of Pope Pius IX. Pope Pius IX, 18?? Speeches of Pope Pius IX (Classic Reprint) William Ewart Gladstone, 2015-07-14 Excerpt from Speeches of Pope Pius IX. It can hardly be policy; it must be a necessity of his nature which prompts his incessant harangues. But they are evidently a true picture of the man as the man is of the system, except in this that he to use a homely phrase blurts out when he is left to himself what it delivers in rather more comely phrases overlaid with art. Much interest therefore attaches to such a phenomenon as the published Speeches of the Pope, and besides what it teaches in itself, other and singular lessons are to be learned from the strange juxtaposition in which for more than four years his action has now been exhibited. Probably in no place and at no period through the whole history of the world has there ever been presented to mankind even in the agony of war or revolution a more extraordinary spectacle than is now witnessed at Rome. In that city the Italian Government holds a perfectly peaceable though originally forcible possession of the residue of the States of the Church, and at the same time the Pope, remaining on his ground by a perpetual blast of fiery words, appeals to other lands and to future days and thus makes his wordy yet not wholly futile war upon the Italian Government. The mere extracts and specimens which have from time to time appeared in the public journals have stirred a momentary thrill or sigh

or shrug according to the temperaments and tendencies of readers But they have been totally insufficient to convey an idea of the vigor with which this peculiar warfare is carried on of the absolute apparently the contemptuous tolerance with which it is regarded by the Government ruling on the spot or of the picture which is presented to us by the words and actions of the Pope taken as a whole and considered in connection with their possible significance to the future peace of Europe Between the 20th of October 1870 and the 18th of September 1873 this octogenarian Pontiff he is now aged at least eighty two besides bearing all the other cares of ecclesiastical government and despite intervals of illness pronounced two hundred and ninety Discourses which are reported in the eleven hundred pages of the two volumes now to be introduced to the notice of the reader About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
