Speaking About Writing Reflections On Research Methodology:

Speaking About Writing Alain Coulon, 1994-04-29 This volume makes a powerful case for the analysis of the spoken word as a source of data to study writing The contributors focus on issues involved in the collection analysis and interpretation of data Their approaches go beyond simple quantitative qualitative differences examining the very underpinnings of the various assumptions of distinct methodologies Divided into four major areas of inquiry the book looks at different aspects of conducting think aloud protocol analysis retrospective accounts discourse analysis and interviews in the field Second Language Writing Research Paul Kei Matsuda, Tony Silva, 2014-04-08 In this original volume eighteen researchers from different parts of the world reflect on their own research projects providing insights into key methodological issues in research on second language writing By offering a glimpse into the process of constructing and negotiating knowledge in the field the messy space of situated practices of inquiry it helps to demystify the research process which can appear in published studies and in introductory methodology guides to be neater and more orderly than it actually is Taking a broad conception of research as inquiry that emphasizes the situated and constructed nature of knowledge in the field Second Language Writing Research Perspectives on the Process of Knowledge Construction encourages multiple forms of inquiry including philosophical narrative and historical modes Empirical inquiry as presented in this book encompasses both quantitative and qualitative approaches as well as those that strategically combine them A helpful discussion of the nuts and bolts of developing sustainable research programs is also provided The volume as a whole facilitates a situated issue driven research practice Its unique focus on second language writing research makes it an invaluable resource for both novice and experienced researchers in the field Handbook of Research on Teaching the English Language Arts Diane Lapp, Douglas Fisher, 2011-01-18 Now in its third edition the Handbook of Research on Teaching the English Language Arts sponsored by the International Reading Association and the National Council of Teachers of English offers an integrated perspective on the teaching of the English language arts and a comprehensive overview of research in the field Prominent scholars researchers and professional leaders provide historical and theoretical perspectives about teaching the language arts focus on bodies of research that influence decision making within the teaching of the language arts explore the environments for language arts teaching reflect on methods and materials for instruction Reflecting important recent developments in the field the Third Edition is restructured updated and includes many new contributors More emphasis is given in this edition to the learner multiple texts learning and sharing one's knowledge A Companion Website new for this edition provides PowerPoint slides highlighting the main points of each chapter Rhetoric in Detail Barbara Johnstone, Christopher Eisenhart, 2008 The eleven studies in this volume illustrate and advance the synthesis of discourse analysis with rhetorical studies Rhetoric in Detail shows how a variety of techniques from discourse analysis can be useful in studying such concerns as agency legitimation controversy and style and how concepts from rhetoric including genre and figuration can enrich the work of discourse analysts The authors research sites range from government commissions political speeches newspaper reports and letters to interviews and conversations in beauty salons and online Methodological overviews interspersed throughout survey critical discourse analysis interactional sociolinguistics grounded theory computer aided corpus analysis narrative analysis and participant observation and provide suggestions for further reading Rhetoric in Detail is an invaluable source for rhetoricians looking for systematic grounded ways of approaching new more vernacular sites for rhetorical discourse and for discourse analysts interested in seeing what they can learn from the tradition and practice of rhetorical analysis Linking Clauses and Actions in Social Interaction Ritva Laury, Marja Etelämäki, Elizabeth Couper-Kuhlen, 2017-07-07 This volume concerns the ways in which verbal and non verbal actions are combined and linked in a range of contexts in everyday conversation in institutional contexts and in written journalism The volume includes an introduction which besides presenting the content of the articles discusses terminological fundamentals such as the understanding of the terms clause action and linkage and combining in different grammatical traditions and the ways they are conceived of here as well as open questions collectively formulated by the contributors in planning for the volume concerning the recognition emergence and distance of linkage and the ways these questions are addressed in the contributions to the volume Topics treated in the articles include combining physical actions and verbal announcements in everyday conversation linking of verbal and nonverbal actions as well as verbal linkages between nonverbal actions by dance teachers building pedagogical activity Other topics concern the mediation of questions through informal translating in multilingual conversation in order to organize participation and the ways in which student requests for clarification and confirmation create learning occasions in a foreign language classroom Still other articles concern the on line emergence of alternative questions with the Finnish particle vai or delayed completions of unfinished turns the transforming of requests and offers into joint ventures and the ways in which direct quotations are created in written journalism from the original talk in the spoken interview Most of the papers employ Conversation Analysis and Interactional Linguistics as a theoretical framework The languages used as data are Finnish English Estonian French Brazilian Portuguese and Swedish 2017-07-07 Research Methods in Second

Research Methodologies in Translation Studies Gabriela Saldanha,Sharon O'Brien,2014-04-08 As an interdisciplinary area of research translation studies attracts students and scholars with a wide range of backgrounds who then need to face the challenge of accounting for a complex object of enquiry that does not adapt itself well to traditional methods in other fields of investigation This book addresses the needs of such scholars whether they are students doing research at postgraduate level or more experienced researchers who want to familiarize themselves with methods outside their current field of expertise The book promotes a discerning and critical approach to scholarly investigation by providing the reader not only with the know how but also with insights into how new questions can be fruitfully explored through the coherent integration of different methods of research Understanding core principles of reliability validity and ethics is essential for any researcher no matter what methodology they adopt and a whole chapter is therefore devoted to these issues Research Methodologies in Translation Studies is divided into four different chapters according to whether the research focuses on the translation product the process of translation the participants involved or the context in which translation takes place An introductory chapter discusses issues of reliability credibility validity and ethics The impact of our research depends not only on its quality but also on successful dissemination and the final chapter therefore deals with what is also generally the final stage of the research process producing a research report

Contemporary Tools and Techniques for Studying Writing T.

Olive,C.M. Levy,2012-12-06 111 With some pride I hereby introduce the 10 volume in the Studies of Writing book series This volume aims to be a tool book for writing research In my opinion the editors and authors of this volume succeeded in this endeavor Four guiding questions are answered in all chapters on online techniques How to The key to such a book is providing insight in the decisions researchers make when developing tools and techniques such information is not found in journal articles and in the best case hidden in technical reports This book provides readers with detailed information about the ins and outs of various online techniques When to Another contribution of this tool book is to provide insight into when the tool can be used in other words to relate the tool or technique to the theoretical claims about the writing process or cognitive processes underlying writing processes Theory methodology tools and techniques handling data and interpretation form a coherent unit When not to There is no cow without a spot Dutch er is geen koe zonder vlekje is the literal translation of a Dutch expression Techniques tools have their limitations and their problems in applying them and or handling or interpreting the data they produce In a book like this researchers took the opportunity to provide readers with a look behind the curtains in the process of research Scientific critical reflection is one of the strong features of this book
