Nelson, 2005      Robert Browning: Selected Poems John Woolford, Daniel Karlin, Joseph Phelan, 2013-11-19 Robert Browning 1812 1889 was one of the defining figures of the Victorian age Famous in his lifetime for his elopement and marriage to Elizabeth Barratt his critical reputation grew steadily in the years following her early death Browning's mastery of dramatic verse was evident throughout his career from such chillingly unforgettable monologues as My Last Duchess and Porphyria to the mature work included in his collection Dramatis Personae This selection chosen by leading scholars reveals the innovation complexity and profound psychological insight that have ensured Browning's enduring reputation and his continuing appeal to readers today Browning Selected Poems results from a completely fresh appraisal of the canon text and context of the writer's work The poems are presented in the order of their composition and in the text in which they were first published giving a unique insight into the development of Browning's art An introduction and chronology offer useful background material whilst annotations and headnotes provide details of composition publication sources and contemporary reception This authoritative yet accessible selection should become the first point of reference for scholar student and general reader alike      The Poems of Browning: Volume Two John Woolford, Daniel Karlin, 2014-06-11 The Poems of Browning is the first collected edition to be based on the earliest printed texts and to present these texts in order of their composition Together volumes I and II provide an authoritative and accessible tribute to this great poet Volume II 1841 1846 includes Pippa Passes and many of the poems

for which Browning is best known and loved My Last Duchess The Pied Piper of Hamelin Home Thoughts from Abroad and The Lost Reader      Poems for the Millennium, Volume Two Jerome Rothenberg, Pierre Joris, Jeffrey Cane Robinson, University of California Press, 1995 Global anthology of twentieth century poetry Back cover      John Ashbery and Anglo-American Exchange Oli Hazzard, 2018-06-13 In 1966 John Ashbery wrote The English language is constantly trying to stave off invasion by the American language it lives in a state of alert which is reflected to some degree in English poetry This book shows how the work of a major post war American poet has been centrally concerned with questions of national identity and intercultural poetic exchange by reading crucial episodes in Ashbery's oeuvre in the context of an other tradition of modern English poets he himself has defined This line runs from the editor of Ashbery's recent Collected Poems Mark Ford through Lee Harwood in the late 1960s F T Prince in the 1950s to chronologically the first and therefore most important influence on his own work W H Auden Through detailed close readings of the poetry of Ashbery and these English poets original interviews and extensive archival research a new account of Ashbery's aesthetic and a significant re mapping of post war English poetry is presented The biographical slant of the book is highly significant as it reads these writers poetry and correspondence together for the first time suggesting how major poetic innovations arose from specific social contexts from the particulars of relations between poets and also from a broader climate of Anglo American exchange as registered by each poet The book's presentation of the process of poetic influence is attentive to actual exchanges between contemporaries as evidenced in correspondence as opposed to speculative relationships with dominant figures and as such represents a departure from many other studies of Ashbery's work Key themes include Englishness as a national imaginary the concept of the minor reciprocal influence and the poetry of coteries The result is that both Ashbery himself and the landscape of post war English poetry are presented in significantly new lights      Directory of Poetry Publishers Len Fulton, 2006-09
