Sir John Vanbrugh and Landscape Architecture in Baroque England, 1690-1730 Christopher Ridgway, Robert Williams, 2000 Including the fruits of new research this book provides a reassessment of Vanbrugh s place in landscape architectural history that will necessitate a rethinking of Baroque landscape design It is for academics and students and with its illustrations and insights into many of England's most famous sites will also appeal to the numerous visitors to Vanbrugh's most famous creations BOOK JACKET Sir John Vanbrugh Vaughan Hart, 2008 In explaining why Vanbrugh s buildings look the way they do Hart allows his novel architectural forms to be understood for the first time as expressions of the visual and psychological theories of his friend and fellow Whig Joseph Addison BOOK JACKET English Homes: Period IV, v. 2: The work of Sir John Vanbrugh and his school, 1699-1736. 1928 Henry Avray Tipping, 1928 'Where Nature Borrows Dress from Vanbrook's Art' Caroline Dalton, 2010 Nineteenth Century and After ,1911 Dictionary Of British And Irish Botantists And Horticulturalists Including plant collectors, flower painters and garden designers Ray Desmond, 2002-09-11 An exhaustive treatment of all British and Irish botanists through 1976 Sculpture and the Garden Patrick Eyres, 2017-07-05 Although the integration of sculpture in gardens is part of a long tradition dating back at least to antiquity the sculptures themselves are often overlooked both in the history of art and in the history of the garden This collection of essays considers the changing relationship between sculpture and gardens over the last three centuries focusing on four British archetypes the Georgian landscape garden the Victorian urban park the outdoor spaces of twentieth century modernism and the late twentieth century sculpture park Through a series of case studies exploring the contemporaneous audiences of gardens the book uncovers the social political and gendered messages revealed by sculpture s placement and suggests that the garden can itself be read as a sculptural landscape The Nineteenth Century and After ,1911 Man in the Landscape Paul Shepard, 2010-07-01 A pioneering exploration of the roots of our attitudes toward nature Paul Shepard s most seminal work is as challenging and provocative today as when it first appeared in 1967 Man in the Landscape was among the first books of a new genre that has elucidated the ideas beliefs and images that lie behind our modern destruction and conservation of the natural world Departing from the traditional study of land use as a history of technology this book explores the emergence of modern attitudes in literature art and architecture their evolutionary past and their taproot in European and Mediterranean cultures With humor and wit Shepard considers the influence of Christianity on ideas of nature the absence of an ethic of nature in modern philosophy and the obsessive themes of dominance and control as elements of the modern mind In his discussions of the exploration of the American West the establishment of the first national parks and the reactions of pioneers to their totally new habitat he identifies the transport of traditional imagery into new places as a sort of cultural baggage The Builder ,1856 British and Irish Paintings in Public Collections Christopher Wright, Catherine May Gordon, 2006-01-01 This book sets a new standard as a work of reference It covers British and Irish art in public collections from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the end of the nineteenth and it encompasses nearly 9 000 painters and 90 000 paintings in more than 1 700 separate collections. The book includes as well pictures that are now lost some as a consequence of the Second World War and others because of de accessioning mostly from 1950 to about 1975 when Victorian art was out of fashion By listing many tens of thousands of previously unpublished works including around 13 000 which do not yet have any form of attribution this book becomes a unique and indispensable work of reference one that will transform the study of British and Irish painting The North American Review .1844 The North American Review Jared Sparks, Henry Cabot Lodge, Edward Everett, James Russell Lowell, 1844 Vols 277 230 no 2 include Stuff and Critical and miscellaneous essays of sir Walter Scott, collected by himself nonsense v 5 6 no 8 Jan 1929 Aug 1930 Gardens of Court and Country David Jacques, 2017-01-01 Gardens of Court and Country provides Walter Scott, 1841 the first comprehensive overview of the development of the English formal garden from 1630 to 1730 Often overshadowed by the English landscape garden that became fashionable later in the 18th century English formal gardens of the 17th century displayed important design innovations that reflected a broad rethinking of how gardens functioned within society With insights into how the Protestant nobility planned and used their formal gardens the domestication of the lawn and the transformation of gardens into large rustic parks David Jacques explores the ways forecourts flower gardens bowling greens cascades and more were created and reimagined over time This handsome volume includes 300 illustrations including plans engravings and paintings that bring lost and forgotten gardens back to life The Miscellaneous Prose Works of Sir Walter Scott: Biographical memoirs of eminent novelists Walter Scott, 1838 Place-making for the Imagination: Horace Walpole and Strawberry Hill Marion Harney, 2016-04-08 Drawing together landscape architecture and literature Strawberry Hill the celebrated eighteenth century Gothic villa and garden beside the River Thames is an autobiographical site where we can read the story of its creator Horace Walpole This man of taste created private resonances pleasure and entertainment a collusion of the historic the visual and the sensory Above all it expresses the inseparable integration of house and setting and of the architecture with the collection all specific to one individual a unity that is relevant today to all architects landscape designers and garden and country house enthusiasts Avoiding the straightforward architectural description of previous texts this beautifully illustrated book reveals the Gothic villa and associated landscape to be inspired by theories that stimulate The Pleasures of the Imagination articulated in the series of essays by Joseph Addison 1672 1719 published in the Spectator 1712 Linked to this argument it proposes that the concepts behind the designs for Strawberry Hill are not based around architectural precedent but around eighteenth century aesthetics theories antiquarianism and matters of Taste Using architectural quotations from Gothic tombs Walpole expresses the mythical idea that it was based on monastic foundations with visual links to significant historical figures and events in English history The book explains for the first time the reasons for its creation which have never been adequately explored or fully understood in previous publications. The book develops an argument that Walpole was the first to define theories on Gothic architecture in his Anecdotes of Painting 1762 71 Similarly innovative The History of the Modern Taste in Gardening 1780 is one of the first to attempt a history and theory of gardening The research uniquely evaluates how these theories found expression at Strawberry Hill This reassessment of the villa and its associated l Bryan's Dictionary of Painters and Engravers Michael Bryan,1904 People, Land and Time Brian Roberts, Peter Atkins, Ian Simmons, 2014-05-12 This major new text provides an introduction to the interaction of culture and society with the landscape and environment It offers a broad based view of this theme by drawing upon the varied traditions of landscape interpretation from the traditional cultural geography of scholars such as Carl Sauer to the new cultural geography which has emerged in the 1990s The book comprises three major interwoven strands First fundamental factors such as environmental change and population pressure are addressed in order to sketch the contextual variables of landscapes production Second the evolution of the humanised landscape is discussed in terms of processes such as clearing wood the impact of agriculture the creation of urban industrial complexes and is also treated in historical periods such as the pre industrial the modern and the post modern From this we can see the cultural and economic signatures of human societies at different times and places Finally examples of landscape types are selected in order to illustrate the ways in which landscape both represents and participates in social change The authors use a wide range of source material ranging from place names and pollen diagrams to literature and heritage monuments Superbly illustrated throughout it is essential reading for first year undergraduates studying historical geography human geography cultural geography or landscape The grotesque Frances K.
