Slavery Past, Present and Future Catherine Armstrong, Jaya Priyardarshini, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 Spanning swaths of time and space slavery as a phenomenon has known intersections of class gender race caste etc The historical experiences of slaves is more or less lacking in the pedagogic or intellectual knowledge but its legacy in modern times is felt in the marginalisation stigmatisation remorse or shame of the slave descendants Contrary to historical slavery the presence of modern or twenty first century slavery is variously mired in the complex and contested terrains of its definition Today the political and economic context of human conditions globally has muddled the understanding of servitude Its resurgence in newer avatars along with institutional or informal upholders challenges its abolition Hearing the slave voices more than the hegemonic involvement of the abolitionists is required for its

Backwoodsmen as Ecocritical Motif in French Canadian Literature Anne Rehill, 2016-08-30 In New France and early Canada young men who ventured into the forest to hunt and trade with Amerindians coureurs de bois runners of the woods later traveling in big teams of canoes voyageurs were known for their independence Often described as half wild themselves they linked the European and Indian societies eventually helping to form a new culture with elements of both From an ecocritical perspective they represent both negative and positive aspects of the human historical trajectory because in addition to participating in the environmentally abusive fur trade they also symbolize the way forward through intercultural connections and business relationships The four novels analyzed here Joseph Charles Tach's Forestiers et voyageurs 1863 Moeurs et l'gendes canadiennes 1916 Louis H. Mon's Maria Chapdelaine 1916 L. o. Paul Desrosiers Les Engag's du Grand Portage 1938 and Antonine Maillet's Plagie la Charrette 1979 portray the backwoodsmen operating in a collaborative mode within the realistic context of the need to make money They entered folklore through the 19th century literary efforts of Tach and others to construct a distinct French Canadian national identity then in an unstable and continually disrupted process of formation Their entry into literature necessarily brought their Amerindian business and personal partners thus making intercultural connections a foundation of the national identity that Tach and others strove to construct and also mirror As figures in literature they embody changing ideas of the self and of the cultures and ethnicities that they connect both physically and in an abstract sense Because constructions of self identity result in behavior studying this dynamic contributes to ecocritical efforts to better understand human behavior toward both ourselves and our environment The woodsmen and their Amerindian partners occupy the intriguing position of contributing to both damage and greater acceptance of the cultural Other the latter of which holds the promise of collaboration and joint searches for sustainable solutions Thus coureurs de bois and voyageurs far from perfect models can continue to serve as guides today
