Lee's foraged dishes Isabella Tree and Hugh Fearnley Whittingstall are paired on the theme of rewilding Rachel de Thamples fermented recipes respond to Dr Alanna Collen's discussion of microbes Simon Rogan's mushroom recipes are inspired by Merlin Sheldrake's passion for fungi and following Charlie Morley's interview on lucid dreaming are Skye Gyngell's recipes all designed to enable good sleep

Form and Soul Taachal, 2021-07-11 FORM AND SOUL is a philosophical work that announces a great break with the past the reality of which is being felt by all of us who are the esteemed netizens of the emerging digital age civilization Leaving behind the machine age conceptions of ideas societies and civilizations this work tries to realize the ethos of a new civilization where artificial intelligence information technology and quantum mechanics have turned the ideas of human relations and collective existence upside down This new world of cyber campaigns and collective intelligence is on the verge of leaving behind the odds of cultural nationalism and liberal democracy to reach a new ideological platform where mankind can base its material and moral existence This work can be considered as a great forward movement following Francis Fukuyama's The End of History and the Last Man and Samuel Huntington's The Clash of Civilizations and the Remaking of World Order to interpret the world where relations between various levels of human organizations are determined by a matrix of dynamic social flows Defining this newly emerging global social matrix is the main theme of this work

Sword and Soul, Body and Soul Robert S. Cox, 2003-09-29 A product of the spiritual hothouse of the Second Great Awakening Spiritualism became the fastest growing religion in the nation during the 1850s and one of the principal responses to the widespread perception that American society was descending into atomistic particularity In Body and Soul Robert Cox shows how Spiritualism sought to transform sympathy into social practice arguing that each individual living and dead was poised within a nexus of affect and through the active propagation of these sympathetic bonds a new and coherent society would emerge Phenomena such as spontaneous somnambulism and sympathetic communion with the dead whether through sance or spirit photography were ways of transcending the barriers dissecting the American body politic including the ultimate barrier death Drawing equally upon social occult and physiological registers Spiritualism created a unique social physiology in which mind was integrated into body and body into society leading Spiritualists into earthly social reforms such as women's rights and anti slavery From the beginning however Spiritualist political and social expression was far more diverse than has previously been recognized encompassing distinctive proslavery and antiegalitarian strains and in the wake of racial and political adjustments following the Civil War the movement began to fracture Cox traces the eventual dissolution of Spiritualism through the contradictions of its various regional and racial factions and through their increasingly circumscribed responses to a changing world In the end he concludes the history of Spiritualism was written in the limits of sympathy and not its limitless potential

Heart and Soul Chris Mace, 2003-09-02 Chef Kylie Kwong branches out from her Chinese culinary heritage to explore the cuisines of Europe the Mediterranean and North Africa With the emphasis on intensity of flavour and using the finest produce she creates dishes with inspired combinations of Western ingredients and Eastern techniques Gardens Robert Pogue Harrison, 2010-10 Humans have long turned to gardens both real and imaginary for sanctuary from the frenzy and tumult that surrounds them Those gardens may be as far away from everyday reality as Gilgamesh's garden of the gods or as near as our own backyard but in their very conception and the marks they bear of human care and cultivation gardens stand as restorative nourishing necessary havens With Gardens Robert Pogue Harrison graces readers with a thoughtful wide ranging examination of the many ways gardens evoke the human condition Moving from the gardens of ancient philosophers to the gardens of homeless people in contemporary New York he shows how again and again the garden has served as a check against the destruction and losses of history The ancients explains Harrison viewed gardens as both a model and a location for the laborious self cultivation and self improvement that are essential to serenity and enlightenment an association that has continued throughout the ages The Bible and Qur'an Plato's Academy and Epicurus's Garden School Zen rock and Islamic carpet gardens Boccaccio Rihaku Capek Cao Xueqin Italo Calvino Ariosto Michel Tournier and Hannah Arendt all come into play as this work explores the ways in which the concept and reality of the garden has informed human thinking about mortality order and power Alive with the echoes and arguments of Western thought Gardens is a fitting continuation of the intellectual journeys of Harrison's earlier classics Forests and The Dominion of the Dead Voltaire famously urged us to cultivate our gardens with this compelling volume Robert Pogue Harrison reminds us of the nature of that responsibility and its enduring importance to humanity Living Earth Devotional Clea Danaan, 2013 Living earth devotional offers 365 earth friendly activities for deepening your physical and spiritual connection to nature ThirdWay, 2006-12 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture ThirdWay, 2006-11 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture Dreams of the Soul Miran Horvat, 2013-07-25 What could be better than opening a beautiful book on a long cold winter evening and allowing oneself to be comfortably transported on the wings of imagination across different areas of the world and to experience its beauties and its dark sides or for instance take a walk through a winter forest heavily laden with soft snow which is joyously sparkling under the sunrays that are playfully penetrating the spruce tree branches and follow a walker explorer and his friend Brickly the dog The two of them are exploring the near and far surroundings of their home situated in the high mountain world The explorer's grandpa lives in that home in his younger years he was a diplomat who was sent on important missions throughout the world in order to help solve difficult global problems Even now in his old age he is trying to help the suffering humanity He is therefore endowed with rich life experience and broad knowledge which greatly attracts the young explorer Thus an interesting conversation develops between them which takes place during the carefree time of winter holidays Integrity, Courage and Soul Alvin W. Holst, 2012-08 Aristotle is quoted as saying A man could not claim to know a subject unless he was capable of transmitting his knowledge to others and he regarded teaching as the proper manifestation of knowledge A person is a reflection of his or her learning experiences with others since birth Many feel trapped in a world where they have no control but feel others control them Feeling trapped and not in control is at the base of all negative life experiences that is continually reinforced in every new generation often in a more severe form Recognition and acceptance of this negative acculturation is the first step of rebuilding one s life to live positively and successfully in a negative world A life where others apply negative control tactics in rearing and educating others makes things worse over time Positive life skills can be learned where helping others to be free of another s control and in charge of their own destiny can be learned at any age Your life will change when you can imagine a world where bullying is replaced by helping others to be independent as you have become Echoes of a Soul Dilindile William Maphosa,2011-10-25 Echoes of a soul is a collection of poems that describe life in its variety of colours and textures From the changing of the seasons to the evolution of other life forms as seen in the socio political culture and the fallen human condition all woven together in rich metaphor of plants gardens fruit etc While the poems evoke an in expressible sense of longing for a better state of affairs as currently experienced they nevertheless acknowledge some present good that may still be existent in the imperfect status quo and thus invoke hope for a better future In that sense the author is not hopeless about the future even as he is not satisfied with the present Recovering the Prairie Robert F. Sayre,1999 Americans in ever increasing numbers are rediscovering the prairie This vast inland sea of grasses buried for a hundred years beneath farms cities and suburbs has endured not only in physical remnants but also in the memories of its settlers and their descendants the books of prairie authors and the work of prairie artists As restoration ecologists and amateur prairie preservationists recover the land this book recovers the prairie of the American imagination past present and future Beautifully illustrated with the work of sixteen contemporary prairie artists Recovering the Prairie celebrates and examines the perspectives of artists writers native peoples ecologists and landscape architects Willa Cather Aldo Leopold Jens Jensen Alexander Gardner and many others who recognized the unique beauty of the prairie And this volume brings together people from many fields to consider the connections between aesthetics and economics landscape and culture politics and ethics as illustrated by the prairie in American civilization Contributors and artists include Robert Adams Lee Allen Roger Brown James D Butler Pauline Drobney Fred Easker Terry Evans Ed Folsom Lance M Foster Harold L Gregor Robert E Grese Walter Hatke Harold D Holoun Stan Hurd Gary Irving Wes Jackson Keith Jacobshagen Joni L Kinsey Stuart Klipper Aldo Leopold Tom Lutz Curt Meine Genie H Patrick David Plowden Rebecca Roberts Robert F Sayre Jane E Simonson Shelton Stromquist James R Winn Feelings from My Heart and Soul Andrea Lambertson,
