Someone To Trust:

Happiness B&H Editorial Staff,2020-06-02 It doesn't seem to matter how much positivity is around us we always seem to focus on the negative Sometimes we need to be reminded of all the good in the world God wants more for you than to get through each day He wants you to have the genuine happiness that can be found each and every day even when the days seem to be filled with clouds In Happiness 100 Devotions to Brighten Your Day you will find the joy that God has given us each and every day Don't allow the negativity in the world hold onto your focus Instead find joy in knowing that there is a God that loves you and cares for you

Horse Sense for People Monty Roberts,2002-05-28 From the author of the 1 bestseller The Man Who Listens to Horses a book for all of us seeking to strengthen our human relationships Monty Roberts will make you marvel The New York Times Book Review In The Man Who Listens to Horses Monty Roberts revealed the depth of communication possible between human and horse Touching the hearts of more than four million readers worldwide that memoir which spent more than a year at the top of The New York Times bestseller list described his discovery of the language of horses and the dramatic effectiveness of removing violence from their training Now the world's most famous horse gentler demonstrates how his revolutionary Join Up technique can be used not just for horses but as a model for how to strengthen human relationships With vivid often deeply moving anecdotes Roberts shows how the lessons learned from the thousands of horses he has known can provide effective guidelines for improving the quality of our communication with one another from learning to read each other effectively to creating fear-free environments and most importantly teaching belief in the power of gentleness and trust

Self-Counseling with STACT (Scripture Therapy and Choice Theory) Les Triché,2019-11-18 Faith leaders and organizational leaders alike need real usable strategies for counseling themselves and those they lead STACT provides these strategies by using The Human Operating Systems for Getting What God Wants You to Have Everyone who approaches their leaders for help or counseling do so because their needs are not being met in their own life These unmet needs lead to every problem facing people today STACT addresses these needs in a compassionate efficient manner and empowers people to make the choices that create healthy meaningful lives The principles are ones that everyone can learn without requiring years of intense counseling or intervention Using STACT frees leaders to delegate counseling when it is not within their own giftings or desires while helping to meet the needs of their congregations or organizations

Creating Values in Life Ashok Gulla,2010-04-27 Unfortunately very few people these days talk about real values in life What we stand for in life and are we living up to these values are worth pondering Are our aspirations in tune with the real purpose of life It is the values that remind us often what to aspire in life Most people value life and its achievements from the perspective of wealth and richness but do not recognize trust honesty and contentment as forward-looking attributes that help in overall satisfaction Giving importance to external growth leaving behind inner development often leads to unbalance in life devoid of overall satisfaction Much of the troubles in this world are that true values of life have narrowed down skewed ignored and misunderstood This book deliberates different aspects of life in terms of personal moral spiritual family and social values and how these can enrich life and fill its purpose A wide range of topics include How to live an easier life Thoughts on simplifying life Virtues of Integrity Mistakes we generally make Control on impulsive mind Being Successful in life Benefits from silence Communication with inner self Creating love for others How to think positive How moral values get reinforced Belief in natural justice What is spirituality Understanding self How to find God What does death mean to us Good family values Being part of whole universe Universal brotherhood Towards developing good values Attempt has been made to describe large issues that are outcome of misdirected value system and how best a person can move ahead in life by focusing on core values The idea of writing this book is to facilitate readers to pause and think about what they aspire and are these aspirations in tandem with broad purpose in life

Post-Soviet Borders Sabine von Löwis, Beate Eschment, 2022-08-18 This book investigates how borders in former Soviet Union territories have evolved and shifted in the thirty years since the end of the Cold War The collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991 led to fifteen independent states and numerous de facto states but this process of rebordering is not finished and social economic infrastructural cultural and political networks and spaces continue to develop This book explores the intersection between these geopolitical shifts and the individual lived experience drawing on cases from across border regions in the Caucasus Central Asia and Eastern Europe Throughout the book introduces and frames the case studies with well informed theoretical conceptual and methodological overviews that situate them within border studies in general and post Soviet border spaces in particular Overall the book demonstrates that like a kaleidoscope the dynamic elements in these newly evolved border regions are similar yet strikingly different in their juxtapositions with the appearance of new configurations often dependent on changing geopolitical constellations This timely guide to the post Soviet world thirty years after the Cold War will be of interest to researchers across border studies politics geography social anthropology history Eastern European Studies Central Asian Studies and Caucasian Studies

Cultures of Transparency Stefan Berger, Susanne Fengler, Dimitrij Owetschkin, Julia Sittmann, 2021-04-18 This volume addresses the major questions surrounding a concept that has become ubiquitous in the media and in civil society as well as in political and economic discourses in recent years and which is demanded with increasing frequency transparency How can society deal with increasing and often diverging demands and expectations of transparency What role can different political and civil society actors play in processes of producing or preventing transparency Where are the limits of transparency and how are these boundaries negotiated What is the relationship of transparency to processes of social change as well as systems of social surveillance and control Engaging with transparency as an interrelated product of law politics economics and culture this interdisciplinary volume explores the ambiguities and contradictions as well as the social and political dilemmas that the age of transparency has unleashed As such it will appeal to researchers across the social sciences and humanities with interests in politics history sociology civil society citizenship public policy criminology and law

Nowak, Robin R. Vallacher, Agnieszka Rychwalska, Magdalena Roszczyńska-Kurasińska, Karolina Ziembowicz, Mikołaj Biesaga, Marta Kacprzyk-Murawska, 2020-02-26 This concise monograph introduces and examines social influence from the perspective of the so called target rather than from the source thus providing for the first time a bidirectional account of this pervasive social phenomenon further bridging simple micro level dyadic interaction rules with macro level properties of the social system This integrative approach allows for advanced models of influence to be developed in both the social and natural sciences e g social animals In particular when used to investigate emergent properties of social change this approach shows that social transitions occur as bubbles of new in the sea of old While in the traditional view influence is synonymous with achieving power and control over others the present approach to social influence puts the emphasis on the target s motives and strategies Here the target may actively seek out influence to help forge opinions and achieve guidance regarding courses of action In this process the target observes others models their thought and behavior and asks for information and opinions In this broadened perspective the processes of social influence enables those being influenced the targets to use the knowledge and processing capacity of influence sources to maximize their access to information minimize their processing effort while optimizing their own functioning and that of the social system in which they evolve This short text addresses above all scientists interested in social influence in the fields of psychology sociology economy marketing and biology However also researchers interested in modeling social processes especially opinion dynamics and social change such as computer scientists physicists and applied mathematicians will benefit from the insights provided Vital Christian Community Philip Brochard,Alissabeth Newton,2022-09-20 Twelve characteristics of healthy Christian communities and the congregational and personal practices that develop them Congregations have been the bedrock of mainline Christian life and practice for centuries but in recent years many have dwindled in energy and impact Leaders conclude that change is needed that they can t keep applying the same models and practices that have served in the past but no longer seem to work At a time when all kinds of institutions are being buffeted by swift and strong cultural forces Brochard and Newton believe the congregation to be a primary site for the transformation of individuals communities and the world and that the measures for congregational vitality begin with health faithfulness and effectiveness as local expressions of the Church The authors offer readers insights into developing a sense of purpose building trust encouraging curiosity becoming more collaborative appreciating productive conflict and other vital skills
