Stuart Towns, 2012-01-09 Explores the crucial role of rhetoric and oratory in creating and propagating a Lost Cause public memory of the American South Enduring Legacy explores the vital place of ceremonial oratory in the oral tradition in the South and analyses how rituals such as Confederate Memorial Day Confederate veteran reunions and dedication of Confederate monuments have contributed to creating and sustaining a Lost Cause paradigm for Southern identity Towns studies in detail secessionist and Civil War speeches and how they laid the groundwork for future generations including Southern responses to the civil rights movement and beyond The Lost Cause orators that came after the Civil War Towns argues helped to shape a lasting mythology of the brave Confederate martyr and the Southern positions for why the Confederacy lost and who was to blame Innumerable words were spent in commemorative speeches newspaper editorials and statehouse oratory condemning the evils of Reconstruction redemption reconciliation and the new and future South Towns concludes with an analysis of how Lost Cause myths still influence Southern and national perceptions of the

Julia Nitz analyzes the Civil War diary writing of eight white women from the U S South focusing specifically on how they made sense of the world around them through references to literary texts Nitz finds that many diarists incorporated allusions to poems plays and novels especially works by Shakespeare and the British Romantic poets in moments of uncertainty and crisis While previous studies have overlooked or neglected such literary allusions in personal writings regarding them as mere embellishments or signs of elite social status Nitz reveals that these references functioned as codes through which women diarists contemplated their roles in society and addressed topics related to slavery Confederate politics gender and personal identity Nitz s innovative study of identity construction and literary intertextuality focuses on diaries written by the following women Eliza Frances Fanny Andrews of Georgia 1840 1931 Mary Boykin Miller Chesnut of South Carolina 1823 1886 Malvina Sara Black Gist of South Carolina 1842 1930 Sarah Ida Fowler Morgan of Louisiana 1842 1909 Cornelia Peake McDonald of Virginia 1822 1909 Judith White Brockenbrough McGuire of Virginia 1813 1897 Sarah Katherine Kate Stone of Louisiana 1841 1907 and Ella Gertrude Clanton Thomas of Georgia 1843 1907 These women s diaries circulated in postwar commemoration associations and several saw publication The public acclaim they received helped shape the collective memory of the war and according to Nitz further legitimized notions of racial supremacy and segregation Comparing and contrasting their own lives to literary precedents and fictional role models allowed the diarists to process the privations of war the loss of family members and the looming defeat of the Confederacy Belles and Poets establishes the extent to which literature offered a means of exploring ideas and convictions about class gender and racial hierarchies in the Civil War era South Nitz s work shows that literary allusions in wartime diaries expose the ways in which some white southern women coped with the war and its potential threats to their way of life The Book Review Digest ,2005 The Writers Directory 2008 Michelle Kazensky,2007-06 Features bibliographical biographical and contact information for living authors worldwide who have at least one English publication Entries include name pseudonyms addresses citizenship birth date specialization career information and a bibliography
