Some Limericks Collected For The Use:

Some Limericks Norman Douglas, 1964-01-01 Constant Lambert Stephen Lloyd, 2014 To the economist and ballet enthusiast John Maynard Keynes he was potentially the most brilliant man he d ever met to Dame Ninette de Valois he was the greatest ballet conductor and advisor this country has ever had to the composer Denis ApIvor he was the greatest most lovable and most entertaining personality of the musical world whilst to the dance critic Clement Crisp he was quite simply a musician of genius Yet sixty years after his death Constant Lambert is little known today As a composer he is remembered for his jazz inspired The Rio Grande but little more and for a man who devoted the graeter part of his life to the establishment of English ballet his work is largely unrecognized today This book looks not only at his music but at his journalism his talks for the BBC his championing of jazz in particular Duke Ellington and more privately his longstanding affair with Margot Fonteyn Book jacket A Study of Erotic Literature in England W. v. Murat, 2019-09-24 The present work fills a gap as it attempts to offer a history of erotic literature published in the United Kingdom The word Study in the title is perhaps a bit exaggerated as the material is largely taken from the now well known bibliographies by Pisanus Fraxi Henry Spencer Ashbee and quotations from the books themselves The time line is WW II Who was the author He may have been Charles Reginald Dawes 1879 1964 who is supposed to have written but not published a text of this or a similar title His profession or his activities are not known he once called himself a writer but library catalogues credit him only with two publications The Marquis de Sade Paris 1927 and Retif de la Bretonne London 1946 privately printed He may have been a popular writer under pseudonyms though Dawes owned a good erotica collection which he willed to the British Museum Library that would explain why the author of this Study if he was Dawes could quote freely from erotic texts which only few of his contemporaries would have had available The main merits of this book are that the author was thoroughly familiar with English and French erotic literature and that he put his material in chronological order and in context The editor added a number of references illustrations and indices of personal names and titles to facilitate navigation Some Limericks Norman Douglas, 1942

Some Limericks Norman Douglas, 1967 Obelisk Neil Pearson, 2007-01-01 Obelisk A History of Jack Kahane and the Obelisk Press details the history of one of the most extraordinary and controversial publishing enterprises of the twentieth century Publisher simultaneously of the infamous novels of the literary elite as well as low budget erotica and dirty books Jack Kahane s Obelisk Press published the likes of Henry Miller James Joyce Ana s Nin and D H Lawrence alongside a lengthy list of censor baiting eccentrics like N Reynolds Packard the New York Daily News Rome correspondent and the self styled Marco Polo of Sex Here for the first time is the story of this remarkable venture which captures some of the twentieth century s most outrageous literary personalities and their often scandalous exploits including the failed golf club society magazine run by Nin Miller and Lawrence Durrell and the tortured relationship between Obelisk author Marjorie Firminger and Wyndham Lewis A richly illustrated cultural history of 1920s Paris a fully narrated bibliography of works published by an unforgettable literary institution and a glimpse into the remarkable life of the Press's creator Jack Kahane The Obelisk Press is a publishing event not to be missed by anyone with an interest in twentieth century literary lives and letters

Roger Boyle, the First Earl of Orrery ... Roger Boyle (Earl of Orrery),1742 The Impact of World War One on Limerick Tadhg Moloney,2014-03-26 This book examines the impact of World War One on the people of Limerick It traces how recruitment which was weak at the commencement of the war increased locally after the leader of the Irish Parliamentary Party John Redmond issued his call for Irish nationalists and others to enlist and as the war progressed how Sinn F in separatists impinged on recruiting efforts It also shows that the British War Office were unwitting contributors to the separatists cause by their ill conceived actions that only assisted them in their political cause and anti recruiting campaign The book also tracks how the separatists gained considerably in both military and political strength locally through the inept policies that changed public support for the war effort thereby paving the way for the Sinn F in victory in the General Election of December 1918 thus giving credence to the author and poet Robert Graves description that Limerick had become a Sinn F in ridden town Further to this it demonstrates that despite the best efforts of local capitalists to procure war work contracted out by the British War Office only very little was achieved the War Office ensuring that the vast array of such work was to remain in Britain Some local capitalists did of course gain as a result of the war these were notably those such as merchants and farmers who were in a position to provide Britain and her army with all the foodstuffs that she required Those on low incomes namely the working class who also provided the majority of recruits for the armed forces were to suffer through the ever increasing price rises This book therefore reveals a complex scene where social and political alignments reflect much of what was happening nationally but also had uniquely local characteristics
