Beáta Tóth,2015-10-27 This book explores a hitherto neglected area of theological anthropology the unity of human emotionality and rationality embodied in the biblical concept of the heart While the theological contours of human reason have for long been clearly drawn and presented as the exclusive seat of the image of God affectivity has been relegated to a secondary position With the reintegration of the body into recent philosophical and theological discourses a number of questions have arisen if the image also resides in the body how does this change one s view of the theological significance of human affectivity In what way is our likeness to God realized in the whole of what we are Can one overcome the traditional dissociation between intellect and affectivity by a renewed theory of love In conversation with patristic and medieval authors e g Irenaeus Tertullian Gregory of Nyssa Maximus Aquinas and in dialogue with more recent interlocutors Pascal Ricoeur Marion Milbank John Paul II this work pursues a novel theological vision of the essential unity of our humanity

Theologian of the Trinity Rik Van Nieuwenhove, 2003 Jan van Ruusbroec 1293 1381 a Flemish mystical theologian was one of the most original Trinitarian thinkers in the medieval West Yet his works written in Middle Dutch have remained relatively unknown In this book Rik Van Nieuwenhove presents the first major study in English of Ruusbroec s thought Van Nieuwenhove explores in detail Ruusbroec s theology of the Trinity his anthropology Christology and his understanding of union with God Van Nieuwenhove s study reveals that Ruusbroec while incorporating aspects of the rich theological and spiritual tradition that preceded him wrote at the beginning of a modern age in which mystical theology changed radically in nature Ruusbroec claimed that the divine Persons are subject to an eternal dynamic of procession or out going from the Father on the one hand and returning to the shared divine essence on the other The human person is called to participate in this continuous ebbing and flowing by leading a life that combines contemplation and charitable activity Ruusbroec argued that mysticism should be interpreted in terms of a transformation of the human person rather than in terms of an immediate experience of God Jan van Ruusbroec Mystical Theologian of the Trinity is an innovative original study of one of late medieval theology s undiscovered treasures Written in clear accessible language this new interpretation of Ruusbroec s theology will appeal to all those interested in mysticism medieval theology and the doctrine of the Trinity Light ,1927 The Works of Louis de Blois, Commonly Called Ludovicus Blossius: A book of spiritual instruction (Institutio spiritualis) Louis de Blois, 1925 The Moving Picture World ,1909
