Booklist Life and Loss Linda Goldman, 2013-11-20 Many clinicians recognize that denying or ignoring grief issues in children leaves them feeling alone and that acknowledging loss is crucial part of a child's healthy development. Really dealing with loss in productive ways however is sometimes easier said than done. For decades Life and Loss has been the book clinicians have relied on for a full and nuanced presentation of the many issues with which grieving children grapple as well as an honest exploration of the interrelationship between unresolved grief, educational success and responsible citizenry. The third edition of Life and Loss brings this exploration firmly into the twenty first century and makes a convincing case that children's grief is no longer restricted only to loss identified children. Children's grief is now endemic, it is global. Life and Loss is not just the book clinicians need to understand grief in the twenty first century, it's the book they need to work with it in constructive ways.

Hope for the Journey William Cook, Diane McDermott, Michael A. Rapoff, C. R. Snyder, 2002-12-31 The authors, professional psychologists who work with children and families, believe that adults can help children build hope and combat hopelessness and use stories that children construct about themselves to document the hope building process. Included are two useful appendixes and a new introduction in which the authors respond to readers' questions and reactions to the original edition which was published by Westview Press in 1997.

Raising Our Children to Be Resilient Linda Goldman, 2005-06-29 In this timely and much needed book Linda Goldman addresses the many frightening events that impact our children by providing the reader with a seamless mixture of theory and practice garnered from her extensive experience in the field. Raising Our Children to Be Resilient includes trauma resolution techniques and case studies, discussions of the respective roles played by parents, teachers and the larger community as well as additional resources for those in a position to help children who have been traumatized. The goal of Raising Our Children to Be Resilient is exactly what its title promises: to help children through their pain and confusion and guide them into a flexible and compassionate adulthood.
