Barnett, 2020-10-14 Maritime historian and researcher James K Barnett transcribed two extraordinary little known journals from Captain James Cook's third exploratory voyage They offer remarkable eyewitness accounts at the time of initial European contact the first reasonably accurate maps of North America's west coast the earliest comprehensive report from the Bering Sea ice pack and the dramatic story of Cook's death at Kealahakua Bay Astonishing for accounts of landings along Hawai'i Vancouver Island and Alaska both chronicles languished in Australian archives for over a century Barnett adds context and commentary to complete the story Commissioned by the British Admiralty Cook set sail in July 1776 to confirm the outline of North America's Pacific coastline and search for the elusive Northwest Passage The expedition's sailing ships the Resolution and the Discovery traveled to the South Seas then chanced upon the Hawaiian Islands before reaching the Oregon coastline and the Arctic Cook chose to winter in the Hawaiian archipelago where he died in a skirmish His crews made a second attempt to find the coveted route then returned to England after more than four years at sea James Burney was first lieutenant on the Discovery Active in shore parties and chart preparation he saw Cook's death from the ship's deck. One of the few accounts from the consort vessel, his writing provides new details and important thoughtful impressions of North and South Pacific people and places. Working under the notorious William Bligh, Henry Roberts was Master's Mate on the Resolution performing essential hydrographic and cartographic tasks. He was a few feet away when Cook was killed. His well-illustrated logbook includes coordinates, tables of routes and records of weather at sea but also lively accounts of shore excursions. Illustrations include maps and drawings as well as images by the expedition's official artist John Webber.

Empire Maker Kenneth N. Owens, 2015-07-01 A native of northern Russia, Alexander Baranov was a middle-aged merchant trader with no prior experience in the fur trade when in 1790 he arrived in North America to assume command over Russia's highly profitable sea otter business. With the title of chief manager, he strengthened his leadership role after the formation of the Russian American Company in 1799. An adventuresome, dynamic and charismatic leader, he proved to be something of a commercial genius in Alaska, making huge profits for company partners and shareholders in Irkutsk and St. Petersburg while receiving scandalously little support from the homeland. Baranov receives long overdue attention in Kenneth Owens's Empire Maker, the first scholarly biography of Russian America's virtual imperial viceroy. His eventful life included shipwrecks, battles with Native forces, clashes with rival traders and Russian Orthodox missionaries, and an enduring marriage to a Kodiak Alutiiq woman with whom he had two children. In the process, the book reveals maritime Alaska and northern California during the Baranov era as fascinating cultural borderlands where Russian, English, Spanish and New England Yankee traders and indigenous peoples formed complex commercial, political and domestic relationships that continue to influence these regions today.

The Heathen School John Demos, 2014 Longlisted for the 2014 National Book Award The astonishing story of a unique missionary project and the America it embodied from award-winning historian John Demos. Near the start of the nineteenth century, as the newly established United States looked outward toward the wider world, a group of eminent Protestant ministers formed a grand scheme for gathering the rest of mankind into the redemptive fold of Christianity and civilization. Its core element was a special school for heathen youth drawn from all parts of the earth, including the Pacific Islands, China, India and increasingly the native nations of North America. If all went well, graduates would return to join similar projects in their respective homelands. For some years, the school prospered; indeed, it became quite famous. However, when two Cherokee students courted and married local women, public resolve and fundamental ideals were put to a severe test. The Heathen School follows the progress and the demise of this first true melting pot through the lives of individual students among them Henry Obookiah, a young Hawaiian who ran away from home and worked as a seaman in the China Trade before ending up in New England; John Ridge, son of a powerful Cherokee chief and subsequently a leader in the process of Indian removal; and Elias Boudinot, editor of the first newspaper published by and for Native Americans. From its birth as a beacon of hope for universal salvation, the heathen school descends into bitter controversy as American racial attitudes harden and intensify. Instead of encouraging reconciliation the school exposes the limits of tolerance and sets off a chain of events that will culminate tragically in the Trail of Tears In The Heathen School John Demos marshals his deep empathy and feel for the textures of history to tell a moving story of families and communities and to probe the very roots of American identity Encounters with the People Dennis Baird,Diane Mallickan,William R. Swagerty,2021-10-04 Organized both chronologically and thematically Encounters with the People is an edited annotated compilation of unique primary sources related to Nez Perce history Native American oral histories diary excerpts military reports maps and more Generous elders shared their collective memory of carefully guarded stories passed down through multiple generations One described the level of attentiveness required to preserve their oral history as so still to listen that you could hear a bird take a drink of water on the other side of the mountain The work begins with early Nimiipuu Euro American contact and extends to the period immediately after the Treaty of 1855 held at Walla Walla The editors scoured archives federal document repositories and state and local historical museums in search of little known documents related to regional cultural and environmental history Most of the selected material is published for the first time or is found only in obscure sources Complete documents are included wherever possible and any excisions carefully noted Part of the Voices from Nez Perce Country series Encounters with the People includes a thorough up to date annotated bibliography Those interested in the Nez Perce Native American Studies Lewis and Clark early missionary work and Inland Northwest settlement will find it an essential reference work Recipient of a 2016 CHOICE Academic Book of the Year the 2016 Western History Association Dwight L Smith Award and a 2015 Idaho Book Award Honorable Mention from the Idaho Library Association Constructing Colonial Discourse Noel Elizabeth Currie,2005 While Captain James Cook s South Pacific voyages have been extensively studied much less attention has been paid to his representation of the Pacific Northwest In Constructing Colonial Discourse N E Currie focuses on the month Cook spent at Nootka Sound on the west coast of Vancouver Island in 1778 during his third Pacific voyage Comparing the official 1784 edition of that voyage with his Cook s journal account made available in the scholarly edition prepared by New Zealand scholar J C Beaglehole Currie demonstrates that the representation of North America s northwest coast in the late eighteenth century was shaped as much by the publication process as by British notions of landscape natural history cannibalism and history in the new world Most recent scholarship critiques imperialist representations of the non European world while taking these published accounts at face value Constructing Colonial Discourse combines close textual analysis with the insights of postcolonial theory to critique the discursive and rhetorical strategies by which the official account of the third voyage transformed Cook into an imperial hero The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies Patt Leonard,Rebecca Routh,2020-02-27 This bibliography first published in 1957 provides citations to North American academic literature on Europe Central Europe the Balkans the Baltic States and the former Soviet Union Organised by discipline it covers the arts humanities social sciences life sciences and technology A Voyage to the North West Side of America Robert Galois,2011-11-01 James Colnett a veteran of James Cook's second voyage to North America was an early participant in the maritime sea otter trade. Between 1786 and 1789 his two vessel expedition traversed the Northwest Coast from Prince William Sound to Vancouver Island and wintered on the Hawaiian Islands. Along the way he and his crew had some remarkable encounters with Native peoples of the Northwest Coast and the Hawaiian Islands; they were the first Europeans to encounter the Tsimshian and the southern Heiltsuk peoples as well as the first to land on the southern Queen Charlotte Islands. Colnett's journal of this expedition is published here for the first time. Editor Robert Galois provides extensive annotations along with an introductory essay addressing the geopolitical context of the voyage and the intellectual background that shaped the writing of the journal. Galois supplements Colnett's writings with extracts from a second journal also previously unpublished by Andrew Bracey Taylor, third mate on one of the ships under Colnett's command. Also included are illustrations from Colnett's journals and a variety of maps both contemporary and historical. This fascinating and informative account offers a new understanding of the early European presence in the Northwest and of Native responses to these developments. It will interest historians, geographers, and ethnographers of the Northwest Coast and beyond.

The Man Who Ate His Boots Anthony Brandt, 2011-03-22 After the triumphant end of the Napoleonic Wars in 1815 the British took it upon themselves to complete something they had been trying to do since the sixteenth century: find the fabled Northwest Passage. For the next thirty-five years the British Admiralty sent out expedition after expedition to probe the ice-bound waters of the Canadian Arctic in search of a route, and then after 1845 to find Sir John Franklin, the Royal Navy hero who led the last of these Admiralty expeditions. Enthralling and often harrowing, The Man Who Ate His Boots captures the glory and the folly of this ultimately tragic enterprise.
