Sojourner Truth A Self Made Woman:

Sojourner Truth Elizabeth Shafer, 1974 I felt as if the power of a nation was within me Sojourner Truth: A Life, A Symbol Nell Irvin Painter, 1997-10-17 A triumph of scholarly maturity imagination and narrative art Arnold Rampersad Sojourner Truth formerly enslaved person and unforgettable abolitionist of the mid nineteenth century a figure of imposing physique a riveting preacher and spellbinding singer who dazzled listeners with her wit and originality Straight talking and unsentimental Truth became an early national symbol for strong Black women indeed for all strong women In this modern classic of scholarship and sympathetic understanding eminent historian Nell Irvin Painter goes beyond the myths words and photographs to uncover the life of a complex woman who was born into slavery and died a legend Sojourner Truth Geoffrey Michael Horn, 2009-08 Examines the life of the woman born into slavery who became a well known abolitionist and crusader for the rights of African Americans in the United States Sojourner Truth Victoria Ortiz, 1986-04-01 A brief biography of the northern slave who after gaining her freedom became the first black woman to give antislavery lectures in the United States Sojourner Truth as Orator Suzanne P. Fitch, Roseann Mandziuk, 1997-09-23 This work is an in depth analysis of the full breadth of Sojourner Truth s public discourse that places it in its proper historical context and explores the use of humor and narratives as primary rhetorical strategies used by this illiterate ex slave to create a powerful public persona The book provides a comprehensive survey of the life of Sojourner Truth and includes a unique and authoritative compilation of primary rhetorical documents such as speeches songs and public letters This is the only major work to date that analyzes the breadth of Sojourner Truth s public discourse The volume includes a complete and authoritative compilation of her extant rhetoric including several versions of the same speech reports of her speaking appearances public letters published by Truth in newspapers and songs written and performed by her as part of her public lectures Three chapters address the rhetorical dimensions of Truth s public persona First an historical survey contextualizes her life and speaking from slave to reformer placing into perspective the variety of experiences that comprised her background Second an analysis of Truth s use of humor focuses upon how she employed the strategies of superiority and incongruity in her refutation of opponents and the establishment of her own credibility Third a critique of Truth s use of narratives in her discourse reveals how both her speeches and songs rely upon three fundamental stories for their persuasive impact her slave life and religious conversion her use of the black jeremiad to portray race differences and her tales of woman s strength and moral conviction The volume concludes with a consideration of Truth s status as a folk legend and how she wished to be remembered Narrative of Sojourner Truth Sojourner Truth, 1998-11-01 Narrative of Sojourner Truth is one of the most important documents of slavery ever written as well as being a partial autobiography of the woman who became a pioneer in the struggles for racial and sexual equality With an eloquence that resonates more than a century after its original publication in 1850 the narrative bears witness to Sojourner Truth s thirty years of bondage in upstate New York and to the mystical revelations that turned her into a passionate and indefatigable abolitionist In this new edition which has been edited and extensively annotated by the distinguished scholar and biographer of Sojourner Truth Margaret Washington Truth's testimony takes on added dimensions as a lens into the little known world of northern slavery as a chronicle of spiritual conversion and as an inspiring account of a black woman striving for personal and political empowerment

Children's Biographies of African American Women Sara C. VanderHaagen, 2018-11-15 A study of how rhetoric has shaped the life stories of African American role models in children's literature In Children's Biographies of African American Women Rhetoric Public Memory and Agency Sara C VanderHaagen examines how these biographies encourage young readers to think about themselves as agents in a public world Specifically VanderHaagen illustrates how these works use traditional means to serve progressive ends and thereby examines the rhetorical power of biography in shaping identity and promoting public action Drawing on scholarship in rhetoric memory studies and children's literature VanderHaagen presents rhetorical analyses of biographies of three African American women poet Phillis Wheatley activist Sojourner Truth and educator turned politician Shirley Chisholm published in the United States during the twentieth and twenty first centuries VanderHaagen begins by analyzing how biographical sketches in books for black children published during the 1920s represent Wheatley and Truth The study then shifts to books published between 1949 and 2015 VanderHaagen uses a concept adapted from philosopher Paul Ricoeur the idea of the agential spiral to chart the ways that biographies have used rhetoric to shape the life stories of Wheatley Truth and Chisholm By bringing a critical rhetorical perspective to the study of biographies for children this book advances the understanding of how lives of the past are used persuasively to shape identity and encourage action in the contemporary public world VanderHaagen contributes to the study of rhetoric and African American children's literature and refocuses the field of memory studies on children's biographies a significant but often overlooked genre through which public memories first take shape
