Wrestling with Doubt Frank D. Rees, 2001 Rees provides a theological analysis of doubts as a constructive element within the Christian experience of faith He considers three theological frameworks each of which offers an interpretation of doubt and two life story theologies that deal with faith and doubt In the Evening, We'll Dance: A Memoir in Essays on Love & Dementia Anne-Marie Erickson, 2025-08-20

How does a loving committed marriage survive the effects of dementia In her deeply personal and daringly original memoir Anne Marie Erickson lays bare the onset and eventual passing of her husband from dementia Her writing is multidimensional poetic as it weaves together fragments of word origins mythologies and Biblical passages Infused with the author's love and compassion this compelling memoir pierces the mysteries of living and dying Yes it's much about her husband's tragic affliction but it also moves beyond that to where we can gain invaluable lessons on how to love and endure in the face of a debilitating illness Howards End is on the Landing Susan Hill, 2010-08-06

Early one autumn afternoon in pursuit of an elusive book on her shelves Susan Hill encountered dozens of others that she had never read or forgotten she owned or wanted to read for a second time The discovery inspired her to embark on a year long voyage through her books forsaking new purchases in order to get to know her own collection again A book which is left on a shelf for a decade is a dead thing but it is also a chrysalis packed with the potential to burst into new life Wandering through her house that day Hill's eyes were opened to how much of that life was stored in her home neglected for years Howards End is on the Landing charts the journey of one of the nation's most accomplished authors as she revisits the conversations libraries and bookshelves of the past that have informed a lifetime of reading and writing Finding You Elaine Marie Factor, Autobiography Noel Coward, 1986

Memoir of a Temporary Marriage Miriam Valmont, 2016-07-25 Afshin a captivating Iranian graduate student rents a room in Miriam Valmont's home Landlady and tenant share an immediate and fast growing attraction despite the fact that Miriam is twice Afshin's age When Afshin proposes a temporary Islamic marriage Miriam readily agrees driven by desire and curiosity What shocks her though is the role Afshin invites her to play at the end of the marriage so that he as a Muslim can continue to express affection The Bird and the Fish is the story of two people with radically different lives who find a way to honor a passionate love The Covenant: A Reincarnational Memoir Annie Weber, 2013-06-21

A tale of nine love stories spanning 1100 years and stretching from the canyons and mesas of prehistoric North America to the snowy peaks of the Himalayas from the Serengeti plains of Africa to the inner confines of a sultan's harem from the Adirondack lakes of the British colonies to the law courts of Victorian London and finally to the hospital halls of Ohio What weaves these tales together is something stronger than death and lasting longer than time as we know it Beyond the sweeping romance and soul baring emotional intrigue Weber delivers nine well researched historical studies of what it was like to live in those widely varying cultures during vastly different times and what can happen when you continue to open your heart to love Life Itself! Elaine Dundy, 2012-01-05 Author of the celebrated and hilarious THE DUD AVOCADO the classic novel about a young American ingenue in Paris Elaine Dundy was born in New York in the 1930s Her first years were spent in an apartment on Park Avenue until the stock market crash wiped out most of the family's money She went to university in the south where among other studies she worked hard at losing her virginity Deciding the stage was her true home Elaine Dundy headed first to Paris and then to London where she met and married the famous theatre critic Kenneth Tynan Though their union was intoxicating it was far from easy and the successful publication in 1958 of her novel finished off the marriage But it was the opening of a new world of writers for Elaine Dundy including friendships with Tennessee Williams Hemingway and Gore Vidal Extremely funny and extraordinarily honest this wonderfully remembered story of growing up in America is as much a tonic as life itself I'll Tell You When I'm Home Hala Alyan, 2025-06-03 The rich and deeply personal debut memoir by award winning Palestinian American poet and novelist Hala Alyan whose experience of motherhood via surrogacy forces her to reckon with her own past and the legacy of her family's exile and displacement all in the name of a new future After a decade of yearning for parenthood years marked by miscarriage after miscarriage Hala Alyan makes the decision to use a surrogate In this charged time she turns to the archetype of the waiting woman the Scheherazade who tells stories to ensure another dawn to confront her own narratives of motherhood love and inheritance As her baby grows in the body of another woman in another country Hala finds her own life unraveling a husband who wants to leave the cost of past traumas and addictions threatening to resurface the city of her youth Beirut on the brink of crisis She turns to family stories and communal myths of grandmothers mapping their lives through Palestine Kuwait Syria Lebanon of eradicated villages and invading armies of places of refuge that proved only temporary of men that left and women that stayed of the contradictions of her own Midwestern childhood and adolescence in various Arab cities Meanwhile as the baby grows from the size of a poppyseed to a grain of rice then a lime and beyond Hala gathers the stories that are her legacy setting down the ones that confine holding close those that liberate It is emotionally charged painstaking work but now the stakes are higher how to honor ancestors and future generations alike in the midst of displacement How to impart love for those who are no longer here for places one can no longer touch A stunningly lyrical and brutally honest quest for motherhood selfhood and peoplehood I'll Tell You When I'm Home is a powerful story of unraveling and becoming of destruction and redemption and of homelands lost and recreated Finding Heart Horse Claire Hitchon, 2013-12-11 Have you ever wanted something so badly it was all you could think of All you could talk about write about dream about Claire did She wanted a horse Finding Heart Horse is her journey and her search for her Heart Horse It takes her from being the girl most likely to succeed to a life on the streets of Yorkville in the late sixties As an adopted child she had no identity no history and no place where she fit Her years on the streets lead her into many dark places where she began to add more secrets and traumas to her already large collection in the wall of secrets Life changed quickly in those days from peace and love to war and violence She went along for the ride not knowing where it would lead just knowing that she had to find Heart Horse If you know anyone who may be struggling perhaps even yourself Finding Heart Horse can give you hope where you thought there was none We all have different journeys but the essence is the same We all want to be loved to belong and to be happy Everyone at some point has yearned for something so powerful that like a magnet it pulls you into the unknown Even if you weren't really sure what it was for you knew you had to pursue it Life lessons are learned spirituality discovered The reality of opposites is proven With pain comes pleasure with despair comes hope with sadness comes joy and perhaps along the way even your Heart Horse may be found
