you think Massa Dave ain t comin round to see we is fed I members him like it was yest day comin to the quarters with his stick and askin us Had your breakfas We d say Yes suh Then he d ask if we had nough or wanted any more It look like he taken a pleasure in seein us eat At dinner when the field hands come in it am the same way He was sho that potlicker was fill as long as the niggers want to eat The hands worked from sun to sun Massa give them li l crops and let them work them on Saturday Then he bought the stuff and the niggers go to Jefferson and buy clothes and sech like Lots saved money and bought freedom fore the war was over We went to church and first the white preacher preached and then he larns our cullud preachers I seed him ordain a cullud preacher and he told him to allus be honest When the white preacher laid his hand on him all the niggers git to hollerin and shoutin and prayin and that nigger git scart mos to death

Doing History

Mark Donnelly, Dr. Claire Norton, Claire Norton, 2011 History as an academic discipline has dramatically changed over the last few decades and has become much more exciting and varied as a result of ideas from other disciplines the influence of postmodernism and historians incorporation of their own theoretical reflections into their work The way history is studied at university level can vary greatly from history at school or as represented in the media and Doing History bridges that gap Aimed at students of history in their final year of secondary education or beginning degrees this is the ideal introduction to studying history as an academic subject at university Doing History presents the ideas and debates that shape how we do history today covering arguments about nature of historical knowledge and the function of historical writing whether we can really ever know what happened in the past what sources historians depend on and whether the historians version of history has more value than popular histories This practical and accessible introduction to the discipline introduces students to these key discussions familiarises them with the important terms and issues equips them with the necessary vocabulary and encourages them to think about and engage with these questions Clearly structured and accessibly written it is an essential volume for all students embarking on the study of history

A Short History of Disruptive Journalism Technologies

Will Mari, 2019-02-07 A Short History of Disruptive Journalism Technologies provides a swift analysis of the computerization of the newsroom from the mid 1960s through to the early 1990s It focuses on how word processing and a number of related affordances including mobile reporting tools impacted the daily work routines of American news workers The narrative opens with the development of mainframes and their attendant use as databases in large daily newspapers It moves on to the minicomputer era and explores initial news worker experiences with computers for editing and publication Following this the book examines the microprocessor era and the rise of smart terminals microcomputers and off the shelf hardware software along with the increasing use of computers in smaller news organizations Mari then turns to the use of pre internet networks wire services and bulletin boards deployed for user interaction He looks at the integration of decentralized computer networks in newsrooms with a mix of content management systems and PCs and the increasing use of pagers and cellphones for news gathering including the shift from portable to mobile conceptualizations for these technologies A Short History of

Disruptive Journalism Technologies is an illuminating survey for students and instructors of journalism studies It represents an important acknowledgement of the impact of pre internet technological disruptions which led to the even more disruptive internet and related computing technologies in the latter 1990s and through the present Annals of Natural History ,1839
