Black Woman Blue Jacqueline Akins, 2005-05 Black Woman Blue is story telling at its southern best Author Jacqueline Akins explores the joys of friendship while examining the painstaking truth behind deceit When evil rears its ugly head the reader is rescued and bosomed in a reward of self discovery patience and faithfulness As I pulled into the driveway of the place I knew was ours I tried to remember when things started to go wrong for us I never wanted a big house just a nice place to lay my head in peace I just wanted to have a comfortable place to be when I was tired of being everywhere else I know this is the right place because the numbers on the house say one thousand two Everybody say the truth suppose to set you free and I can use a taste of freedom right now So hear me when I say to you this is our house but it's a long way from being home How I wish I could step out of this car and go inside and leave Wesley out here in the car to sleep off his drunk I can't I can't cause I hear my daddy saying I told you so And I hear my mama words echoing in my ear you ain't got to go if you don't want to but if you go be woman enough to stay From the short story Home Goings If You Don't Know Me
