Handbook of Social Movements Across Disciplines Bert Klandermans, Conny Roggeband, 2009-12-18 This book aims to revisit the interdisciplinary roots of social movement studies Each discipline raises its own questions and approaches the subject from a different angle or perspective The chapters of this handbook are written by internationally renowned scholars representing the various disciplines involved They each review the approach their sector has developed and discuss their disciplines contributions and insights to the knowledge of social movements Furthermore each chapter addresses the unanswered questions and discusses the overlaps with other fields as well as reviewing the interdisciplinary advances so far

Rethinking Social Movements Jeff Goodwin, James M. Jasper, 2003-10-07 This landmark volume brings together some of the titans of social movement theory in a grand reassessment of its status For some time the field has been divided between a dominant structural approach and a cultural or constructivist tradition The gaps and misunderstandings between the two sides as well as the efforts to bridge them closely parallel those in the discipline of sociology at large This book aims to further the dialogue between these two distinct approaches to social movements and to show the broader implications for sociology as a whole as it struggles with issues including culture emotion and agency

The Future of Social Movement Research Jacqueliën van Stekelenburg, Conny Roggeband, Bert Klandermans, 2013-07-01 Are the dynamics of contention changing This is the question confronted by the contributors of this volume among the most influential scholars in the field of social movements The answers arriving at a time of extraordinary worldwide turmoil not only provide a wide ranging and varied understanding of how social movements arise and persist but also engender unanswered questions pointing to new theoretical strands and fields of research The Future of Social Movement Research asks How are the dynamics of contention shaped by globalization By societies that are becoming increasingly more individualized and diverse By the spread of new communication technologies such as social media cell phones and the Internet Why do some movements survive while others dissipate Do local and global networks differ in nature The authors essays explore such questions with reference to changes in three domains of contention the demand of protest changes in grievances and identities the supply of protest changes in organizations and networks and how these changes affect the dynamics of mobilization In doing so they theorize and make empirically insightful how globalization individualization and virtualization create new grievances new venues for action new action forms and new structures of contention The resulting work brought together through engaging discussions and debates between the contributors is interdisciplinary and unusually broad in scope constituting the most comprehensive overview of the dynamics of social movements available today Contributors Marije Boekkooi VU U Amsterdam Pang Ching Bobby Chen U of California Merced Donatella della Porta European U Institute Mario Diani U of Trento Italy Jan Willem Duyvendak U of Amsterdam Myra Marx Ferree U of Wisconsin Madison Beth Garrity Gardner Ashley Gromis Swen Hutter U of Munich Ruud Koopmans WZB Berlin Hanspeter Kriesi U of Zurich Nonna Mayer National Centre for European Studies
