The Athenaeum ,1875 Who's who in Literature Mark Meredith,1934 Contains list of Fictitious and pseudonymous names The Marlburian Marlborough coll,1879 The Bet and Other Stories Anton Chekhov,2021-04-10 In The Bet and Other Stories Anton Chekhov masterfully intertwines themes of morality human folly and the complexities of existence through a collection of compelling narratives The title story The Bet serves as a poignant exploration of human nature and the ethical dilemmas faced in the pursuit of wealth and knowledge reflecting Chekhov s trademark minimalism and psychological depth His literary style embodies a blend of realism and subtle irony inviting readers to ponder the profound implications of seemingly simple choices within their social and historical context particularly against the backdrop of late 19th century Russia Anton Chekhov renowned as one of the greatest playwrights and short story writers drew inspiration from his own experiences as a physician and observer of Russian society His keen interest in the human condition combined with a deep understanding of psychological motivation informs every story in this collection Chekhov s ability to capture the nuances of everyday life and the intricacies of personal relationships provides a lens through which readers can explore complex existential questions This anthology is highly recommended for anyone seeking a nuanced perspective on human experiences and moral dilemmas Chekhov s ability to evoke empathy and reflection makes The Bet and Other Stories not only a cornerstone of Russian literature but also a timeless exploration of what it means to be human

Of Books and Botany in Early Modern England Leah Knight,2016-12-05 Contemplating the textual gardens poetic garlands and epigrammatic groves which dot the landscape of early modern English print Leah Knight exposes and analyzes the close configuration of plants and writing in the period She argues that the early modern cultures and cultivation of plants and books depended on each other in historically specific and novel ways that yielded a profusion of linguistic conceptual metaphorical and material intersections Examining both poetic and botanical texts as well as the poetics of botanical texts this study focuses on the two outstanding English botanical writers of the sixteenth century William Turner and John Gerard to suggest the unexpected historical relationship between literature and science in the early modern genre of the herbal In depth readings of their work are situated amid chapters that establish the broader context for the interpenetration of plants and writing in the period s cultural practices in order to illuminate a complex interplay between materials and discourses rarely considered in tandem today
