Public Life and the Place of the Church Michael Brierley, 2017-11-28 The work of Richard

Harries Bishop of Oxford from 1987 to 2006 has been highly distinctive for the consistency of its engagement with contemporary society. It represents a model of the Church which is outward looking, a Church which is as ready to learn from others as it is to offer its own wisdom and resources. This book reflects on Richard Harries' ministry in the borderlands of society and Church and engages deeply with the nature of modern society and the place of the Church within it. Taking Richard Harries' contributions as their inspiration, key figures, each of them major commentators on areas of pressing contemporary concern, probe the important questions which people are asking about a range of social issues: Arms and violence, the role of the media in public life, spirituality, multifaith Britain, sex, capitalism, the second chamber and medical ethics are all discussed, building up a serious debate on the kind of society in which we live and making suggestive comments about the part which the Church might play. Contributors: Sabina Alkire, Michael Bourke, Melvyn Bragg, John Drury, Claire Foster, Jonathan Gorsky, Anthony Howard, Douglas Hurd, Eric James, Julia Neuberger, Edmund Newell, Christopher Rowland, Jane Shaw, Margaret Shepherd, Roger Wagner, Keith Ward, Rowan Williams, Shirley Williams and James Woodward.

Transcendent Vocation Sarah Maxwell, 2013-03-27 Based on detailed analysis of interviews with gay clergymen and also with retired heterosexual clergymen whose ministries span the period since the 1967 Sexual Offences Act Transcendent Vocation provides specific examples to back up the contention that the approach of the Church of England to homosexuals has increasingly been characterised by hypocrisy It considers why gay men wish to work within an organisation that treats them with such negativity especially now that such discrimination is illegal in secular society The prime conclusion is that they do so because of their Transcendent Vocation a conviction of having been called to the ministry by God that is so strong that it enables them to transcend all the hypocrisy and negativity that they encounter Christianity Stephen
