Spectres Of Exile And Other Poems:

Spectres of Exile and Other Poems Hasan 'Abd Allāh Qurashī, 1991 Spectres of Exile is a bilingual edition of poems by one of the Arab Gulf region's most prominent poets Hasan Abdallah al Qurashi comes from the Hijaz the birthplace of Arabic poetry and fellow poets have linked him to the great Hijazi poets of the pre Islamic period and the seventh and eighth centuries AD Al Qurashi writes love poems in which the pain and difficulty of love are invariably portrayed through imagery relating to the natural hazards of the desert and the nomadic way of life in keeping with the conventions of his literary forebears He also writes about the fate of a poet who is the spokesman for his people and an indivisible part of them but at the same time an outcast an exile and a marginal figure He evokes the beauty of the country to whose past and future he feels bound but condemns the perversion of its supposedly cherished values and aspirations

Exile and Other Poems

Richard Aldington, 2023-11-01 First published in 1923 Exile and Other Poems is an important poignant collection from one of the foremost Imagist war poets Penned after witnessing the horrors of the frontline during the First World War Aldington's brutal honest verse lays bare unimaginable experiences The first part of the collection Exile explores the poet's survivor's guilt post traumatic stress and sense of alienation The collection continues with a Songs for Puritans and Songs for Sensualists pastiches of seventeenth and eighteenth century love poetry and a series of more personal poems exploring the natural world from which Aldington drew reassurance Enriched with a fascinating introduction and explanatory notes by leading Aldington scholars Elizabeth Vandiver and Vivien Whelpton this centenary edition seeks to place Exile firmly back on the map of war poetry from which it has been missing for too long

The exile's return, and other poems, by E.H.B. Edward

Henry Blakeney, 1890

Spectres of Reparation in South Africa

Jaco Barnard-Naude, 2023-08-25 This book argues that South Africa is haunted by the spectre of reparation The failure of the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission to secure adequate reparation for the victims of colonisation and apartheid continues to drastically undermine the commission's processes and legacy Investigating the TRC's key processes of amnesty archiving and forgiveness in turn the book demonstrates that each process is fundamentally thwarted by the terminal lack of reparation These multiple forms of the spectre of reparation haunt post apartheid society in deeply traumatogenic ways The book proposes a new ethic of reparative citizenship as a means of encountering the spectres of reparation in a productive and transformative manner generating hope even in the face of the irreparable This book will be an important read for South Africans interested in overcoming the impasses and injustices that haunt the country but it will also be of interest to post conflict transitional justice and politics researchers more broadly

This Ghostly Poetry

Daniel Aguirre-Otezia, 2020-04-02 The Spanish Civil War was idealized as a poet's war The thousands of poems written about the conflict are memorable evidence of poetry's high cultural and political value in those historical conditions After Franco's victory and the repression that followed numerous Republican exiles relied on the symbolic agency of poetry to uphold a sense of national identity Exilic poems are often read as claim making narratives that fit national literary history This Ghostly Poetry critiques this conventional understanding of literary history by arguing that exilic poems invite readers to seek continuity with a traumatic past just as they prevent their narrative articulation The book uses the figure of the ghost to address temporal challenges to historical continuity brought about by memory tracing the discordant disruptive ways in which memory is interwoven with history in poems written in exile Taking a novel approach to cultural memory This Ghostly Poetry engages with literature history and politics while exploring issues of voice time representation and disciplinarity

The Exile; a Poem Robert Haldane Rattray, 1826 Legends of the Dunbars, and Other Poems Phoebe Ann Masson, 1854 The Spectre of Defeat in Post-War British and US Literature David

Owen, Cristina Pividori, 2021-01-22 It is a commonplace belief that history is written by the victorious However less recognised but equally common is the idea that the defeated also write history even if their particular account is rather different This collection looks at these matters from a novel and distinct perspective It essentially presents the idea that victors often perceive themselves as defeated by examining the ways in which the idea of defeat comes to dominate the victors own sense of superiority and achievement thereby undermining the certainties that victory is conventionally thought to create The contributions here discuss fiction mostly UK and US published since the First World War Through the frameworks of experience memory and post memory they examine this subliminal defeat basically as seen in conflict itself in the societies that it affects and in the individual lives of those who it destroys The result is an innovative literary account of the victorious yet somehow defeated
