Six Screenplays By Robert Riskin:

Six Screenplays Robert Riskin, 1997 Screenwriter Robert Riskin 1897 1955 was a towering figure even among the giants of Hollywood's Golden Age. Known for his unique blend of humor and romance, wisecracking and idealism, Riskin teamed with director Frank Capra to produce some of his most memorable films. Pat McGilligan has collected six of the best Riskin scripts: Platinum Blonde 1931, American Madness 1932, It Happened One Night 1934, Mr Deeds Goes to Town 1936, Lost Horizon 1937, and Meet John Doe 1941. All of them were directed by Capra, and although Capra's work has been amply chronicled and celebrated, Riskin's share in the collaboration has been overlooked since his death. McGilligan provides the backstory for the forgotten half of the team: indispensable counterpoint to the director's self-mythologizing autobiography and incidentally the missing link in any study of Capra's career. Riskin's own career, although interrupted by patriotic duty and cut short by personal tragedy, produced as consistent, entertaining, thoughtful, and enduring a body of work as any Hollywood writer's. Those who know and love these vintage films will treasure these scripts. McGilligan's introduction offers new information and insights for fans, scholars, and general readers.

Commons BY NC ND open access license Beckett and nothing invites its readership to understand the complex ways in which the Beckett canon both suggests and resists turning nothing into something by looking at specific sometimes almost invisible ways in which little nothings pervade the Beckett canon The volume has two main functions on the one hand it looks at nothing not only as a content but also a set of rhetorical strategies to reconsider afresh classic Beckett problems such as Irishness silence value marginality politics and the relationships between modernism and postmodernism and absence and presence On the other it focuses on nothing in order to assess how the Beckett oeuvre can help us rethink contemporary preoccupations with materialism neurology sculpture music and television The volume is a scholarly intervention in the fields of Beckett studies which offers its chapters as case studies to use in the classroom It will prove of interest to advanced students and scholars in English French Comparative Literature Drama Visual Studies Philosophy Music Cinema and TV studies
