Who's Coming to Dinner The Graduate In the Heat of the Night Doctor Doolittle and Bonnie and Clyde and through them the larger story of the cultural revolution that transformed Hollywood and America forever It's the mid 1960s and westerns war movies and blockbuster musicals Mary Poppins The Sound of Music dominate the box office The Hollywood studio system with its cartels of talent and its production code is hanging strong or so it would seem Meanwhile Warren Beatty wonders why his career isn't blooming after the success of his debut in Splendor in the Grass Mike Nichols wonders if he still has a career after breaking up with Elaine May and even though Sidney Poitier has just made history by becoming the first black Best Actor winner he's still feeling completely cut off from opportunities other than the same noble black man role And a young actor named Dustin Hoffman struggles to find any work at all By the Oscar ceremonies of the spring of 1968 when In the Heat of the Night wins the 1967 Academy Award for Best Picture a cultural revolution has hit Hollywood with the force of a tsunami The unprecedented violence and nihilism of fellow nominee Bonnie and Clyde has shocked old guard reviewers but helped catapult Warren Beatty and Faye Dunaway into counterculture stardom and made the movie one of the year's biggest box office successes Just as unprecedented has been the run of nominee The Graduate which launched first time director Mike Nichols into a long and brilliant career in filmmaking to say nothing of what it did for Dustin Hoffman Simon and Garfunkel and a generation of young people who knew that whatever their future was it wasn't in plastics Sidney Poitier has reprised the noble black man role brilliantly not once but twice in Guess Who's Coming to Dinner and In the Heat of the Night movies that showed in different ways both how far America had come on the subject of race in 1967 and how far it still had to go What City of Nets did for Hollywood in the 1940s and Easy Riders Raging Bulls for the 1970s Pictures at a Revolution does for Hollywood and the cultural revolution of the 1960s As we follow the progress of these five movies we see an entire industry change and struggle and collapse and grow we see careers made and ruined studios born and destroyed and the landscape of possibility altered beyond all recognition We see some outsized personalities staking the bets of their lives on a few films that became iconic works that defined the generation and other outsized personalities making equally large wagers that didn't pan out at all The product of extraordinary and unprecedented access to the principals of all five films married to twenty years worth of insight covering the film industry and a bewitching storyteller's gift Mark Harris's Pictures at a Revolution is a bravura accomplishment and a work that feels iconic itself

Screen Savors Hernan Vera, Andrew Gordon, 2003 Screen Savors studies how the self of whites is imagined in Hollywood movies by white directors featuring white protagonists interacting with people of another color This collaboration by a sociologist and a film critic using the new perspective of critical white studies offers a bold and sweeping critique of almost a century's worth of American film from Birth of Nation 1915 through Black Hawk Down 2001 Screen Savors studies the way in which the social relations that we call race are fictionalized and pictured in the movies It argues that films are part of broader projects that lead us to ignore or deny the nature of the racial divide in which Americans live Even as the images of racial and ethnic minorities change across the twentieth century Hollywood keeps portraying the ideal white American self as good looking powerful brave cordial kind firm and generous a natural born leader worthy of the loyalty of those of another color The book invites readers to conduct their own analyses of films by showing how this can be done in over 50 Hollywood movies Among these are some films about the Civil War Birth of a Nation Gone with the Wind and Glory some about white messiahs who rescue people of another color Stargate To Kill a Mockingbird Mississippi Burning Three Kings and The Matrix the three versions of Mutiny on the Bounty 1935 1962 and 1984 and interracial romance Guess Who's Coming to Dinner Forty years of Hollywood fantasies of interracial harmony from The Defiant Ones and In the Heat of the Night through the Lethal Weapon series and Men in Black are examined This work in the sociology of knowledge and cultural studies relates the movies of Hollywood to the large political agendas on race relation in the United States Screen Savors appeals to the general reader interested in the movies or in race and ethnicity as well as to students of com Hollywood Bohemians Brett L. Between 1917 and 1941 Hollywood studios gossip columnists and novelists featured an unprecedented number of homosexuals cross dressers and adulterers in their depictions of the glamorous Hollywood lifestyle Actress Greta Garbo defined herself as the ultimate serial bachelorette Screenwriter Mercedes De Acosta engaged in numerous lesbian relationships with the Hollywood elite And countless homosexual designers brazenly picked up men in the hottest Hollywood nightclubs Hollywood's image grew as a place of sexual abandon This book demonstrates how studios and the media used images of these sexually adventurous characters to promote the industry and appeal to the prurient interests of their audiences A History of Evil in Popular Culture Sharon Packer MD, Jody Pennington, 2014-07-15 Evil isn't simply an abstract theological or philosophical talking point In our society the idea of evil feeds entertainment manifests in all sorts of media and is a root concept in our collective psyche This accessible and appealing book examines what evil means to us Evil has been with us since the Garden of Eden when Eve unleashed evil by biting the apple Outside of theology evil remains a highly relevant concept in contemporary times evil villains in films and literature make these stories entertaining our criminal justice system decides the fate of convicted criminals based on the determination of their status as evil or insane This book examines the many manifestations of evil in modern media making it clear how this idea pervades nearly all aspects of life and helping us to reconsider some of the notions about evil that pop culture perpetuates and promotes Covering screen media such as film television and video games print media that include novels and poetry visual media like art and comics music and political polemics the essays in this book address an eclectic range of topics The diverse authors include Americans who left the United States during the Vietnam War era conservative Christian political pundits rock musicians classical linguists Disney fans scholars of American slavery and experts on Holocaust literature and films From portrayals of evil in the television shows The Wire and 24 to the violent lyrics of the rap duo Insane Clown Posse to the storylines of the Lord of the Rings and Harry Potter books readers will find themselves rethinking what evil is and how they came to hold their beliefs The Fixers E.J. Fleming,2015-01-28 Eddie Mannix and Howard Strickling are virtually unknown outside of Hollywood and little remembered even there but as General Manager and Head of Publicity for Metro Goldwyn Mayer Studios they lorded over all the stars in Hollywood's golden age from the 1920s through the 1940s including legends like Garbo Dietrich Gable and Garland When MGM stars found themselves in trouble it was Eddie and Howard who took care of them solved their problems hid their crimes and kept their secrets They were the Fixers At a time when image meant everything and the stars were worth millions to the studios that owned them Mannix and Strickling were the most important men at MGM Through a complex web of contacts in every arena from reporters and doctors to corrupt police and district attorneys they covered up some of the most notorious crimes and scandals in Hollywood history keeping stars out of jail and more importantly their names out of the papers They handled problems as diverse as the murder of Paul Bern husband of MGM's biggest star Jean Harlow the studio directed drug addictions of Judy Garland the murder of Ted Healy creator of The Three Stooges at the hands of Wallace Beery and arranging for an unmarried Loretta Young to adopt her own child a child fathered by a married Clark Gable Through exhaustive research and interviews with contemporaries this is the never before told story of Eddie Mannix and Howard Strickling The dual biography describes how a mob related New Jersey laborer and the quiet son of a grocer became the most powerful men at the biggest studio in the world Robert Wise Wes D.

Gehring,2012 Born in Winchester Indiana Robert Wise spent much of his youth sitting in darkened movie theaters enthralled by the swashbuckling heroics of screen legend Douglas Fairbanks Sr Through these viewings Wise developed a passion for film a passion he followed for the rest of his life making movies in Hollywood Nationally known film historian Wes D Gehring explores Wise's life from his days in the Hoosier State to the beginning of his movie career at RKO studios working as the editor of Orson Welles's classic movie Citizen Kane Wise is best known for producing and directing two of the most memorable movie musicals in cinema history West Side Story co director Jerome Robbins and The Sound of Music for which he won four Academy Awards two Best Picture and Best Directors Oscars But as Gehring notes other than Howard Hawks Wise was arguably Hollywood's most versatile director of various celebrated genre films Bay View Neighborhood

Historic Resources Survey ,1990 Get Happy Gerald Clarke,2009-11-11 She lived at full throttle on stage screen and in real life with highs that made history and lows that finally brought down the curtain at age forty seven Judy Garland died over thirty years ago but no biography has so completely captured her spirit and demons until now From her tumultuous early years as a child performer to her tragic last days Gerald Clarke reveals the authentic Judy in a biography rich in new detail and unprecedented revelations Based on hundreds of interviews and drawing on her own unfinished and unpublished autobiography Get Happy presents the real Judy Garland in all her flawed glory With the same skill style and storytelling flair that made his bestselling Capote a landmark literary biography Gerald Clarke sorts through the secrets and the scandals the legends and the lies to create a portrait of Judy Garland as candid as it is compassionate Here are her early years during which her parents sowed the seeds of heartbreak and self destruction that would plague her for decades the golden age of Hollywood brought into sharp focus with cinematic urgency from the hidden private lives of the movie world s biggest stars to the cold eyed businessmen who controlled the machine and a parade of brilliant and gifted men lovers and artists impresarios and crooks who helped her reach so many creative pinnacles yet left her hopeless and alone after each seemingly inevitable fall Here then is Judy Garland in all her magic and despair the woman the star the legend in a riveting saga of tragedy resurrection and genius Ingrid Bergman David Smit,2012-10-12 Smit studies the woman behind the public image as a natural wholesome even saintly person an image carefully crafted by Bergman s first producer David O Selznick Bergman hid behind that image to live her life on her own terms That life included three difficult marriages numerous lovers and a major scandal that stained her reputation but which she survived by creating her own legend Bergman was filled with contradictions she was dependent upon men and chafed under their control she loved her children but constantly left them to perform she longed for romance but walked away from her affairs without looking back she desired to make great films but settled for being an entertainer she hated the scrutiny of the media but learned to charm reporters The author also assesses Bergman s artistry her star qualities and her acting skills She did her best work in Alfred Hitchcock s Notorious Roberto Rossellini s Voyage in Italy and Ingmar Bergman s Autumn Sonata Her life and image were the inspiration for these films in the first place You Can Go Home Again Monica McGoldrick,1997-06-03 Family therapist Monica McGoldrick explains how the use of genograms family trees can bring to light a family s history of estrangement alliance divorce or suicide revealing intergenerational patterns that prove more than coincidental Genograms of famous families such as the Kennedys the Hepburns and the Brontes complement discussions of the influence of birth order sibling rivalry family secrets and couple relationships Photos drawings The Edward G. Robinson Encyclopedia Robert Beck,2015-09-16 Edward G Robinson a 1930s cinema icon had an acting career that spanned more than 60 years After a brush with silent films he rose to true celebrity status in sound feature films and went on to take part in radio and television performances then back to Broadway and on the road in live theatre This work documents Robinson s every known public performance or appearance listing co workers source material background and critical commentary The entries include feature films documentaries short subjects cartoons television and radio productions live theatre presentations narrations pageants and recordings Also included are entries relating to his life and career ranging from his wives to his art collection Victor Fleming Michael Sragow,2013-12-10 This definitive biography chronicles the life and work of the legendary director of Gone With the Wind and The Wizard of Oz Victor Fleming was the most sought after director in Hollywood s golden age renowned for his work across an astounding range of genres from gritty westerns to screwball comedies romances boddy pictures and family entertainment Yet this chameleon like versatility has resulted in his relative obscurity today despite his having directed two of the most iconic movies of all time Fleming is best remembered for Gone

With the Wind and The Wizard of Oz but he directed more than forty films including classics like Red Dust Test Pilot Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde and Captains Courageous Fleming created enduring screen personas for Clark Gable Spencer Tracy and Gary Cooper as well as for Ingrid Bergman Clara Bow and Norma Shearer who were among his many lovers In this definitive biography Michael Sragow restores the director to the pantheon of great American filmmakers correcting a major oversight in Hollywood history It is the dramatic story of a man at the center of the most exciting period in American filmmaking
