Speed Style And Beauty Cars From The Ralph Lauren Collection:

Speed, Style, and Beauty Beverly Rae Kimes, 2005 Text by Winston S Goodfellow and Beverly Rae Kimes Foreword and Interview by Darcy Kuronen Introduction by Ralph Lauren Photographs by Michael Furman Fashion, Design and Events Kim Williams, Jennifer Laing, Warwick Frost, 2013-12-17 The importance of fashion and design in an events context remains under researched despite their ubiquity and significance from a societal and economic perspective Fashion themed events for example appeal to broad audiences and may tour the globe Staging these events might help to brand destinations boost visitor numbers and trigger popular debates about the contributions that fashion and design can make to identity They may also tell us something about our culture and wider society This edited volume for the first time examines fashion and design events from a social perspective including the meanings they bestow and their potential economic cultural and personal impacts It explores the reasons for their popularity and influence and provides a critique of their growth in different markets Events examined include fashion weeks fashion or design themed exhibitions historical re enactments extreme alternative fashion and design events and large scale public events such as royal weddings and horse races International examples and case studies are drawn from countries as diverse as the USA UK Germany Bhutan New Zealand and Australia These are used to develop and critique various thematic concepts linked to fashion and design events such as identity gender aspirations and self image commodification authenticity destination development and marketing business strategy and protection infringement of intellectual property Fashion Design and Events also provides a futurist view of these types of events and sets out a future research agenda This book has a unique focus on events associated with fashion and design and features a swathe of disciplinary backgrounds It will appeal to a broad academic audience such as students of art and design cultural studies tourism events studies sociology and marketing Automotive Prosthetic Charissa N. Terranova, 2014-01-15 In the twenty first century we are continually confronted with the existential side of technology the relationships between identity and the mechanizations that have become extensions of the self Focusing on one of humanity's most ubiquitous machines Automotive Prosthetic Technological Mediation and the Car in Conceptual Art combines critical theory and new media theory to form the first philosophical analysis of the car within works of conceptual art These works are broadly defined to encompass a wide range of creative expressions particularly in car based conceptual art by both older established artists and younger emerging artists including Ed Ruscha Martha Rosler Richard Prince Sylvie Fleury Yael Bartana Jeremy Deller and Jonathan Schipper At its core the book offers an alternative formation of conceptual art understood according to technology the body moving through space and what art historian curator and artist Jack Burnham calls relations This thought provoking study illuminates the ways in which the automobile becomes a naturalized extension of the human body incarnating new forms of car art and spurring a technological reframing of conceptual art Steeped in a sophisticated take on the image and semiotics of the car the chapters probe the politics of materialism as well as high low debates about taste culture and art The result is a highly innovative approach to contemporary intersections of art and technology Artifacts and Allegiances Peggy Levitt, 2015-07-07 What can we learn about nationalism by looking at a country's cultural institutions How do the history and culture of particular cities help explain how museums represent diversity Artifacts and Allegiances takes us around the world to tell the compelling story of how museums today are making sense of immigration and globalization Based on firsthand conversations with museum directors curators and policymakers descriptions of current and future exhibitions and inside stories about the famous paintings and iconic objects that define collections across the globe this work provides a close up view of how different kinds of institutions balance nationalism and cosmopolitanism By comparing museums in Europe the United States Asia and the Middle East Peggy Levitt offers a fresh perspective on the role of the museum in shaping citizens Taken together these accounts tell the fascinating story of a sea change underway in the museum world at large
