen consequences for everyone Sinead Moriarty brings a wicked sense of humor to a subject of feverish concern for women worried by the loud ticking of their biological clocks in this sizzingly funny yet deeply moving novel
