

A close-up, low-angle shot of a woman's face, tilted back and looking towards the sky. Her eyes are closed, and her expression is one of awe or contemplation. The background is a dark, starry night sky with numerous small, bright stars. Several white doves are in flight, their wings spread, against the starry backdrop. The lighting is soft and warm, highlighting the contours of her face and the texture of her skin. The overall mood is serene and spiritual.

Vanterpool, 2011-09-26 Speak My Soul addresses the challenges strivings aspirations anxieties and perplexities of the human condition The author s prose form is stylistically free Characteristically several of his poems are composed with meticulous attention to rhyming tendencies while at other times he just lets lines flow as they come to birth in his soul He tries to locate liberating speech acts that are able to resonate intimately from a universal standpoint with readers of his prose The book s four part organization is meant to take readers along on a reflective odyssey through a web of lived experiences Speaking my Soul John Russell Rickford, 2021-12-28 Speaking My Soul is the honest story of linguist John R Rickford s life from his early years as the youngest of ten children in Guyana to his status as Emeritus Professor of Linguistics at Stanford of the transformation of his identity from colored or mixed race in Guyana to black in the USA and of his work championing Black Talk and its speakers This is an inspiring story of the personal and professional growth of a black scholar from his life as an immigrant to the USA to a world renowned expert who has made a leading contribution to the study of African American life history language and culture In this engaging memoir Rickford recalls landmark events for his racial identity like being elected president of the Black Student Association at the University of California Santa Cruz learning from black expeditions to the South Carolina Sea Islands Jamaica Belize and Ghana and meeting or interviewing civil rights icons like Huey P Newton Rosa Parks and South African Dennis Brutus He worked with Rachel Jeantel Trayvon Martin s good friend and key witness in the trial of George Zimmerman for his murder Zimmerman s exoneration sparked the Black Lives Matter movement With a foreword by poet John Agard this is the account of a former Director of African and African American Studies whose work has increased our understanding of the richness of African American language and our awareness of the education and criminal justice challenges facing African Americans It is key reading for students and faculty in linguistics mixed race studies African American studies and social justice Speaking from My Soul Melonie White, 2017-09-18

Speaking from My Soul contains writings that come from my heart Some of them talk about how close I am with God and how He has helped me throughout my life I would not be where I am today without God in my life The other writings are about the things that have happened in the world Personally I would want to help even if it s by prayers I want to give it to God because I know He can handle whatever it is in this world This book is about how God can help you if you only give to Him whatever is bothering you My belief in God is so strong that I know that whatever happens in this world God will be right there to protect us
